Under these conditions the Edison Company has submitted a price of $1,299 for bringing in this service, and I ask the approval of your Honor to awarding a contract to this company, without advertising, under the provisions of section 30, chapter 486, of the Acts of 1909, for this work.

The Edison Electric Illuminating Company is, of course, the only concern which can render this service, the proposed work and the price have been checked by the electrical division of this department and have been found to be fair and reasonable.

Respectfully yours,

LOUIS K. ROURKE,
Superintendent.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

Upon dates indicated the Mayor approved contracts with advertisers as indicated in accompanying communications for work of various kinds. Communications from William P. Long of the Park Department were as follows:

BOSTON, May 28, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your authority is respectfully asked to allow the Board of Park Commissioners to award a contract, without publicly advertising, to D. M. Biggs & Co., 60 Marsh street, Dorchester, for dredging the westerly tributary of Muddy river, between Brookline avenue and Francis street, for the sum of $1,950. The Board of Park Commissioners of the town of Brookline has asked us to do this additional work, which is found necessary.

The reason for the request to award this contract without advertising is that D. M. Biggs & Co. has just recently finished the dredging of the main river, being the lowest bidder under an advertised contract for same, and we believe that this company has its equipment and machinery on the ground and can do the work, under the circumstances, cheaper than any other contractor. The price is reasonable, being only about $2.10 per cubic yard for dredging a narrow river with heavily planted shrubbery on each bank. The price bid on the larger, more open, more accessible river, was $1.80 per cubic yard. The City of Boston is to pay one-third of this bill, namely, $650. The remainder of the bill is to be paid by the town of Brookline.

The work has been authorized by a special legislative act and is to be charged to the special appropriation, Muddy River and Leverett Pond, Improvements.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

BOSTON, June 6, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your authority is respectfully asked to award, without advertising, to the American Coin Lock Company, a lease for a term of three years from June 1, 1930, of the coin lock privilege in the convenience stations on Boston Common, under the same conditions as in its present lease which expired on May 31, 1930, and which provides for the payment of $800 per annum and the furnishing and maintaining of three attendants to care for said convenience stations, and also to furnish such cleaning material as may be necessary.

The reason for this request is that the Board believes that the present conditions are extremely satisfactory and that it would be difficult to get any better results by advertising than we now have, and therefore recommends the awarding of this contract without advertising.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Ferry Service).

Upon June 3 the Mayor approved a contract with Louis P. Steensen for cleaning and painting ferry bridges. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, June 3, 1930.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Your approval is respectfully requested to the award of a contract, without advertising, to Louis P. Steensen for $2,375 for cleaning and painting five ferry bridges at the East Boston Ferries.

This job was advertised and bids opened May 26 but the item in the advertisement was for four ferry bridges, while five were intended and included in the specifications and contract so that, legally, it is impossible to award a contract based on the proposals of May 26.

The low bidder submitted $2,100, with 65 cents for the hourly rate of wages for laborers, while the second low bidder, Steensen, submitted $2,375, with an hourly wage for laborers of $1.37½, which we assume to be the prevailing rate for skilled painters.

Yours very truly,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Paving Service).

Upon June 3 the Mayor approved a contract with S. J. Tomasello for paving work in Nashua street. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, June 3, 1930.

To the Mayor of Boston,

Your approval is respectfully requested to the award of a contract, without advertising, to S. J. Tomasello, 15 Bay street, Dorchester, for approximately $2,500 in accordance with unit prices, for sidewalk and street paving on Nashua street, city, in the vicinity of the new Manger Hotel.

Mr. Tomasello had the contract for paving Nashua street last year, but conditions were not such that he could properly go in on the work in this area.

We have had independent tenders from two other contractors for this same work, both of whom submitted considerably higher amounts.

Yours respectfully,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon varying dates the Mayor approved contracts with bidders as indicated in accompanying communications for paving work as indicated. Communications from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department were as follows:

BOSTON, June 4, 1930.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to the John Rugo Company, 149 Pleasant street, Dorchester, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve $1,000.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, June 4, 1930.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Your permission is respectfully requested to the award of a contract, without advertising, to C. M. Callahan, Incorporated, for approximately $1,600 for sidewalk and pavement work on Stuart street at the junction of Huntington avenue, disrupted by a break in 10-inch water main last year.

The Stuart street roadway is under a five-year maintenance guaranty by this contractor, and, in accordance with our custom, he is the only one to do the work, the customary unit prices being established.

Yours respectfully,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, June 5, 1930.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to Peter Veneto, 8 Fairbury street, Roxbury, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve $1,000.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Upon several dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with advertisers for supplies to the various departments. Communications relative to these from Philip A. Chapman of the Supply Department were as follows:

Respectfully yours,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,

As the Hayward Motors, Incorporated, are the direct agents of the manufacturers, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, May 24, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising same, to the Elgin Corporation to deliver to the Street Cleaning and Oiling Service the following:

Two Model D Elgin pickup sweepers, delivered, at a price of $6,700 each, $13,400; less cash discount ten days, from factory price, $260. Net amount of the contract, $13,140.

As the Elgin Corporation are the manufacturers, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, May 27, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising same, to the White Company to deliver to the Boston City Hospital the following:

Two Model 60 White chassis, equipped with twenty-gallon gas tank, 34 by 7.50 Balloon tires, special ambulance springs, starting and lighting system, front bumper, electric horn, speedometer, one spare rim, tire carrier, full set of tools, etc., delivered, at a price of $1,865 each, $3,730; less allowance on two old White chassis, $150 each, $300. Net amount of the contract, $3,430.

As the White Company are the manufacturers, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, May 28, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising same, to the Kinney Manufacturing Company to deliver to the Street Cleaning and Oiling Service:

Two Kinney street flushing and sprinkling equipments, tank capacity, 1,200 gallons each, complete for flushing and sprinkling, as per specifications, to be mounted on city truck, at a price each of $2,900, $5,800.

The following price on this equipment was received from the Charles Hvass & Co., Incorporated:

Two Hvass double unit flushers, Type 3F4, 1,200 to 1,500 gallons capacity, complete, equipped with pressure sprinkler attachment, to be mounted on city truck, at a price of $2,875 each, $5,750.

In view of the fact that the Kinney Manufacturing Company is a Boston concern, and the difference in price is so slight, I would recommend that they be given the preference because of this fact.

I feel that this award would be a further advantage to the city in the matter of repairs, because the Kinney Manufacturing Company is located in Boston, whereas the city would have to send to New York to obtain parts for the Hvass machine.

Respectfully yours,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, May 28, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Under date of May 21, 1930, bids were asked on Douglas fir for delivery to the Bridge Service on or before June 5, 1930, and prices were received as follows:

485 Pieces 4 Inches by 8 Inches by 11 Feet—485 Pieces 4 Inches by 8 Inches by 4 Feet 2 Inches—245 Pieces 4 Inches by 8 Inches by 7 Feet 4 Inches.—Howell Lumber Company, $46.75 per M. feet; Andrew F. Leatherbee & Co., $50 per M. feet; Tim-Manson-Huckins Company, $50 per M. feet.

The bid of the Howell Lumber Company, the lowest bidder, is not in conformance with our specifications, and the bid of Andrew F. Leatherbee & Co. specified delivery late in July.

In view of the fact that the Bridge Service states that it is imperative that delivery be made on or before June 5, 1930, I respectfully recommend that this contract be awarded to the Tim-Manson-Huckins Company, without publicly advertising same, at a price of $50 per thousand feet, as this concern can make delivery at once from stock. The approximate amount of this contract will be $1,200.

Respectfully yours,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, May 29, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

As the Boston Hupmobile Company, Incorporated, are the direct agents of the manufacturers, no advantage would accrue from publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 9, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

Net amount of the contract, $8,258.06.

These trucks have been selected as best suited for the needs of the Sanitary Service, and as the Mack Motor Truck Company are the manufacturers, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON TO BE REGULAR PORT OF LANDING FOR MAIL PLANES.

Mayor Curley, on June 10, received the following communication from Christopher deGroot, General Agent of the North German Lloyd Line:

MY DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—You have been so very generous and hospitable to our fliers, Baron von Studnitz and his radio operator, that I hardly know how to thank you.

They were greatly impressed with the facilities of our port. Not only the fact that on Castle Island we have a Department of Commerce Airways Radio Station which constantly kept up a two-way communication, not only the fact that the radio beacon is located at the airport and will, regardless of weather conditions, guide them directly to their landing place, but especially the fact that they can carry mail from one of our steamers, fly to Boston, make connections with the regular airmail to New York and the West, and have letters delivered as far west as Chicago six hours before the steamer reaches her pier in New York.

Full advantage will be taken of the favorable location of the City of Boston and unless our steamers are due to dock in New York late in the evening (in which case only a few hours can be saved and the plane will fly directly to New York) Boston will be the regular port of landing of our mail planes. The handling of the plane could be greatly facilitated if the Boston Airport were made a port of entry and if permanent arrangements could be made to have the mail handled at the airport. With the last arrival the mail was handled at the airport only through special courtesy of the Postmaster in Boston. I am asking our head office in New York to take this question up with the proper authorities.

May I once more thank you most heartily for your great kindness and thoughtfulness.

Very sincerely yours,

CHRISTOPHER DEGROOT.

Upon receipt of the above communication from Mr. deGroot, representing the North German Lloyd Line, Mr. John T. Scully, Director of the Industrial Bureau of the City of Boston, was instructed to communicate with the representatives in both branches of Congress from Massachusetts with a view to having Boston designated as a port of entry for mail. The favorable attitude displayed by the President of the United States, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy with reference to the transfer of Governor's Island to the city renders it imperative that the Boston Airport be made a port of entry and there is every reason to believe that through the intercession of the representatives in Congress in both branches, that favorable action may be taken.

CONSTRUCTION WORK.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for the following construction work:

A sanitary sewer of 12-inch pipe and a surface drain of 12-inch pipe in Commonwealth avenue (south side), between Sutherland road and 292 feet easterly, in the Brighton district, at an estimated cost of $5,000.

A surface drain of 24-inch pipe (to be built in old taking) in private land, between Huntington avenue and Bradlee street, in the Hyde Park district, at an estimated cost of $750.

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, June 4, 1930.

EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN, Fire Commissioner, 60 Bristol Street, Boston, Mass.

DEAR COMMISSIONER,—You doubtless know that one Jacob Effant was indicted, found guilty and sentenced to the Concord Reformatory for an indefinite term, for burning his Tremont street haberdashery shop on March 2 with intent to defraud the insurance companies. This fire might have assumed serious proportions in that there were tenements above the shop.

I cannot let this opportunity pass without expressing to you my thanks for the fine cooperation existing between your department and mine, and I want to take a special opportunity to commend the great cooperation and efficient work of your Deputy Chief Thomas Downey, District Chief Samuel Pope and Private Henry N. Enross, and the great assistance given by them to Inspector James A. Trainor and the Assistant District Attorney, Frederick M. J. Sheehan, in the prosecution of this case. I am very glad to say this and want to extend to you my personal thanks.

In this great work we are not concerned with who gets the credit; we are concerned in obtaining the conviction and the sentencing of the culprit, which the above-named members of your department have been very efficient in doing.

With a continued assurance of our close cooperation and best personal regards, I am,

Yours respectfully,

JOHN W. RETH,
State Fire Marshal.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 57.

I. REDUCED ASSIGNMENTS—JUNE 17 AND JULY 4.

From 9 p. m. June 16 to midnight June 17, and 9 p. m. July 3 to midnight July 4, in Districts 1, 2, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15, the first two engine companies and the first ladder company on the assignment cards will respond to box alarms, except where boxes are located on private property, in which case the full complement provided for on the assignment cards shall respond. Reduced assignments shall be made for schoolhouse boxes.

Attention is called to the third paragraph of "Response and Covering Regulations" on card "D" in assignment boxes. This rule must be observed. If a second box is received and there is an engine company in quarters on the first alarm assignment that company only shall automatically respond. This applies also to ladder companies.

No reduction in assignments shall be made for rescue, tower and fireboat companies.

In Districts 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 instead of having two district chiefs respond to the same box, only the district chief in the district where box is located shall respond.

In Districts 1, 2, 8, 9 and 12 the acting district chief will be provided with an automobile for this period. He shall be assigned a telegrapher as a driver. The acting district chief shall be quartered at District Headquarters during this period. The district chief shall respond to the first alarm in his district and the acting district chief to the next alarm, thus alternating and dividing the duty.

District chiefs shall cause to be carried on ladder trucks in Districts 1, 2, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15, four lengths of hose, coffee pot chuck and hydrant wrenches.

Companies returning from fires must pay special attention to extinguishing bonfires and other small fires found en route, and report same to Fire Alarm Office upon return to quarters.

Due to the reduced assignments brought about by the conditions existing during this period officers and members on companies responding must promptly notify the Fire Alarm Office on arrival if there is the slightest doubt in their minds as to the necessity for additional apparatus. This must be done by key.

The rule requiring the first company to reach scene of fire on a still alarm to report to Fire Alarm Office, will be temporarily suspended during this period.

An extra company using a hose wagon equipped with chemical tank will be stationed at Ladder 12's house. Men familiar with the district and an experienced telegrapher shall be attached to this company. This company shall answer still alarms only and must keep in constant communication with the Fire Alarm Office.

Officers in charge of fires during this period, if the fire is inconsequential, must return all unnecessary apparatus to quarters at once in order that it may be placed in service.

The attention of telegraphers is called to the second paragraph of Rule 258 which must be observed.

All officers and members shall thoroughly familiarize themselves with these instructions in order to maintain the efficiency of the department.

All orders inconsistent hereto are hereby rescinded.

By order of Fire Commissioner EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN.

HENRY A. FOX,
Chief of Department.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Chapter 394 of the Acts of the Legislature of 1930 entitled, "An Act Providing for the Elimination of the Crossing at Grade at Governor Square in the City of Boston by Street Railway Cars using the Boylston Street Subway," provides in part that the act shall take effect upon its acceptance by vote of the City Council of the City of Boston, approved by the Mayor, and requires the filing of a certificate of such acceptance with the State Secretary, provided, however, that such acceptance, approval and filing occur during the current year.

I submit to your honorable body a copy of the act and an order providing for its acceptance. The importance of favorable and early action on this matter is, no doubt, clearly evident to the members of the Council.

For years the demand for relief from the congestion at this most important traffic junction has been constantly urged.

Early in 1925, upon my petition, the Legislature enacted chapter 341 of that year, under the terms of which it was provided that the Boston Elevated Railway should pay an annual rental sufficient to meet interest charges on the debt incurred in construction and provide for the necessary payments into a sinking fund to amortize such debt. This act did not become operative by reason of the failure of the Boston Elevated Railway to accept its terms.

In January of this year I again took the matter up and called into conference the Trustees and Directors of the Elevated Railway Company, the members of the Transit Commission and the Corporation Counsel of the city, with the result that an agreement was secured and the present law enacted. Under the terms of this act the Boston Elevated Railway is called upon to pay an annual rental at the rate of 4½ per cent, or approximately $140,000, on the net cost of the extension, this cost being estimated at $3,100,000. In the event, however, that the reserve fund provided in the Public Control Act of 1918 is not sufficient to meet this rental charge in whole or in part, the City of Boston is to assume one half of such amount as the company fails to pay, the other half to be paid by the Commonwealth and in turn assessed on the cities and towns comprising the district established by the 1918 Act, the amount of such assessment to the City of Boston approximating 72 per cent.

It is my firm conviction that the operation of this extension will be not only self-sustaining but will result in a substantial saving to the Elevated road by reason of the elimination of the delays at Governor square which have seriously interfered with the maintenance of the time schedules of the railway, affecting in turn the use of the entire rapid transit system.

It is most earnestly to be hoped and I respectfully recommend that this order be adopted by your honorable body without undue delay.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That chapter 394 of the Acts of 1930, entitled, "An Act Providing for the Elimination of the Crossing at Grade at Governor Square in the City of Boston by Street Railway Cars using the Boylston Street Subway," be, and the same is hereby, accepted.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY FOR UNITED STATES POSTOFFICE EMPLOYEES.

Coun. MAHONEY offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston heartily indorses the proposed legislation now before Congress extending to the employees of the United States Postoffice Department the Saturday half-holiday privileges now enjoyed by nearly all other public employees.

The question came on the passage of the resolution.

Coun. MAHONEY—Mr. President, I am sincerely of the opinion that this resolution should commend itself to the judgment of the members of the City Council. The employees of the United States Post Office Department comprise men and women who are among the hardest workers in the service of our government, and their intimate relation with the great general public which they serve makes necessary the fact that there should be a remarkable sincerity of purpose, loyalty, and fidelity of effort. The employees of the Department of Justice, the Department of Commerce, the Department of the Interior, the Department of Agriculture and the Treasury Department, as well as the various bureaus and governmental boards associated with the United States Government, today enjoy the Saturday half-holiday. The measure of Congressman Kendall now before Congress in Washington will prevent the exclusion of the employees of the Post Office Department in Boston and the entire country from the enjoyment of the Saturday half-holiday which those in state and municipal employ at present enjoy. The enactment of this legislation has been proposed in Washington for many years but without avail, and the time is now at hand when this Council should give its indorsement to this important measure in behalf of the great body of men and women who comprise one of the most meritorious groups of employees in the employ of the American Government. Mr. President, I move a suspension of the rule and the adoption of the resolution.

The rule was suspended and the resolution was adopted.

AUTOMOBILE WARNING SIGNS, WARD 15.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:

SIDEWALK CONSTRUCTION.

Coun. COX offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Willow street, from Railroad to Dunbar street, both sides, Ward 20, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Coun. RUBY and BUSH offered the following:

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along River street, both sides, from Barry street to West Glenwood avenue, Ward 18, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Maverick street, from 249 to 295 and 303 to 307, Ward 1, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

PASSAGE OF LOAN ORDERS.

Coun. MURRAY—Mr. President, I move that we take up loan orders Nos. 6 to 15, inclusive, on the calendar, and vote on them together.

Coun. RUBY—I am going to ask, Mr. Chairman, that each of these orders be voted on separately.

Chairman BUSH—Objection being made, the Council will take up No. 6 on the calendar.

The Council took up, under unfinished business, No. 6 on the calendar, viz.:

No. 13 on the calendar was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 20, nays—Coun. Wilson—1.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I move now that we take up Nos. 7 to 15 on the calendar, and that they be voted on together.

The motion was carried and the roll was called on the passage of Nos. 7 to 15, inclusive, on the calendar (with the exception of No. 13, already passed), viz.:

7. Ordered, That under authority of chapter 305 of the Acts of 1930 the sum of $2,000,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works for Reconstruction of Streets, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

8. 9. Ordered, That under authority of chapter 304 of the Acts of 1930 the sum of $500,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works for Sewerage Works, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

10. Ordered, That the sum of $75,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commissioners for Playgrounds, Faneuil District, Brighton, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates on indebtedness of the city to said amounts.

11. Ordered, That the order passed by the City Council February 17, 1930, and approved by the Mayor February 19, 1930, for a loan of $100,000 to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works for the resurfacing of Bunker Hill street, Ward 2, be, and the same hereby is, rescinded.

12. meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, at the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to that amount.

15. Ordered, That the sum of $30,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commission for the purchase of additional shore property to sufficiently enlarge the bathing area at Tenean Beach, and for the necessary grading, sanding, etc., and that to meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, at the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

On May 19, 1930, the foregoing orders were read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

Nos. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14 and 15, under unfinished business, on the calendar, were given their second and final reading and passage, yeas 20, nays—Coun. Wilson—1.

When Coun. Wilson's name was called, he said: Mr. President, I want to be recorded "No" on No. 12, and "Yes" on the rest.

Chairman BUSH—The Chair is sorry, but the councilor's vote cannot be divided in that way.

Coun. WILSON—Then, Mr. President, I will vote "No" and will then ask reconsideration of the entire vote.

After the announcement of the result, Coun. WILSON said:

Mr. President, I move reconsideration of the vote just taken and ask that No. 12 be voted on separately and the others in block, if required, and that the vote follow the executive session.

Reconsideration was declared lost.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I doubt the vote, and upon the question of the doubt I would like to make a statement, with unanimous consent.

Chairman BUSH—Does the Chair hear any objection? There being no objection, Councilor Wilson may proceed.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, my only purpose in requesting a split-up of the various loan orders is that otherwise I shall be deprived of the opportunity to remain true to the vote I have already taken in the past on the order which appears in No. 12 on the calendar. When the suggestion was made that all the orders be taken up together, I was otherwise engaged, and by voting upon the orders in block I would be denied an opportunity to vote against the order against which I voted last year, and upon which I desire my action to remain consistent. As a matter of principle, I am opposed, anyway, to voting in block on loan orders involving millions of dollars, although I do not object to saving time. But the principle is wrong. I certainly should like the privilege of recording my "no" vote this year on the order upon which I voted "no" last year. Therefore, I have made my motion to reconsider.

Coun. Wilson's motion to reconsider prevailed by a rising vote.

The question came on the passage of orders 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14 and 15.

The orders were given their second and final reading and passage, yeas 19, nays 0.

The question then came on the passage of No. 12 on the calendar.

No. 12 was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 18, nays—Coun. Wilson—1.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. MAHONEY, for the Executive Committee, submitted reports, as follows:

1. Report on petitions (referred today) for children under fifteen years of age to appear at places of public amusement, viz.: Elizabeth G. McNamee, at Elizabeth Peabody House, June 13; Ruth Hawes, Unitarian Parish Hall, June 7; Irene E. Hogan, Greenwood Hall, June, 9—that leave be granted.

Report accepted; leave granted under usual conditions.

2. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that Commissioner of Public Works be authorized to sell at public auction junk and old materials in Public Works Department valued at about $2,200—that order ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

3. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) accepting chapter 394, being act providing for elimination of crossing at grade at Governor square,—that same ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. CURTIS—Mr. President, there has been agitation for years to remedy traffic conditions at Governor square. Not only has the congestion been bad for street traffic, motor vehicles and otherwise, but it has interfered with the whole operation of the subway. We all know the high cost of constructing modern subways, that it runs into many millions of dollars, and what can be more discouraging, when you have a fine improvement like the Boylston Street Subway, than to find the whole operation of it interfered with by street congestion at the exit of the subway? Day after day you can see crowds getting on subway trains at Park street, running out to Beacon street and Commonwealth avenue, and those trains getting stalled at Copley square or at points beyond. Instead of having the rapid transit we are entitled to in view of the large expenditure we have made, we find a procession of trolley cars one after the other tied up because they cannot get out of the subway exit at Governor square. Under the plan for the proposed improvement, not only will that condition be relieved, but we will find also another great improvement which will be welcomed in Boston. I notice from the plans that the exits and entrances of the subway are going to be at the side of the street and not in the middle of the square. In this city up to the present time we have frequently had subway exits and entrances placed out in the middle of streets or squares. Such is the case at Scollay square and at Harvard square. I don't think one sees that condition in other cities with similar traffic conditions. You would not expect to find a subway entrance or exit out in the middle of Broadway or at the corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-second street in New York. But here we too frequently have the entrances and exits out in the middle of a square or street, so that the public have to cross traffic in order to avail themselves of the subway accommodations. So I think there will be a great improvement in that respect, having the exits and entrances at the sides of the streets and not in the middle of the square. So I think we should back this order to the limit and be delighted that this troublesome question, which has caused confusion and doubt for years, has been finally settled. We should certainly congratulate the Mayor for the successful result of his activities in behalf of this great public improvement.

The report was accepted and the order passed.

CENSUS TABULATION.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council favors a retabulation of the United States census enumeration figures for Ward 1, and that a copy of this resolve be sent to Mr. Louis B. Sensale, Supervisor of the Census at Boston.

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, my reason for introducing that resolution at this time is because I strenuously object to the census report as to the population of Ward 1, as submitted by Mr. Sensale's office. I was born in East Boston pretty nearly forty-one years ago. I have lived there all my life, and I know East Boston. East Boston, by virtue of the fact that it is geographically situated on an island, is a beautiful residential section; and, also, because of the tunnel coming there, it is attracting business men. The airport and other facilities afforded over there are also attracting industry. We hear talk about the United Fruit lines coming there, and I wish to say this to Mr. Sensale, that business is building up over in East Boston and that the population is increasing. There is no retrogression in East Boston. As one vitally interested in the growth of East Boston, I strenuously object to the report that has been set out by Mr. Sensale. His report is nonsensical, in stating that people are leaving there. It is nonsensical in that respect, Mr.

President, because they are doing nothing of the sort. One would think from reading the report that has been sent out, practically speaking, that we were exercising birth control over there. The fact is, however, that we have more school children in East Boston than in any other section of the city. Certainly, Mr. Sensale and his enumerators have failed to get at the facts. Last week, since my letter appeared in the newspapers, I received many calls on the telephone and word from different people that they had not seen enumerators, that they had not come to their house. If houses have been overlooked, possibly streets have been overlooked. I ask, therefore, that Mr. Sensale put his enumerators at work and retabulate the count in East Boston.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I would like to offer an amendment, if the gentleman will accept it, that the whole city be included.

Coun. DONOVAN—Yes, Mr. President, I will accept the amendment.

Coun. NORTON—We feel also that our ward has suffered in the enumeration by Mr. Sensale and his employees. While we are credited with an increase of 9,000 in Ward 18 in the last decade, we have found, just resorting to our own amateurish efforts over one hundred people who were not listed by census takers. We feel, therefore, that instead of an increase of 9,000, the increase in the ward should be 10,000. Instead of having 43,000 inhabitants in Ward 18, we feel that we may very likely have 45,000. We feel that if an opportunity is given to have a complete check-up of our ward and of every ward in the City of Boston, Boston will take the place to which she is rightfully entitled among the cities of the country.

Coun. KELLY—Mr. President, before voting on this measure of Councilor Donovan, I want to say from what little investigating I have done in my ward, while the ward is credited with showing a slight increase, certain enumerators—for example, those taking the census on Clayton street—have been telling people that that is Ward 13, Precinct 13, instead of Ward 15, Precinct 15. So I think Councilor Norton's amendment to include the whole city is well put. I think that these fellows who were employed—while it was very nice to see them get a day's pay, and so on—did not know their business.

Coun. Norton's amendment was adopted, and Coun. Donovan's resolution as amended was passed.

FIRE HOUSE, WARD 16.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Fire Commissioner for the erection of a fire house in the vicinity of Neponset avenue and Victory road, Ward 16, and that to meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, at request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

DRAINING OF SMITH'S POND PLAYGROUND.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to have Smith's Pond Playground, Ward 18, properly drained.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

THE NEXT MEETING.

Coun. MAHONEY—Mr. President, I move that when the Council adjourn, it be to meet three weeks from today.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I second that motion.

The motion was adopted, and the Council voted at 3.51 p. m. to adjourn, to meet on Monday, June 23, 1930, at 2 p. m.

CLAIMS DISAPPROVED.

The Law Department has disapproved eighteen claims against the city, aggregating $3,020, and they are classified as follows:

SESSIONS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE TO BE OPEN

Dr. Lyons offered the following:
The Boston School Committee took a great forward step in confirming the confidence of the people in its devotion to their interests when it provided for a complete examination of its administration by establishing the Survey Committee. Much good has come of it. It is to be hoped that we shall now continue this march of progress by the passing of the order which I am about to present, which will bring to the people's view in public meeting the complete manner in which the administration of their schools is carried on.

I therefore offer the following:
ORDERED. That the rules are hereby amended as follows:

Sect. 16, paragraph 1. Strike out the paragraph and substitute in place thereof the following:

Sect. 16. 1. The meetings of the School Committee shall be open but the Committee may hold executive session by a majority vote for the discussion of the fitness and qualifications of its members, officers, and employees, and all matters relating to character and morals, but no votes shall be taken in executive session.

In anticipation of what may be thought, perhaps thought aloud, I would like to say that when a similar order was presented two and a half years ago I voted against it for the following reasons:

First, I thought it would work out badly in the sense that it would take too much time of the Committee discussing things down here in public meeting. Secondly, I believe my objection was then directed to a case brought before us in executive session of a teacher on charges. If it had been discussed in open meeting, and the finding were charges not sustained, irreparable harm would have been done to the person involved. Now, after two and a half years of service, I have arrived at the conclusion that to my way of thinking it is very necessary that we should discuss in public all public business except cases which I have taken care of in this order—cases involving morals and character and other specified situations.

As a Committee, speaking for the school system generally, we have gone through a hard period, a severe test—all sorts of investigations from within and without—and there have been all sorts of public criticisms of the school system generally and of the School Committee particularly and necessarily, as the responsibility for anything that happens to the school system is placed where it rightfully belongs—on the shoulders of the Committee. I feel that the people of Boston, the taxpayers, would like very much to have us show a continuation of effort and present in the future all matters pertaining to public business here in this hall where the public will be welcome, where they may get an insight to the workings of this Committee. I think particularly that the feeling which I had during the starting of the Survey Committee, our investigating body, the feeling that we hadn't anything to hide and that we were perfectly willing to iron out any matters that we might find were not beneficial to the public interest; that if we discovered conditions of which we were not aware and that needed correction, that it would be of extreme interest to the people to know about these things and enable them to better estimate our value as public servants. I think if meetings are held in public it will expedite business instead of retarding it. It is going to make this Committee sit up and pay even greater attention to business. Incidentally I think it will give the public the privilege and the right to sit in here and hear all their public business discussed.

Chairman: Under the rules the order will be laid over. Is there any discussion?

Mr. Gray: Without intending any disrespect of Dr. Lyons, I am called upon to say that so-called "open meetings" are hardy perennials. I think that they have come up almost every year of the four that I have been here, and in voting against this order I am both consistent and following my present convictions. For a more extended recitation of my reasons I can refer the large gathering here tonight and such others as may be interested—we are indeed complimented by the large gathering we have here tonight, ordinarily we have two besides the press—I would refer you to the records of January 10, 1927, in which my remarks are quite extended, and to the records of November 7, 1927, in which they are brief. The fact that open meetings, so-called, were held for a time during my incumbency and very shortly after abandoned by voluntary consent of all concerned after having been tried and found not to work, seems sufficient explanation of my attitude.

I think my feeling is expressed by the following paragraph from a previous statement which I have made: "Many questions, such as salaries, major appointments, creation of new positions or departments, or new projects of one sort or another, etc., require in their preliminary phases the most careful and prolonged discussion and study. If Dr. Lyons' order prevails, however, those affected by such matters, as well as the public, will be in possession of this preliminary data before the committee itself has had time to consider it, much less to study it."

I am perfectly willing to have everything in public so long as we safeguard that sort of thing. Feeling as I do, I shall vote against the order.

Mrs. Pigeon: Although Dr. Lyons and I have been in hearty co-operation in much of our work in connection with our offices here, yet this time I feel that I must vote in opposition to his order. I have served on this Board a very short time so naturally I look to those who are outstanding in their service on previous committees, and I find that they have been strongly opposed to the suggested procedure. They have tried it out and found that it doesn't work, and for that reason I am going to profit by previous experience and vote against the order.

Chairman: I want to call to the attention of the members that discussion here is not on the vote but merely a question of reference in which you may indicate, if you desire, how you feel.

Mr. Reilly: I recognize that the present rules call for public meetings. I believe that Dr. Lyons's order is merely more explicit and a more definite exposition of the present rules and is intended as a gesture to the people that this Committee stands ready and willing to present its business in public. With that gesture I am in full accord because it is my intention to abide by the rules and regulations in every respect. As Dr. Lyons's order is not a nullification of any of the present rules and regulations, I am inclined to favor his motion.

Dr. Lyons: Mr. Chairman, I want to thank Mrs. Pigeon for her very kind attitude. Just briefly, in speaking to Mrs. Pigeon's mention of being guided by past experience, I want to say that at heart my presentation of this order is just an indication of the same thing relating to myself; that I presented the order with a firm conviction based on my experience of two and a half years. I am more convinced than ever that it will be beneficial to the school system and to the School Committee. Now in regard to Mr. Gray's statement: I would say that if it has not worked in the past then the reason was to be laid at the door of the Committees. There is no reason why it should not have worked. It was simply the occasion of the presentation of a similar order to mine with the intention that it should be carried out, but if a Committee or Committees brought about the lapse, then at their doors is the responsibility for it not having worked. In regard to Mr. Gray's statement about the danger of bringing into the picture anything that might cause injury to anybody concerned who might come before us; I think that situation is explicitly and very carefully taken care of in my order.

Chairman: Who is going to decide that, Doctor?

Dr. Lyons: It will be decided by a majority vote of the Committee.

Chairman: Taken in public?

Dr. Lyons: Taken in this hall. We will follow the regular procedure. We have presented to us when we meet in executive session or conference upstairs, a conference memorandum and on that is tabulated everything that is to be considered by us that evening. That same memorandum shall be placed before us here so that before starting the session every member will know what is to come before us. It will be a simple matter for the Chairman on reading the memorandum to quietly call to the attention of the members anything which appears to come within the category of items which should not be discussed in public. The Committee may then quietly and quickly decide whether or not it shall go into executive session.

Chairman: The Chairman is filing a substitute order which calls for public meetings of the Committee and public votes on all matters effecting the expenditure of money, but on no matters which affect individuals, or morals, or character. The Chair regrets that the original motion of Dr. Lyons has been filed because the Chair feels that we are all striving toward the same end; namely, to do our duty to the public of Boston and to let them know just what we are doing, except in such cases as would bring disgrace or discomfort upon some individual. I feel that this Committee, even though it votes down Dr. Lyons's order—and I shall vote against his particular order although from the beginning I have felt that we should open our meetings more to the public—the Committee can agree to pass my compromise order which would throw open to the press and the public everything which concerns the expenditure of money, and nothing which in any way would involve an individual or an individual's personality or character, and I should like to refer to the fact that I introduced a substantially similar order in 1928.

Dr. Lyons: Mr. Chairman, speaking to the substitute order; I feel that in the order which I have presented everything is taken care of which is intended in your order, and it also opens up much broader fields — matters which I think should be discussed down here. You mention only land and building programs, expenditures of money. I take it for granted that will include teachers' salaries.

Chairman: Everything that involves expenditure of money.

Dr. Lyons: I feel that nothing is to be gained by protracting this discussion, but I still feel that everything you have presented in your order is covered in mine and I drew mine for the purpose of pinning down the Committee to the fact that we must appear here for the discussion of all matters, but with very careful protection for all cases where character or morals might be involved, or injury might be brought about to any of the personnel of the School Department.

I think that has been covered in my order and I think mine is narrower than yours, and purposely so. It was drawn with the intention of preventing any possible lapse back to the old conditions which have prevailed. Way back through the years there has been provision for so-called open meetings which gradually developed into open meetings held twice a month with so-called executive session or conference held on two other days of the month. The rules call for two public meetings and we have conferences on two other days, and I think the rule has been changed by procedure so that the most important of our business, in fact all of our important business, has virtually been agreed upon in executive session. Most matters which would be of great interest to the taxpayers of Boston and to the teaching force have been discussed behind closed doors. I am through with discussion, Mr. Chairman. I simply call for a vote on my order.

Mr. Gray: Mr. Chairman, I should be very much confused as to how to vote, because as I understand it your substitute order will cover only matters involving expenditure of money, and Dr. Lyons thinks that your order is broader than his.

Chairman: We will have two weeks to think it over, I simply want a rule by which the Secretary will know; for example, matter involving expenditure of money—down for public meeting; anything that involves a teacher's character or ability—not for public discussion, but for conference. Under Dr. Lyons's order it is for the Committee to come down here with everything on the docket and by discussion around the table, or by the Chairman ruling that certain matters are or are not to be discussed here, call attention to the fact that there is a question of a person's fitness perhaps before the Committee.

Dr. Lyons: The final gesture would be to bring all our business down here in public meeting. Then the Chairman could very quietly call to the attention of the members that a matter should be discussed in conference.

Chairman: In calling an item to the attention of the members I might very well call it to the attention of the very able and alert reporters who are so close to us—physically.

Dr. Lyons: I would leave that with full confidence to the Chairman, feeling that he could inform the members of the Committee in such a way that the press would not receive anything not for public information.

Chairman: I think the difference is this: My order can develop just as much discussion in public of the things that Dr. Lyons and I want discussed in public, but would not allow any of the public to know when we were discussing a teacher or other employee so far as qualifications or fitness. It is a difference in method of approach rather than substance. I wish to call attention to the fact that Dr. Lyons's order calls for discussion of qualifications and fitness of the members of the Committee in public unless a majority vote for discussion in conference. If my fitness or qualifications are in question, I shall consider it an insult if you vote to discuss them in private.

Dr. Lyons: I should be very happy to remove that clause. I thought that while we were investigating everybody else, we might, to show good faith to the public, include ourselves.

Mr. Reilly: I think it should be generally realized that both of these orders are aimed to achieve substantially the same thing. There is a difference in kind, not difference in species. Whether or not either of the orders will be passed, is a matter to be taken care of in time. The essential thought behind both orders that I recognize is the gesture to the public that everything we do on the Boston School Committee is open to the public, and if either of these orders can achieve that end and win the confidence of the people we represent, then I think I should vote in favor of the order. I am ready to vote for either order, whichever is presented first.

Dr. Lyons: I shall be very glad, having presented what from my viewpoint is an iron-clad order making it as drastic as possible, to abide by the decision of the Committee regardless of which order is passed.

Chairman: We are all seeking the same objective. You point out one road and I another. Whether we take your road or mine, we arrive at the same place. We cannot discuss everything in public. Every committee, whether it be judicial or legislative—the Supreme Court of the nation or of state—has its conferences. The legislative bodies break up into committees and these committees have executive sessions. This body cannot do that. It is only five in number and the intention of the Legislature was that we should operate in every instance as a committee of the whole and not break up into sub-committees as it did prior to 1906. That being so we cannot discuss everything in public. We must discuss some matters in private. It is essential in dealing with so large a number of human beings.

Dr. Lyons: I appreciate that fact and worded my order so as to the last possible degree protect the individuals concerned. In conclusion, I want to compare my order, or perhaps Mr. Hurley's order, to the present condition. Section 16, paragraph 1, says: "The sessions of the School Committee shall be open, but the School Committee may, at any time, by a four-fifths vote, go into executive session. It shall, however, pass no votes in executive session." My principal purpose was to break down that section which has twisted things about so that we have been doing most of our business in conference and confirming it in public.

Mr. Reilly: Cannot we vote on Dr. Lyons's order tonight?

Chairman: I have no objection. It seems to me, however, that the members of this Committee should have a couple of weeks to think over which road they will take, Dr. Lyons's order or mine. I haven't heard one word which would indicate that anybody wanted to discuss in private anything that is public business. What we want to discuss in private is something that may concern a public employee but which is private because it may involve a person's reputation.

Mr. Reilly: The thought I had was that we might settle the question tonight and expedite business. I like to see such issues as this where we can almost guess what the conclusion is going to be, settled. If we accomplish that we will facilitate business. I am always in favor of doing today what you can do. For example, at the last meeting I asked that the list of unfinished business be brought up tonight with a view to clearing the calendar, and as a result we will have but three items left. As the Secretary said tonight, for the first time in the history of the School Committee, the docket of the School Committee is clear. If the Chairman wishes to confer with Dr. Lyons for a compromise order, I shall be glad to consider that, but I think we can vote for one or both.

Mr. Gray: I think it would be worth while for the Chairman and Dr. Lyons to get together and iron this thing out.

Dr. Lyons: Anything that is agreeable to the Committee is agreeable to me.

Chairman: The only essential difference is this: How and when and by whom will it be decided when a matter deals with somebody's character or personality, and I believe my order does that a little better than the Doctor's.

The order as submitted by Dr. Lyons and the substitute order proposed by the Chairman were laid over.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

On motion, and in pursuance of the order introduced by Mr. Reilly and passed at the previous meeting, the following items of unfinished business were taken up and placed on file, action on the first item being unnecessary because of the compilation of existing legislation relating to the Boston public schools, and action on others unnecessary because of recent legislation or impracticable because of the present financial situation. On the requested report on means of participating in Tercentenary celebration, report is now unnecessary in view of the fact that the schools are actively engaged in plans for participation.

Order requesting Law Department to codify and interpret existing legislation regulating the appropriating power of the Boston School Committee. Laid over at the meeting of July 24, 1928 (p. 211).

Proposed reduction in quota for elementary schools. Referred to present Committee at meeting of Dec. 23, 1929 (p. 310).

Proposed amendment to Sect. 87, paragraph 1, to change the maximum age for admission to certificate examinations from 40 to 45 years. Referred to Superintendent at meeting of May 4, 1926 (p. 89).

Report on means of participating in Tercentenary Celebration, as requested of Superintendent at the meeting of Feb. 25, 1929 (p. 42).

Limitation of admission to The Teachers College. Order referred to Board of Superintendents at meeting of March 19, 1928 (p. 62).

Establishment of Conservation of Eyesight Classes in high schools. Referred to Board of Superintendents at meeting of July 10, 1929 (p. 200).

Report on study of salaries of teachers and members of the supervising staff. Referred to Board of Apportionment, Jan. 10, 1927 (p. 16).

Petition for appropriating power for increasing certain salaries. Referred to Board of Apportionment, Jan. 10, 1928 (p. 16).

The Committee adjourned.

CHANGING STREET NAMES.

Alteration in the names of streets seems to be on the increase in the United States. In most cases the reasons for it are inadequate, while changes that would actually make for clearness remain unmade. The reason for change would usually seem to be general patriotism, national or local, as where the name of some prominent person is given to a street. During the war German names were largely discarded, as where Berlin avenue in St. Louis became Pershing avenue. In the height of President Wilson's popularity abroad, Wilson avenues sprang up all over the allied countries. Later, disappointment or dissatisfaction caused many of these to be changed again.

CONSOLIDATION OF COUNTIES TO REDUCE TAXES.

Just as consolidation of small business under holding or managing companies reduces overhead costs, it is fair to believe that consolidation of small counties into larger units would reduce taxes through eliminating duplicating offices, etc.

New York has a plan for recasting more than 60 counties into 37 units, and Tennessee, after already having merged 2 counties, now plans to merge the 95 counties in the state into 11 new units.

The results of Tennessee's experience in merging Hamilton and James counties in 1919, as portrayed by J. W. Manning of Vanderbilt University, are interesting. He points out that taxes in James County have been reduced one half, paved highways have been increased from two miles to fifty miles, and many manufacturing plants have entered the county because of the reduction in taxes. The results in New York and Tennessee will be watched with interest by the whole country.

ROSE GARDEN AT FRANKLIN PARK, IN MIDST OF ITS FULL FLOWERING, DRAWING THOUSANDS OF TERCENTENARY VISITORS—WORK OF MAYOR CURLEY'S PREVIOUS ADMINISTRATION GIVES PARK NATIONAL FAME.

FRANKLIN PARK'S ROSE GARDEN A BOWER OF BEAUTY TO TERCENTENARY VISITORS WITH ITS FLOWERS IN FULL BLOOM. HAS WON FAME OVER ENTIRE UNITED STATES.

The interest Mayor Curley took in his second administration in beautifying Franklin Park is showing results this year, for the tercentenary, as never before. The particular feature and attraction for thousands of visitors at this season is the rose garden. The rose garden has won fame for the city and its parks over the entire country and has become one of the boasted show places of the city. With the exception of the rambler roses, most of the plants are in bloom, making the garden a wonderful bower of beauty.

In order that there may be the best possible opportunity for everybody to see what skill and patience have accomplished, and also in recognition of the tercentenary visitors, the garden will be open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily.

There are more than 1,500 rose bushes in this concrete-walled inclosure, many of them representing varieties hard to grow in this climate, and therefore seldom seen in private gardens. All of the well-known varieties are included in the collection and remarkable results have been achieved in their culture. The garden was made possible by Mayor Curley's especial interest in roses and his determination to make Franklin Park as attractive as possible.

Franklin Park may become a mammoth flower show for the tercentenary if the professional and private flower-growing interests respond to the invitation of the Park Department to join in the movement which Mayor Curley suggested a few weeks ago.

It was his idea that if the walk leading from Peabody Circle could be thickly studded with gardens arranged by the leading growers of the country, and in competition for prizes, the tercentenary visitors could enjoy one of the most remarkable attractions of the kind ever offered. The department has sent out 250 invitations and it is hoped to have the feature for the first week in July.

ADDRESS DELIVERED AT BUNKER HILL DAY CEREMONIES, ARMORY, CHARLESTOWN, MONDAY, JUNE 16, BY PROF. PARKER THOMAS MOON OF THE CHAIR OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, NEW YORK CITY.

Tonight the "Town of Boston" is not held by the King's red-coated garrison, nor is there any need for heroes to take their stand on Bunker Hill, preparing for the morrow's battle.

Yet we do have need, we who live in the shadow of office buildings and factories, to take our stand upon a hilltop, not with muskets and powder horns, but with imagination and vision. We need to go up into a high place, whence we may command a view reaching far beyond the forests of petty circumstance and the walls of prejudice. There, looking back upon the vista of our national history, we may, perhaps, see more clearly its meaning and trend. And looking forward, into the future, we may catch some glimpse of the high destiny which we are to fulfill. The future of America cannot be left to blind chance, nor can it safely be entrusted to lobbyists, propagandists and cranks. We do not desire it to be an inglorious future; we dare not make it unworthy. But we shall need vision and courage if we are to make it a fulfillment of all our hopes.

Vision and courage were the qualities which made the defenders of Bunker Hill the founders of a great democracy.

In the familiar story of Bunker Hill there are certain elements of historical controversy—the confusion between Breed's Hill and Bunker Hill, the precise number of Americans engaged, the respective roles of the several American commanders, the traditional three assaults on the American line. But certain things are clear, and one of them is that the odds were against the Americans. The sixteen thousand volunteers who had camped in rude huts round about Boston in the spring of 1775 were not trained troops; they had few cannon and not enough ammunition for a single siege. Yet they dared to pit themselves against the strong garrison of veteran British troops in Boston. Back of that garrison stood the might of a world empire, an empire flushed with recent victory over France in a titanic struggle for colonial dominion and mastery of the seas.

If you read the correspondence of King George the Third, which has been preserved in Windsor Castle and was published only a year or two ago, you can hardly fail to be impressed by the extent of the British monarch's interests, his empire and his power. You will not wonder at his confident letter to Lord North, in February, 1775, in which he says that he has "not the slightest doubt" that the American colonies will eventually submit. He seemed to have every reason for assurance.

ODDS AGAINST MINUTE MEN.

It was against the vast resources of a mighty empire that a few thousand minute men had dared to take up arms. Only if you realize how appalling were the odds against them, can you appreciate the intrepid stroke by which, on the evening of June 16, 1775, these Americans sent a thousand men under Colonel Prescott to seize Breed's Hill, from whose heights their guns could make Boston distinctly less comfortable for the British garrison.

How those men toiled through the night constructing hasty fortifications; how they continued to work the next morning under bombardment; how other New England militiamen came to reinforce the line; how at noon they could see British troops beginning to cross the river to attack them; how General Sir William Howe and Brigadier-General Pigott marshalled the British battalions in formidable array, more than two thousand strong, red coats resplendent and bayonets gleaming in the brilliant June sun—these details you know by heart, but the story will never grow old. Attempts to outflank the American line were repulsed. A frontal attack was ordered. "Attack with bayonets!"

It takes cool courage to face cold steel. Especially for untried militiamen, armed with muskets that had to be slowly reloaded with powder and ball after each shot fired, it must have been an ordeal to wait, holding their fire, until the enemy was almost upon them. When they did fire, the British fell like grass before a scythe, but the assault was renewed again and yet again. Only when their powder horns were empty, and when British artillery was raking their line, did the Americans give ground, and even then many of them used their muskets as clubs against murderous bayonets.

One of the most interesting documents concerning the event is a confidential letter written by General Howe the week after the battle. "Entre nous," he writes, "I have heard a Bird sing that we can do no more in this Campaign than endeavor to preserve the Town of Boston." The battle, in other words, had shown him that thenceforth he must be on the defensive until reinforcements arrived. Bunker Hill, as Howe himself admitted, had been too dearly bought. Nathaniel Greene shrewdly remarked, "I wish we could sell them another hill at the same price." Like King Pyrrhus of old, King George the Third would not be able to afford many such "victories."

In the Cambridge History of the British Empire, published last year, an Oxford historian expresses the opinion that the battle of "Bunker's Hill," as he styles it, "ranks among the finest achievements in magnanimity if we were to belittle the courage of the British Grenadiers"; but we should be lacking in candor if we failed to add that on the seventeenth day of June, 1775, the British infantry gained a hill, only to lose a continent. That is the verdict of history.

BUNKER HILL SYMBOL OF FREEDOM.

Bunker Hill stands today as a symbol of freedom, whose significance has grown with each passing decade, with each onward step of democracy, with each expansion of the influence of America in the world. The men who fought at Bunker Hill and continued to fight until the final victory, won more than their own freedom. Their sacrifice purchased the liberty of future generations; their courage gained the freedom which we enjoy in our day, and which we hope to bequeath to our children as a priceless legacy.

Many a legacy has been squandered or dissipated by unworthy heirs. The legacy of freedom, also, can be lost. Ancient Athens had it, and lost it through lack of statesmanship. Rome had it, but in conquering the world she lost her own liberty. If we maintain ours, we must guard it fearlessly, vigilantly, wisely.

The perils against which we need to be on guard are not of the obvious kind. There is no foreign nation threatening to attack us. We are not likely to surrender our liberties to a military dictatorship, as several European peoples have done, nor to a Community dictatorship, as Russia has.

Yet there are dangers in our situation. One of the external dangers is that war, breaking out in some remote region, possibly in Manchuria or in the Balkans, may spread until the conflagration engulfs us, as it did in 1917. So long as war exists in the world, it holds a menace for us, a menace which science and aviation can but increase, a menace which can be removed only in so far as we are able to make effective in practice the solemn pact which we have made with other nations against the institution of war.

At a time when our power, our wealth, our foreign investments, our war debt claims, our tariff, and our vigorous commercial expansion are exciting not altogether friendly feelings abroad, it is peculiarly important that we remember to act, in the words of the Declaration of Independence, with "a decent respect for the opinions of mankind."

LEGITIMATE SELF-RESPECT.

A decent respect for others is all the more incumbent upon us, because we have so much cause for legitimate self-respect. Blatant jingoism is a species of spurious inflated patriotism which we can easily do without, because we have such solid grounds for genuine patriotism.

It seems worthwhile at any time and particularly appropriate on this occasion to remind ourselves of certain reasons for faith in America.

One is democracy. Our forefathers had sufficient vision to be pioneers of democratic republicanism. They abolished divine-right monarchy, dispensed with feudal aristocracy, and set up a free republic at a time when the chief nations of Europe were still subject to autocratic kings and subservient to feudal nobles. Since that time republican institutions have spread over a large part of Europe, all South America and part of Asia. Democracy in some measure has become the prevailing form of government throughout the world. But America is today the largest and most powerful of existing democracies, and it is therefore our privilege to bear the greatest share of responsibility for preserving the principle of free government by demonstrating in our own affairs that democracy can solve the problems of our age.

A second American contribution to political progress is federalism. It was not, of course, invented in America; but its first application on a large scale and with success was in the United States. The skeptics who predicted failure for this American experiment in its early years have been confounded. Federalism has worked well. In one form or another it has been adopted by our great neighbor on the north, by the greatest nation of South America, by the Union of South Africa and the Commonwealth of Australia; it has been established in the German Reich; Soviet Russia has made use of it; in a sense it has guided the statesmen who have transformed the British Empire into a commonwealth; it is said to be the hope of China and of India and of the turbulent Balkans; and only recently the wisest statesman of the European Continent has proposed nothing less than the federation of Europe.

Perhaps we may go so far as to say that the whole world is beginning to substitute federalism for internecine strife. If the world today pays honor to the memory of a great American President as founder of the League of Nations, it is not by mere accident. It was from American history that Woodrow Wilson drew inspiration, and from America the world sought leadership in the epochal adventure of bringing peace to all mankind. No other nation has had the experience of America in the practice of federalism; and no other has quite the same contribution to make.

It is difficult to put into words the deeper, the spiritual characteristics of Americanism, the qualities which flourish in an atmosphere of freedom. Among them, I would give an important place to a quality which may be termed chivalry. Following with some attention the trend of foreign opinion, as my work requires, I am fully aware that Americans have been accused of materialistic, greedy, ruthless dollar-chasing. That accusation is a travesty of truth. To be sure, American business men do have the habit of making money; but they also give money for a multitude of charities and benefactions. No nation gives more; none gives as much. The spirit which prompts American gifts to the victims of famine and earthquake, to relief work and to philanthropic institutions at home and abroad, manifests itself under various other aspects.

You find it in our attitude toward subject nations and oppressed races; in our sympathy with the struggles of Greece, of Poland, of Ireland, for freedom; in our unwillingness to see the Great Powers despoil China in her weakness; in our protests against persecution of the Jews. It revealed itself when we entered the World War in 1917, not to obtain loot or land, but to vindicate justice and humanity, to aid the weak against the strong, to make the world safe for democracy. Some may scoff at that slogan, after thirteen years, but in 1917 it expressed an idealism which was as instinctively American as it was admirable. At the Paris Peace Conference in 1919 America alone among the victorious Great Powers asked no selfish gain. Such actions express a spirit akin to the most chivalrous ideals of knighthood. They declare an innate national chivalry. The prize—honor above gain, to protect the weak, to be generous to foes, to be gallant, without fear and without reproach—these were ideals of chivalry and I believe them to be ideals of America.

There have been instances, unfortunately, where the dealings of our national government with weak Latin American republics have not been wholly untainted by self-interest. I do not wish to debate those matters here. But I do wish to make the point that even in such instances, the sincere belief of a large section of our people has been that we intervened in the affairs of other countries only to help them achieve stability and independence. The intention is sometimes better than the deed. If we prize the ideal of chivalry, as I believe we do, it must be kept untarnished by the utmost vigilance and the most scrupulous sense of honor.

AMERICA A COMPOSITE NATION.

We may take just pride, further, in the fact that America is a composite nation, representing the union not only of many states, but of diverse races, religions, nationalities and cultures. Almost every race and nation has given us of its ablest, most enterprising sons. We have received the best features of many of civilization. To my mind, this circumstance offers great promise for America's future. Historical research shows that in ancient Greece there was an intermingling of races and tribes and a blending of civilizations before Athens achieved her imperishable glory. Medieval Europe was overrun by multitudes of migrating tribes; it was in truth a melting pot, out of which there arose the modern European civilization which has transformed the world. A similar process may now be at work in America, preparing for the rich, composite, many-sided civilization of tomorrow. If we can be wise enough to welcome the contributions of each of the elements that has entered into the composition of our nation, we may look forward to the flowering of a many-rooted culture, richer and more brilliant, perhaps than the world has yet seen.

The problem of assimilating racial and religious minorities has long vexed Europe. Before the World War, Tsarist Russia endeavored in vain to Russify its minorities by ruthless severity. In pre-war Prussia all attempts to Prussianize Danish and Polish minorities were singularly futile. More recently, in Italy, the Fascisti have resorted to rigorous measures to Italianize the German-speaking inhabitants of the Tyrol. Such policies have not met with success in the past. Nor have the post-war minorities treaties guaranteeing liberty and equality to minorities regardless of race, creed or tongue, in Central and Eastern Europe, put an end to the bitterness of Irredentism. By comparison, we have reason to rejoice in the fact that no other country in modern times has shown such ability to reconcile people of different races, religions, and nationalities and convert them into loyal fellow-citizens devoted to a community of high ideals. And we have done it by liberty rather than by force. If the world could learn that lesson, great strides might be made toward justice and peace. If we can remain true to our traditions, we have a real contribution to make toward this end.

Still more fundamental as a reason for faith in America is the existence among us of a democracy of hope. When the first settlers came to these shores, they left behind them an Old World in which kings still ruled by divine right and nobles were born to high estate, while the peasant masses lived in serfdom, or close to serfdom, with little chance for ambition and little encouragement to hope. There is still a contrast, in this respect, between the Old World and the New. The reasons for it need not enter into this discussion, for the contrast itself is unmistakable and it pervades our life. America is still the land of opportunity, of greater opportunity than the common man can find in the older continents. That is why a restless striving for better things is so characteristic of us.

We have been described by wondering Europeans as a very young nation, as seekers after Utopia, as builders ever planning something nearer paradise. That may not be literally true, but it has a truth in it. It suggests the quality which gives American life its flavor of romance. It is in keeping with the spirit of pioneers searching for "God's country." It is the essence of the hopes of millions who have voyaged to a New World in quest of the better life. Our democracy of hope is the secret of the robust energy of America, and of our youth.

These blessings of freedom and these spiritual qualities which thrive upon freedom are ours today because of the courage and the vision of our ancestors. Taking our stand on a hilltop, as did those minutemen of 1775, I ask you to lift up your hearts in gratitude, to look beyond prejudice and party, to the high destiny of America, and pray that in our turn we may have the courage and the vision to build our fortress of freedom on a hilltop against which no foe shall prevail.

FRANKLIN PARK ROSE GARDEN.

Franklin Park, with its many acres of greensward, shrubs, wild land and trees, is in the height of its summer glory. The winter was kind to all growing things and the recent rain has provided rapid development. Chairman Long of the Park Department is ready for every possible demand of visitors.

Summer planting of the Public Garden and the seventy parks and squares under the jurisdiction of the Park Department is fast being completed. Trucks and two-horse teams have been at work for the last ten days in hauling the huge palms and urns to their respective stations and in transferring the annuals and tropical plants from the greenhouses. In the Public Garden there will be numerous changes in arrangement along the main walk, prominent among which will be a bed of standard verbenas and a bed of standard fuchsia (Black Prince). There will be new delights among the tropics as well.

Four badge beds will be planted in the Public Garden, three of them in honor of the Knights of Labor, the Knights of Columbus, the American Legion, which organizations are to hold conventions here. The fourth bed is that of the American Flag, a feature which has attracted much attention every time it has greeted visitors to the Garden. In the Copley square triangle a very large bed, arranged as a tercentenary feature, will be a summer attraction. With varicolored flowers and plants it represents both the old and the new Boston, and will serve as a horticultural welcome to the various convention groups, the first of which to have its name on the bed being the National Association of Master Plumbers. There will be two smaller beds at the Dartmouth street end of the triangle.

DOCTOR GRENFELL THANKS MAYOR CURLEY FOR KINDNESS WHILE IN BOSTON.

Mayor Curley, on June 16, received the following communication from Sir Wilfred Grenfell, written at sea aboard the schooner "George B. Cluett," bound for Labrador:

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I had no opportunity to acknowledge to you in writing my appreciation of your kindness in honoring the work we are attempting for the people of the less favored, or less developed section of this great continent. Labrador was once ruled by the chief magistrate of Boston, but finding he was unable to control his subjects from shooting natives, he felt obliged to hand his responsibility to some one else. Newfoundland accepted it. But still the old pre-revolution rights of New England fishermen to fish on the coast was retained, and so perhaps it is the more fitting that the chief magistrate of the city today should be interested in the welfare of that coast. Your fishermen have more than once come into my hospitals for relief.

I cannot, however, but believe that in this tercentenary year it is appropriate that you might wish to give expression to the supreme law of God and man—that no more material bonds can ever tie the nations in the kingdom of peace and righteousness for which all great men strive. Nowhere, does it seem to me, could this little act of genuine kindness better be enacted than so near the actual place where once the mother country tried to forward her vision of greatness by force of arms. The world can never be held by nations that look to physical force for their strength.

I cannot but think that in your recognizing a value in this materially small vessel, purchased and equipped by American money, manned by a Canadian skipper, a Newfoundland mate, and a volunteer American crew, there is something unseen by many that is possibly pregnant with a power to unite and advance that knows no limits; and, known under the simple term love, is actually the greatest thing in the world. God grant, sir, that men with such vision and faith may long continue to direct the policies of the Stars and Stripes for America's sake.

Ever, honored sir, very gratefully yours,

WILFRED GRENFELL.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 59.

I. COMMENDATION.

The Fire Commissioner and Chief of Department desire to compliment the many officers and members of the department for the splendid manner in which they volunteered their services for the special detail at the funeral of the late Mrs. Mary E. Curley, wife of his Honor the Mayor on Friday, June 13, 1930. The appearance and conduct of the detail was such as to reflect great credit upon the department, and the commissioner is highly pleased with the spirit of cooperation shown by the officers and members concerned.

II. LIGHTNING WALL PAPER REMOVER.

The Lightning Wall Paper Remover is a device somewhat similar to other gasoline burning devices such as plumbers' torches and melting pots, but of a different design. It is constructed entirely of metal, operates with gasoline as fuel to generate steam which passes through a hose to a perforated device which is applied to the wall for the removal of wall paper. The device weighs about sixty pounds, the fuel tank contains about one gallon of gasoline and the water tank contains about five gallons. When desired, it can be taken from room to room in any building or structure where its services are desired.

The following copy of a letter from the State Fire Marshal to Grandberg Brothers, 103 Federal street, Boston, distributors of this machine, has been received by the Fire Commissioner and is hereby published for the information of the department:

June 11, 1930.

To: GRANDBERG BROTHERS, 103 Federal Street, Boston, Mass.

Subject: In re Lightning Wall Paper Remover.

1. I have had an exhaustive investigation made of the machine known as the Lightning Wall Paper Remover, manufactured by the Warner Manufacturing Company, Minneapolis, Minn., and regret to advise that, owing to the present construction of this machine, its use cannot be approved by this department.

2. If at any time you make certain changes, modifications or improvements in the above-named machine, in order to overcome the difficulty which I have explained to you, then I will be glad to reopen the matter and give it reconsideration for approval.

JOHN W. RETH,
State Fire Marshal.

III. SECTION 7, CURRENT GARAGE REGULATIONS AS AMENDED.

The following copy of a letter from the State Fire Marshal to the Building Commissioner of the City of Boston has been received by the Fire Commissioner and is hereby published for the information of the department:

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, June 11, 1930.

To: EDWARD W. ROEMER, Building Commissioner, City Hall Annex, Boston, Mass.

Subject: Section 7 of the current garage regulations as amended—to become effective as of May 21, 1930.

1. Under date of May 13, copy of section 7 of the current garage regulations of this department, as amended, was forwarded to your office, also to the Fire Commissioner's office. In view of the fact that this amended section did not appear in the General Orders of the Boston Fire Department until May 21, 1930, and that the officers of said department had no knowledge of this new section for the carrying out of the provisions of said section, I beg to advise that section 7 is effective as of May 21, 1930.

2. Therefore, any plans which were submitted to your office prior to said date, for approval, can be acted upon in accordance with the old section 7 of the garage regulations of this department.

JOHN W. RETH,
State Fire Marshal.

III. FIRECRACKERS PROHIBITED FOR SALE OR DISTRIBUTION IN THE COMMONWEALTH.

The following letter and inclosure, which have been received by the Fire Commissioner from the State Fire Marshal, are hereby published for the information of the department:

June 13, 1930.

To: EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN, Fire Commissioner, 60 Bristol Street, Boston, Mass.

Subject: In re firecrackers prohibited for sale or distribution in this Commonwealth.

1. Inclosed herewith for your information is an analysis report of two Chinese firecrackers which were submitted to this office for examination.

2. I hereby order that this type of firecrackers be prohibited for sale and distribution in this Commonwealth.

JOHN W. RETH,
State Fire Marshal.

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, June 13, 1930.

To: Chiefs of Fire Departments.

Subject: Firecrackers.

1. Two samples of firecrackers were received at this office and examined with the following results:

2. Sample No. 1 bears a label on the package stating that the firecrackers are manufactured in China, also "Caution, do not hold in hand after lighting."

Length of firecracker, 2 inches; diameter of firecracker, $\frac{3}{8}$ inch; weight of explosive charge, 3.7 grains. Composition of explosive charge—aluminum dust, potassium nitrate and sulphur.

3. Sample No. 2 bears a Chinese inscription on the label, also in English, "National Fire Works." "Caution, do not hold in hand after lighting." Length of firecracker, $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches; diameter of firecracker, $\frac{1}{4}$ inch; weight of explosive charge, 3 grains. Composition of explosive charge—aluminum dust, potassium nitrate, charcoal and sulphur.

4. The dimensions of these firecrackers comply with the regulations of the department. However their sale is a violation of section 57 of fireworks rules and regulations, as they contain an explosive of much greater explosive power than firecrackers of the same size containing black gunpowder only.

5. Aluminum dust mixed with a carrier of oxygen, such as potassium nitrate, forms a high and very dangerous explosive, and the sale of firecrackers containing aluminum dust as an ingredient of the explosive is in violation of section 70 of the fireworks rules and regulations.

JOHN W. RETH,
State Fire Marshal.

By order of Fire Commissioner EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN.

HENRY A. FOX,
Chief of Department.

He will continue this practice until he has covered all signal boxes in his division, whereupon he shall continue the same procedure. He shall keep a record in a book which will be at all times ready for inspection of his superiors, stating the hours he is on duty each night, outside the station, the parts of his division visited and all important matters which he considers worthy of note, paying special attention to all places where liquor is sold illegally, and report to the officer commanding his division all suspicious and important matters concerning such places.

He shall note all licensed persons and places within his division, and also all suspected gambling houses, places where lotteries are maintained, night-walkers, houses of ill-fame, etc., and keep a list thereof in his book for reference, and report the same to the officer commanding his division.

He shall also carefully note and impartially report to the officer commanding his division, the case of every sergeant and patrolman absent from his proper place or guilty of other neglect of discipline or duty; and their failure to so report shall be sufficient cause for suspension, reduction in rank, or discharge from service.

While absent from his station, on such duty, he shall leave in charge a sergeant who will be held responsible therefor. If in the judgment of the lieutenant an emergency should arise requiring his presence in the station house rather than out and around his division, he shall report the same the following day to his captain, stating in detail the emergency, with his reason why his presence was required in the station. Such report shall be forwarded at once by the captain to the superintendent with such comment thereon as he shall deem advisable.

While a sergeant is in charge of a station during the absence of his superior officers he will be held to a full responsibility for the conduct of his division.

This order shall take effect at 5.45 o'clock p. m., Thursday, June 12, 1930.

AIRPORTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The number of airports in the country continues to grow steadily, and the listing compiled by the Department of Commerce showed 1,520 airports in operation on October 2 of this year. Of these, 442 were municipal airports, and 468 were privately owned and operated. The rest included army fields, naval air stations, Department of Commerce intermediate fields, marked auxiliary fields and miscellaneous others. As will be noted, the municipal airports comprise 29 per cent of the total number now in use in the country. The fact that 442 cities of various sizes have indicated their interest by investing substantial funds in the purchase of property and construction of these airports illustrates the stability of aviation today. As indicative of the volume of traffic already in evidence at municipal airports, it might be noted that in a recent representative week the Des Moines airport showed 88 airplanes arriving and 86 leaving. Oakland, California, showed 55 arriving, 52 leaving; while the Tulsa, Oklahoma, airport showed 272 arriving and 265 leaving. These figures are constantly increasing, and they show that the city airport is already being used.

PORT OF BOSTON.

Boston Harbor comprises an area of about 47 square miles (exclusive of the islands), including all the expanse of tidewater within a straight line from Point Allerton to Point Shirley and extending therefrom to the mainland. It is the best of natural harbors, near open sea, sheltered and spacious for anchorage; main ship channel 35 feet in depth at mean low water, increasing to 40 feet from President Roads to open sea; new dredging operations in charge of United States engineers are under way for increasing depth of said main channel to 40 feet; waterfront (i. e., lineal pier space) 40 miles, 6 miles fronting on 30 feet depth at low water.

Commonwealth Pier No. 5, South Boston, 1,200 feet long, 400 feet wide, accommodating five 600-foot ships at one time, 40 feet depth at mean low water on both sides, with three 2-story fireproof buildings of steel and concrete construction, containing 900,000 square feet of floor space, total cost of this enterprise to State, $4,500,000. Commonwealth Pier No. 6, South Boston (Fish Pier), buildings on same erected by lessee, Boston Fish Market Corporation, cost to State, $1,487,361. Commonwealth Pier, No. 1, East Boston, 900 feet long, costing State $764,600 for site and $426,674 for construction. New dry dock at South Boston (probably the largest in world), completed in 1919, 1,200 feet long and 120 wide, costing $3,169,651 and taken by United States Government at total cost.

Islands in Boston Harbor over 3 acres in area, 17, with total area of 965 acres; Long Island the largest, or 215.5 acres. Owned by United States, 392 acres; by City of Boston, 334 acres. Number of wharves, 143, of which eight are owned by the city.

There are 38 foreign steamship lines with regular sailings to and from Boston, ten coastwise lines and three intercoastal. In 1915 a revision of the harbor lines was made and the project undertaken whereby 600 acres of flats between Governor's Island and Jeffries Pt. will be filled in and used for extensive commercial developments under State control. About 175 acres of flats have recently been filled in and added to the land area of East Boston and 160 acres to that of South Boston.

In April, 1918, the Government decided to establish its Army Supply Base on a portion of the Commonwealth lands in South Boston. About 57.6 acres were purchased of the State, the price being $1,317,510, soon followed by the construction of two pier sheds, each 920 feet long, a wharf shed and other buildings, including one of the largest storehouses in the world, built of reinforced concrete, eight stories high, 1,638 feet long, 126 feet wide and with floor space of over 1,650,000 square feet. The total outlay for the plant was $26,000,000.

Total expenditure by State for improvement of Boston Harbor $22,575,827 from 1859 to November 30, 1927, inclusive; in the same period, there was expended additionally $951,992 on small channels; total Federal expenditure from 1790 to June 30, 1927, $13,258,846.

FLAG DAYS.

By order of the City Council it is the duty of the City Messenger to have the national colors displayed upon the public flagstuffs on the following days:

Franklin's Birthday, January 17; Lincoln's Birthday, February 12; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Evacuation Day, March 17; Patriot's Day, April 19; Grant's Birthday, April 27; Memorial Day, May 30; Anniversary of Adoption of National Colors, June 14; Bunker Hill Day, June 17; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, September (first Monday); Anniversary of Founding of Boston, September 17; Columbus Day, October 12; Armistice Day, November 11.

THE COST OF DIPHTHERIA.

Diphtheria costs New York City over $5,000,000 annually, according to Dr. Shirley W. Wynne, Health Commissioner of New York, whose statement, given in a news release from the department, is based on the calculations of the value of the lives lost, the cost of hospital care, and the expense of caring for patients in their homes.

Last year the loss occasioned by diphtheria in New York City was as follows:

Value of 642 human lives lost.....	$4,575,000
Cost of hospital care for 2,976 cases in the Contagious Disease Hospitals.....	391,000
Cost of caring for 7,800 cases in private homes.....	273,000
	$5,139,000

As against an annual economic loss of over $5,000,000 a year it is stated that an expenditure of less than 10 per cent of this sum will suffice to wipe out diphtheria and thus save the community $4,500,000 annually.

Figures by the New York City Department of Health show that thus far this year over 25,000 children have been immunized against diphtheria, nearly 12,000 having been protected by private physicians. The growing interest on the part of parents is well shown in the steady increase in the number of children immunized, which increased from 555 in the first week of the present campaign to 4,702 during the first week in April, or almost ninefold.

MUNICIPALITY TAKES OVER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AIRPORT.

Oklahoma City has voted $425,000 in bonds for the enlargement and improvement of its municipal airport. The Aviation Committee of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce has operated the airport for the past four years and was largely instrumental in putting over the bond-issue campaign. The port will in the future be operated by the city as a strictly municipal project.

When completed, the new field will comprise 360 acres and will meet all of the qualifications for an A 1A airport as set forth by the United States Department of Commerce.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS REDUCE BALTIMORE TRAFFIC TOLL.

An analysis of traffic accidents at street intersections in Baltimore indicates that the automatic traffic signal is proving very effective in reducing the number of such accidents.

There were 419 traffic accidents at all intersections covered in the report issued by the Baltimore Safety Council for the first six months of 1927, before the signals were installed. In direct contrast, only 259 such accidents were recorded for the first six months of this year, with the signals in operation.

The casualties were: one person killed and 129 injured before the installation of the signals, as compared with two killed but only 92 injured after. A reduction in the number of accidents was reported at thirty-two intersections, following the installation of the signals, while seventeen other intersections have shown little or no change as yet, and ten actually have experienced an increase since the use of the signals.

THROUGH TRAFFIC STREETS.

Many a city government, confronted almost unawares by the ever-increasing traffic problem, has seized upon the "through street" idea as the least expensive sop to those who clamor for something to relieve the distress. This situation is reflected in many city traffic ordinances which give absolute right-of-way to vehicles on any of the "arterial highways" included in a long list, and which fail entirely to provide for stop requirements, signs, enforcement facilities, or public education. Unfortunately, traffic regulation is not so simple. It cannot be successfully accomplished by merely designating certain through streets.

Still, through streets are useful. Their successful application depends only on an understanding of what can and what cannot be expected of them, and on a realization of where they fit into the traffic control picture. Consider a street as it develops with the increasing traffic from a minor highway to a heavily traveled main thoroughfare. Traffic control will logically develop in successive steps something like these:

1. No control at all.
2. Slow or stop signs at isolated intersections.
3. Through streets with stop signs at every intersection.
4. Occasional automatic signals introduced where there is heavy cross traffic.
5. Complete flexible progressive signal control.
6. Grade separation at important intersecting streets.
7. Elevated or depressed roadway without intersecting streets.

METHODS OF ELIMINATING GRADE-CROSSING ACCIDENTS.

Five suggestions aimed at the elimination of grade-crossing accidents are offered in the monthly report of the Street Traffic Committee of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

It is estimated that curing the grade-crossing evil would reduce traffic accidents by 10 per cent in a very short time, and the Committee presents the following five points for discussion:

1. Do away with those grade crossings which have the heaviest traffic.
2. Place warning signs not less than 500 feet back from the railroad tracks.
3. Take down all signs from obsolete trackage.
4. Use traffic-light signals (operated by trains) instead of signs, if there are fewer than five trains per day.
5. Consider scrapping all railroad signs in favor of signals for use only when train is approaching.

"The last two points merit consideration first, because, though they are new doctrines, they seem the least expensive and most practical of application."

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7, (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the new style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

DIMENSIONS, ETC., OF BOSTON.

Boston's greatest length, 13.8 miles, i. e., from northern end of East Boston to southern end of Hyde Park; greatest width, 7.75 miles, i. e., from Marine Park shore to western end of Brighton; median transverse width, 5.75 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Harvard Bridge to Neponset river at Blue Hill avenue; width of business center, 1.2 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Cambridge Bridge to Fort Point channel at Summer street. Geographical center of city in Roxbury, corner Walnut and Westminster avenues.

NEW ORLEANS BUILDING THREE NEW INCINERATORS.

Three new incinerators to cost a total of $700,000 are under construction at New Orleans and will add appreciably to that city's sanitation system. This will make a total of five plants where garbage can be readily disposed of. The plants, according to Commissioner of Public Property John Klorer, will be equipped in the most scientific manner with special provision for the prevention of any smoke nuisance.

The incinerators are conveniently distributed about the city, one of the new ones being almost ready for use. The one now nearing completion can handle 170 tons of garbage every 16 hours with no odor escaping, and its stacks are 125 feet high.

COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES BY MUNICIPALITIES.

The collection of delinquent taxes is often neglected by city officials, resulting in a considerable financial loss to the municipality.

The sale of property for taxes usually takes place from one to three years after the taxes have become due and after the publication of a tax sale notice for from three to six weeks. The property is sold at auction to the highest bidder provided that the bid covers the amount of taxes, all unpaid assessments, interest, fees, penalties, and other charges against the property. If the bid is not sufficient to cover these items, the city bids in the property. Property sold for taxes may be redeemed after a period varying from one to three years upon payment of sum sold for, together with interest computed at the rate of 12 per cent per annum. If the property is not redeemed within the prescribed time the purchaser is given either a deed, an estate in fee simple, or an absolute estate in fee, subject only to the lien of unpaid state and county taxes.

In two cities, White Plains and Yonkers, the tax lien is sold. This has worked out very satisfactorily. In Yonkers the problem of the collection of delinquent taxes has been cleared up:

1. By keeping the assessed valuation down to the real present market value, thereby preventing the accumulation of a large amount of uncollectible taxes.
2. By foreclosure, in one action, of large numbers of lots in one ownership.
3. By assignment of tax liens, at full value, to any one applying for same.
4. By resale, at reduced amounts, of tax liens held by the city.
5. By compromise with owners, reducing the amounts due to a sum that will make it worth while for such owners to pay up the city thereby saving foreclosure costs, and immediately placing such property on a taxpaying basis, and at the same time allowing the owners to get out with some equity. Foreclosure should never be resorted to where an owner shows any disposition to compromise.

BOSTON AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (441 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexations as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the thirty-nine cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would be second to the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

ALL BOSTON AND THE STATE ACCLAIM REAR ADMIRAL BYRD IN TRIBUTE FOR POLAR ACHIEVEMENTS — MAYOR CURLEY GREETES HERO AT SOUTH STATION AND BIDS HIM WELCOME HOME — RECEPTION ON COMMON FOLLOWS — THEN BANQUET AT COPLEY-PLAZA.

PHOTO OF GOLD MEDALLION PRESENTED TO REAR ADMIRAL BYRD BY MAYOR CURLEY IN TOKEN OF ESTEEM OF BOSTON'S CITIZENS.

With Mayor Curley acting as personal host for the City of Boston, her thousands of citizens, including the entire metropolitan district, and Governor Allen, paused in their daily routine on Friday to give honor to Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, the man who has conquered both extremities of the earth and come home to his fellow-citizens to share the glory of his achievements with them. With Admiral Byrd were several of his polar exploration companions.

For days preparations for this occasion were in the making. Mayor Curley named a committee for the reception plans, and this committee, under the direction of J. Philip O'Connell, Director of Public Celebrations, has been at work ever since. The culmination of all the work came with the public gathering on the Common at the Parkman bandstand, the presentation of a medallion, symbol of Admiral Byrd's achievements, the greeting of him and his associates, and the banquet in the evening at the Copley-Plaza Hotel.

By voice, by radio and by thought the hosts of citizens of the entire state took part in the greetings to the heroes of the Antarctic expedition and shared in the tributes to these intrepid men. Not content with meeting them at the South Station, Mayor Curley deemed it fitting that a delegation of his representatives be sent to New York to accompany the group to this city in a special observation car.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,

From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

TRIBUTE TO ADMIRAL BYRD.

And while the train was coming to a stop at the South Station cannon at the Boston Navy Yard boomed the rear admiral's salute of thirteen guns. Admiral Byrd alighted at 1.55 o'clock from his special car, the David Livingstone, named in honor of the African explorer. He was greeted at the station by Mayor Curley and a committee of distinguished citizens.

The Mayor's escort of personal representatives to New York included City Treasurer Edmund L. Dolan, General Edward L. Logan, Capt. Gardiner H. Fiske, vice-chairman of the Boston Municipal Air Board; and Capt. Richard E. Danielson. Captain Fiske and Captain Danielson arranged for a great aerial demonstration over the city in connection with the reception.

Forty airplanes, representing the Army, Navy, National Guard and commercial organizations at the East Boston and Dennison airports, soared over the South Station as Admiral Byrd's train arrived. They flew in formation over the route of the parade to Boston Common, where the city's welcome was officially extended. In recognition of Admiral Byrd's services in organizing the Squantum naval air station, of which he was the first commander, two flights of five seaplanes and five landplanes headed the aerial escort, with Lieut. Joseph B. Lynch, U. S. N., leading the formation. Following the naval planes came a squadron of nine Regular Army and Reserve planes under command of Capt. Christopher Ford, commanding the Army unit at the airport. Major Louis E. Boutwell led the nine airplanes of the Massachusetts National Guard squadron, and they were followed by flights of three or more planes from each of the commercial companies.

The street parade proceeded from the South Station through Dewey square, Federal street, Milk street, Congress street, State street, Court street, Scollay square, Tremont street, Park street, Beacon street and Charles street, to the Common, halting for a few moments in front of the State House, where Admiral Byrd received the welcome of the Commonwealth from Governor Allen and was presented with a gold medallion as the gift of the State. Precedent prevented Governor Allen from greeting Admiral Byrd at the South Station, this being a courtesy extended by the chief executive of the Commonwealth only to the President of the United States.

The parade was headed by a troop of mounted police. In the first automobile Admiral Byrd rode with Mayor Curley, while Mrs. Byrd was accompanied by Adjutant-General Jesse F. Stevens, representing the Governor, in the second car. The third, fourth and fifth cars bore the New England members of the Byrd expedition, and in the rear were ten cars occupied by members of the reception committee. The automobiles were escorted by sailors and marines from the Boston Navy Yard and the Navy Band, the 110th Cavalry and its mounted band and the National Lancers.

As Admiral Byrd arrived at the Common a salute was fired by a battery of the 101st Field Artillery, and the admiral was escorted to the bandstand by members of Crosscup-Pishon Post, American Legion, of which he is an honorary member. The exercises on the Common were brief. The Mayor extended the official welcome of the city and presented the admiral with a bronze clock, one of the two gifts of the city. After Admiral Byrd's response he was escorted to his home at 9 Brimmer street.

In the evening the city's dinner to Admiral Byrd took place at the Copley-Plaza and the Mayor then presented the city's other gift to the explorer, a gold medallion. The exercises at the Parkman Bandstand were broadcast by Station WNAC and the speeches at the dinner by WBZA.

Admiral Byrd was accompanied on the trip from New York to Boston by several of his companions on the Antarctic expedition, who shared in the city's welcome, including Bernt Balchen and Harold I. June, airplane pilots, who handled the plane "Floyd Bennett" which made the hazardous flight to the South Pole; Dean Smith, another air pilot; Capt. Ashley C. McKinley, aerial surveyor; Charles E. Lofgren, personnel officer; Capt. Gustave L. Brown, commander of the steamer "Eleanor Bolling"; Kennard Bubier, aviation mechanic; Paul A. Sipple, the representative of the Boy Scouts of the United States, and Victor H. Czegka, machinist. Capt. H. H.

Railey, personal representative of Admiral Byrd, and his assistant, A. K. Mills, also were in the party.

The train made regular stops at Bridgeport, New Haven, New London, Westerly, Kingston, Providence and the Back Bay, and Admiral Byrd, whose car was at the rear, made his appearance upon the observation platform at the various railroad stations.

In Boston these members of the South Pole expedition joined the admiral at the South Station: Capt. Frederick C. Melville of Lynn, commander of the "City of New York"; Dr. Laurence M. Gould, geologist; Arnold Clark, fireman; Lieut. Thomas B. Mulroy, chief engineer; John Bird, scientist; Henry T. Harrison, Jr., aerologist; Arthur T. Walden, who had charge of the dogs; and Frederick E. Crockett, Edward E. Goodale and Norman B. Vaughn, dog drivers.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.General Order No. 26.

The following promotion and assignment is hereby ordered to take effect Friday, June 20, 1930, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.:

Lieut. John McGrath, Superintendent's Office, to the grade of captain, assigned to Superintendent's Office.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

*General Order No. 27.FOR INFORMATION OF MEMBERS OF THE DEPARTMENT.

Various questions and difficulties have arisen as a result of seizure of motor vehicles by officers of this department, and, therefore, in order to clear the situation in the minds of everyone, I call to the attention of members of the department the law in reference to same and the procedure, as recommended to me, to be followed:

Section 75, chapter 138, of the General Laws is as follows:

"A mayor, alderman, selectman, deputy sheriff, chief of police, deputy chief of police, city marshal, deputy or assistant marshal, police officer or constable, in his city or town, may without a warrant arrest any person whom he finds in the act of illegally selling, transporting, distributing or delivering intoxicating liquor, and seize the liquor, vessels and implements of sale in the possession of such person, and detain them until warrants can be procured against such person, and for the seizure of said liquor, vessels and implements, under this chapter. Such officers shall enforce or cause to be enforced the penalties provided by law against every person who is guilty of a violation of any law relative to the sale of intoxicating liquor of which they can obtain reasonable proof."

This section clearly permits an officer of this department to seize without warrant a motor vehicle that is illegally transporting, distributing or delivering intoxicating liquor. An arresting officer must be absolutely certain that the motor vehicle was actually used in transporting, selling and delivering said intoxicating liquor for sale contrary to law. After the seizure the department must immediately complain that the motor vehicle seized was a common nuisance, and pray that the said motor vehicle be forfeited. Due notice must be given, of course, to show cause why the motor vehicle in question should not be forfeited.

I call attention to the case of Commonwealth v. Certain Motor Vehicle, 261 Mass., page 504. This case clearly sets out all procedure and questions involved in the forfeiture of implements and vessels seized for illegally transporting or selling intoxicating liquor.

The officers must be extremely careful to obtain the proper evidence in order to prove that the motor vehicle was actually used by the defendant in the illegal transporting and sale of liquor. In order that the procedure may be clearly understood I cite an example where an officer of the department should not seize a motor vehicle.

A certain individual was arrested by a member of this department for selling three bottles of intoxicating liquor to a patrolman in the hallway of a certain dwelling. The individual had in his possession at the time of his arrest a certain motor vehicle. There was no evidence that the automobile was used for the transporting of the liquor, nevertheless, the automobile was taken from the individual and placed in a garage. Later an action of replevin was brought against the captain of the division. The automobile was replevined and an execution issued against the captain for costs. The procedure in this case should not be followed in the future. The proper procedure would be to leave the automobile standing where it was left, and to notify the owner by telephone that the automobile is standing in the street and that it should be removed. If the owner neglects to remove the automobile within a reasonable time the automobile should be then placed in a garage for safekeeping, not because it was used by the individual who was arrested for the sale of intoxicating liquor as noted above, but because it would remain in the street possibly over night and be in violation of certain traffic regulations.

When the car is placed in a garage, the garage owner should be notified that the car is merely placed in that garage for safekeeping until the owner presents proper credentials to the garage owner before the car is delivered to him.

From time to time division commanders will read this order to all officers attached to their respective divisions and instruct them as to the procedure to be followed.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 28.

The following matter was reported by Capt. Perley S. Skillings, commanding Police Division 12:

At about 6 p. m., on June 17, 1930, Patrolman Charles H. Tighe of Division 15 (detailed to Division 12) after having done a full day's traffic duty on the latter division on a warm day, and when on his way home after checking out at the station, noticed two men acting suspiciously near an automobile on K street, South Boston district.

As the officer was about to question the men, one of them drew and aimed a pistol and pulled the trigger but the pistol jammed, thereby, probably, saving the life of the officer.

Patrolman Tighe grappled with his assailant, took the revolver away and placed him under arrest. The other person, of the two about to be questioned, made his escape but was later arrested by Patrolman Tighe and another officer of this department.

Later at the station house of Division 12 the prisoner under arrest, who had drawn the pistol, was identified as an alleged "hold-up" man of a chain grocery store in the City Point section on June 14, 1930; and, further, upon investigation, it appeared that he had on a previous occasion been sentenced for manslaughter to a term of from five to ten years in the State Prison.

For the attention to duty shown by Patrolman Tighe and his courage displayed in the face of such immediate danger to his life, the Police Commissioner is pleased to reward him with an additional vacation of one week which he may take now or with his regular vacation.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 29.

Patrolman John R. Flynn of the Superintendent's Office (detailed to the office of the Health Department), having arrived at the age of seventy years, and having preformed faithful service in the Police Department for forty-two and ten-twelfths years, it is hereby Ordered, His Honor the Mayor having approved the same, that the said Patrolman John R. Flynn be retired from active service and that his name be placed upon the department pension roll with pay at the rate of ten hundred and fifty (1,050) dollars per annum (to be paid monthly), said sum being one half of the amount of compensation received by him in the office from which he is retired; to take effect at 5.45 o'clock p. m., Monday, June 23, 1930.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 30.

The Commissioner of Public Health of the City of Boston, in the exercise of the authority conferred on him by chapter 450, section 7, Acts of 1889, as amended by chapter 287, Acts of 1911, has made requisition for the transfer of Patrolman Patrick F. Concannon of Division 20 to the service and direction of the Boston Health Department. The said Patrolman Concannon is so transferred.

The name of Patrolman Patrick F. Concannon will, therefore, be no longer carried on the roll of Police Division 20, but will be carried as attached to the Superintendent's Office.

This order will take effect as of 7.45 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, June 24, 1930.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 31.

In the matter of the complaint of Perley S. Skillings, captain, commanding Division 12, against Patrolman John P. Gately of the same division, for violation of the Rules and Regulations of this department, to wit:

Charge: Neglect of duty.

Specification: In that on the 22d day of June, 1930, the said Patrolman John P. Gately did fail to pull in "on duty" calls from 1.15 to 4.08 a. m.

The commissioner, after considering the complaint and the recommendation of Captain Skillings, that, because of the previous good record of the officer, leniency be shown, hereby imposes punishment duty of seventy hours on the said Patrolman John P. Gately.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

The allowance for supplies for each school, department or activity is recorded. These detailed estimates contain approximately three thousand items exclusive of totals and afford the opportunity of studying school costs in great detail, as they present a collection of facts properly organized and classified for presentation and discussion. Classification by ranks and by salaries of all permanent and temporary personnel enables the School Committee and its officers to give information on salaries of teachers and others which is being sought constantly by boards of education, educational associations and other agencies throughout the country.

Final appropriations	9,342,879.47
Total Appropriations for Maintenance, Exclusive of "Alterations and Repairs, Etc."	$15,889,879.47

Question came on the acceptance of the estimates and the passage of the appended appropriation order.

The estimates were accepted, and the order making appropriation in the sum of $9,342,879.47 was passed by the following vote, such sum being, as previously stated, in addition to the appropriation on account of $6,547,000.00 made at the meeting of April 21, 1930:

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The order laid over at the meeting of May 5, 1930, authorizing the adoption of a text book was taken up and passed.

The two orders laid over at the previous meeting to provide for the establishment and amendment of boundary lines of certain districts were taken up and passed.

The following order introduced by Dr. Lyons and laid over at the previous meeting, was taken up:

ORDERED, That the rules are hereby amended as follows:

Sect. 16, paragraph 1. Strike out the paragraph and substitute in place thereof the following:

Sect. 16. 1. The meetings of the School Committee shall be open but the Committee may hold executive session by a majority vote for the discussion of the fitness and qualifications of its members, officers, and employees, and all matters relating to character and morals, but no votes shall be taken in executive session.

Dr. Lyons offered the following as a substitute order:

ORDERED, That the rules are hereby amended as follows:

Sect. 16, paragraph 1. Strike out the paragraph and substitute in place thereof the following:

Sect. 16. 1. The meetings of the School Committee shall be open but the Committee may hold executive sessions for the discussion of the fitness and qualifications of its officers and employees and candidates for appointment to school service,

It is therefore necessary to appropriate the balances of the several items.

To carry the foregoing into effect, the following was offered:

ORDERED, That to provide for the maintenance of the public schools covering the cost of instruction, supervision of instruction, administration, custodians' services, fuel and light, supplies and incidentals; and the cost of sundry other services and expenses for the financial year 1930, exclusive of the item "Alteration and repair of school buildings, and for furniture, fixtures, and means of escape in case of fire, and for fire protection for existing buildings, and for improving existing school yards," the following sums are hereby appropriated for the purposes hereinafter stated, in addition to the sums appropriated on April 21, 1930, "on account."

For general school purposes, including Americanization and Vocational Guidance:
Salaries of Principals, Teachers, Members of the Supervising Staff and Others	$7,262,116.60 and all matters relating to character and morals, but no votes shall be taken in executive session. The matters designated as coming within the foregoing exceptions shall be at the discretion of the Chairman but the Committee may, by a majority vote, order any matters coming within the foregoing exceptions to be heard in executive session.

Dr. Lyons: Any lengthy discussion on my part will only bring out strong differences of opinion as to matters which should be discussed in public. I am doing what I consider my duty to the public in presenting my order and will now gladly accept the will of the Committee.

Chairman: Any other discussion?

Mr. Gray: Mr. Chairman, this order does not to my mind differ materially from the order for which it is a substitute. As I stated my view on Dr. Lyons's original order, there is no call for me to state it again. Open meetings such as he has outlined have been tried and have not proven satisfactory, so I shall vote against the order.

Chairman: Any other discussion?

Dr. Lyons: Just one word. I made this order as airtight as I thought it was possible to make it, carefully protecting the rights of all employees so far as morals and character, fitness and qualifications are concerned. I had hoped to produce most of our discussions in public, and as I consider the amendment as nearly perfect as I could make it, and feeling that it may not pass, I simply will state in conclusion that we have had before us only this evening matters of very great importance to the taxpayers which I think would be enlightening and helpful to all concerned to have discussed in public. So I present my order with the hope that it may pass for the general good of all concerned, but with the feeling that it will not.

Chairman: Of course there is no rule of thumb that can be laid down which will dictate just what should be discussed in public and what should not. We here deal not only with questions of money; we deal with careers of individuals. I feel that the exceptions specified in Dr. Lyons's order are not broad enough to protect the great number of people whose cases come before us. For that reason, although I admire the spirit in which the order is presented, I feel that it is too broad.

Dr. Lyons: I will simply reiterate that I have been very careful in the wording of the order to protect to the last degree everybody who could possibly be concerned. I cannot conceive of anything pertaining to the character or morals of any individual coming into public meeting under the ruling and strict interpretation of my order.

Mr. Reilly: Mr. Chairman, with regard to this order: may I call attention to the fact that in my vote I recognize Section 16 of the present rules which reads as follows:

Sect. 16. 1. The sessions of the School Committee shall be open, but the School Committee may, at any time, by a four-fifths vote, go into executive session. It shall, however, pass no votes in executive session.

Inasmuch as Dr. Lyons's order enforces Section 16 of the present rules more specifically, I am in favor of its passage. Regardless of the text of this order, I wish to be regarded as favoring the enforcement of the present rules and regulations under which we operate, including Section 16, which says that the Committee shall pass no votes in executive session. The public is entitled to definite knowledge of our actions, and regardless of the text of these orders, I feel that we should abide fully by the rules and regulations. It is definitely known that we have not been abiding by the present rules as laid down in Section 16.

Chairman: As a matter of fact, everybody voted for executive sessions at the beginning of the year. The vote was unanimous. I should like to ask either Dr. Lyons or Mr. Reilly one question. Is the reason that we consider anything in executive session that we have anything to conceal ourselves, or is it because we are discussing something which, if discussed in public, would cause infinite harm to some member of our staff? That is the nub of this whole thing.

Dr. Lyons: Since you ask a question I think I may answer. What you say is right to an extent. The reason for executive session on some cases has been to protect those who need protection. We haven't anything to conceal, but those coming within the category are deserving of consideration. What I am trying to bring about is that we shall bring down here the vast amount of business which we do in executive session, which would be of great interest to the public.

Chairman: Admitting that this is true, and I do admit it, is it necessary to go as far as your order goes? Are there not many things which do not deal with the fitness, or qualifications, or morals of individuals which, if discussed in public, would be injurious?

Dr. Lyons: I should like an example of such an instance.

Chairman: Mr. X takes an examination for promotion. He is an employee. He protests that his examination has not received fair treatment at the hands of the examiners and presents evidence to substantiate his claim. Shall we discuss that matter in public meeting? It doesn't come within the exceptions specified in Dr. Lyons's order, but if discussed in public it would reveal that the man had failed to pass the examination.

Dr. Lyons: The order very thoroughly protects such an individual. I have had cases here where the qualifications and fitness of the present examiners were questioned. I feel that there are none better in the country; nevertheless, individuals have thought that they had not received fair treatment. I knew that they had, but they asked for a hearing. In such cases there would be ample protection, because qualifications and fitness were questioned—the qualifications of our examiners.

Chairman: Under so elastic an interpretation the force of the order would be destroyed because every question that comes before us involves a decision of some officer or employee, so that everything could come within the exceptions if you want to interpret things in that manner.

Mr. Gray: There seems to be a desire to get somewhere. As you know, for four and a half years I have consistently opposed open meetings. I'd be delighted to have everything discussed in public which it seems desirable to discuss, except that it hasn't worked. Mr. Reilly has pointed out that Section 16 says "The meetings of the School Committee shall be open, but the School Committee may, at any time, by a four-fifths vote, go into executive session." Why isn't this merely a matter of procedure and if it is worth anything to Dr. Lyons and Mr. Reilly, why should we not, without amending the rules at all, leave to the Chairman who is obliged to go over the docket with the Superintendent before meetings, the decision as to what shall and what shall not be discussed in public after this, with some provision to the effect that by majority vote the Chairman's decision may be overruled. I don't know whether that is in order. I should not vote against such a proposition although I have been opposed to open meetings. Under such an arrangement, we would have the advantage of safeguarding not only individuals in matters of character, fitness, etc., but other matters worthy of very serious consideration would not be discussed in public before the School Committee itself had opportunity to become familiar with the facts.

Dr. Lyons: If the Chairman should decide not to designate matters which should be presented in executive session, it would mean that these matters necessarily must be presented in public.

Mr. Gray: I don't understand.

Dr. Lyons: You leave to the Chairman the designation of matters which should be presented in executive session. He shall designate these matters. If the Chairman does not designate these matters, then necessarily they come within the category of business which must go into public meeting.

Chairman: We presume a certain amount of intelligence in the Chairman. You elect the Chairman.

Dr. Lyons: Yes, with the present Chairman, but we may not be so successful in the future.

Mr. Gray: That is why I suggested that we do not amend the rules. This is simply a matter of procedure.

Dr. Lyons: I'd like to move the question.

Chairman: We have many cases which do not involve fitness or qualifications of officers and employees, but which affect other intimate things. Within a month we have had this situation. There is a death which causes a vacancy. The Superintendent picks the next highest on the list to fill the vacancy. The case comes to us; one of those innocuous things. You'd never think it was a matter which could not be discussed in public. Then it turns out that the man the Superintendent nominates, the man best qualified, is earning by summer, evening, after school, and other special work, some $3,600. The position in question pays only $2,900.

The man cannot afford to take it, for he has a family. Although the question doesn't involve the man's qualifications or fitness, it is not a matter for public discussion.

Dr. Lyons: I also have in mind a specific case, and I think that the Chairman and the Superintendent being perfectly familiar with these things, could decide the question and the fault would lie on their shoulders if a matter were presented in public which should have gone to executive session.

Mr. Reilly: I think we are all agreed as to our opinions on the question. I recognize in Dr. Lyons's order a gesture to win public confidence to this Committee and further discussion will be fruitless. I move action on Dr. Lyons's order.

On motion, the rules were suspended to permit of action on Dr. Lyons's substitute motion.

As a result of roll call, the order failed of passage by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Lyons and Mr. Reilly—2.

NAYS—Mr. Gray, Mrs. Pigeon, and Mr. Hurley—3.

Chairman: Does the Committee wish to take any action on Mr. Gray's suggestion that as a matter of procedure, the present rules are adequate. Someone, sometime, should have the confidence of the Committee and be allowed to determine just what should and what should not go into public meeting, even though it doesn't include morals, qualifications, and efficiency, and that someone, it seems to the Committee, should be the Chairman. I am happy to take on that duty if it will help the situation.

Mr. Reilly: Dr. Lyons's order has been defeated. I am in favor of anything that will accomplish substantially the same thing. If Mr. Gray or anyone else wishes to offer a motion or introduce an order that will accomplish this, I shall be glad to vote in favor.

Chairman: If that order is passed, I shall put into public meeting anything that is of public interest and which does not involve character, morals, qualifications, or any other intimate, personal relation of the person or persons involved.

Mr. Gray: And, I assume, other matters.

Chairman: Other matters. Of course we cannot discuss questions such as land takings in advance.

Mr. Gray: It would be a mistake.

Chairman: I don't mean to limit the policy. My policy would be to discuss as much in public as we can, having in mind the interests of the taxpayers, the school children, and the teaching staff.

Mr. Gray: I don't care to offer a motion. This thing has been tried and has not worked.

Mr. Reilly: If we rescind the action that was evidently taken at our first meeting which provided for conferences, and by a vote of this Committee express our desire to conform to the present rules and regulations, will not that achieve the same thing?

Chairman: Someone must decide what is going to be discussed here and what in conference. If you decide down here that you are going to discuss a matter in conference, you might as well discuss it here.

If you decide that the case of someone must be discussed in private, the press is going to ask what is the matter with that individual. Does anyone care to offer a motion?

Dr. Lyons: I cannot because I feel that my order covers everything within the category. My only purpose is to try to force us to live up to the present rules.

Chairman: We have voted at three January meetings to hold executive sessions. Haven't we lived up to the present rules?

Mr. Gray: I cannot possibly offer the motion. I have opposed open meetings for four and a half years. Why haven't we solved the situation by the general idea that I have suggested?

Chairman: Then the Chairman will take it upon himself in the future to decide what matters shall be discussed in public and what matters shall be discussed in conference, subject as always to a majority vote of the School Committee, and I assume that I am taking that power under a mandate from all the members of the Committee. If I am wrong in any case, I hope that a majority of the Committee will overrule me.

Dr. Lyons: I am very glad to have the Chairman assume these duties for I feel that it will terminate the questions satisfactorily.

Mr. Reilly: That is just as agreement—no order or resolution?

Chairman: It is the Chairman's interpretation of what the Committee wants done under the present unamended rule.

The substitute order as presented by the Chairman and laid over at the previous meeting was thereupon taken up and placed on file.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,

Secretary.

ANNEXATIONS OF BOSTON.

East Boston in 1637; South Boston in 1804, being set off from Dorchester; Roxbury in 1868, a city of Norfolk County since March, 1846; Dorchester in 1870, a town since September, 1630; Charlestown in 1874, a city of Middlesex County since February, 1847; Brighton in 1874, set off from Cambridge and incorporated as a town of Middlesex County in February, 1807; West Roxbury in 1874, set off from Roxbury and incorporated as a town of Norfolk County in May, 1851; Hyde Park in 1912, a town of Norfolk County since April, 1868.

These annexations, which added 24,312 acres of land to the original land of Boston, were by area as follows: East Boston, 1,435 acres; South Boston, 795; Roxbury, 2,450; Dorchester, 5,600; West Roxbury, 8,075; Brighton, 2,664; Charlestown, 424; Hyde Park, 2,869. Filled land increased the area later by 1,396 acres. In 1875 the annexed territory had a population of 201,250, or 58.86 per cent of city's total; in 1910 its population had increased to 477,311, or 71.18 per cent, Hyde Park not included. By 1915 the total was 549,139, or 73.67 per cent of city. By 1925 the total was 607,519, or 77.92 per cent.

METHODS OF ELIMINATING GRADE-CROSSING ACCIDENTS.

Five suggestions aimed at the elimination of grade-crossing accidents are offered in the monthly report of the Street Traffic Committee of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

It is estimated that curing the grade-crossing evil would reduce traffic accidents by 10 per cent in a very short time, and the Committee presents the following five points for discussion:

1. Do away with those grade crossings which have the heaviest traffic.
2. Place warning signs not less than 500 feet back from the railroad tracks.
3. Take down all signs from obsolete trackage.
4. Use traffic-light signals (operated by trains) instead of signs, if there are fewer than five trains per day.
5. Consider scrapping all railroad signs in favor of signals for use only when train is approaching.

"The last two points merit consideration first, because, though they are new doctrines, they seem the least expensive and most practical of application."

CONSOLIDATION OF COUNTIES TO REDUCE TAXES.

Just as consolidation of small business under holding or managing companies reduces overhead costs, it is fair to believe that consolidation of small counties into larger units would reduce taxes through eliminating duplicating offices, etc.

New York has a plan for recasting more than 60 counties into 37 units, and Tennessee, after already having merged 2 counties, now plans to merge the 95 counties in the state into 11 new units.

The results of Tennessee's experience in merging Hamilton and James counties in 1919, as portrayed by J. W. Manning of Vanderbilt University, are interesting. He points out that taxes in James County have been reduced one half, paved highways have been increased from two miles to fifty miles, and many manufacturing plants have entered the county because of the reduction in taxes. The results in New York and Tennessee will be watched with interest by the whole country.

POLICE BOAT "GUARDIAN."

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to submit herewith communication received from the Police Commissioner, Eugene C. Hultman, recommending the sale of the police boat "Guardian" at an upset price of $1,000.

At a recent auction an upset price of $3,500 was sought by the city but no bids were received. I am of the opinion that the boat in question is worth at least $1,000 to some individual and I accordingly recommend the sale at public auction at an upset price of $1,000.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Police Department,
Office of the Commissioner, June 12, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mayor Curley,—In compliance with the order of the City Council, approved by his Honor the Mayor on May 27, 1930, with reference to the disposition of the discarded police boat "Guardian" at public auction at an upset price of $3,500, a duly advertised public auction sale, under the direction of Municipal Auctioneer Edward W. Foye, was conducted on June 10, 1930, at eleven o'clock a. m.

There were no bids received, consequently there was no sale.

I would respectfully request therefore that you recommend to the City Council the passage of an order authorizing the private sale of this boat as junk at an upset price of $1,000.

Sincerely yours,
E. C. HULTMAN,
Police Commissioner.

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner be, and hereby is, authorized to sell at a duly advertised public auction, at an upset price of $1,000, the police boat "Guardian."

MORTON STREET PLAYGROUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 2, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to forward herewith report of the Building Department with reference to condition of walls and pergolas at Morton Street Playground, Ward 3, the same being in response to an order adopted by your honorable body recently.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Building Department, June 2, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Please find inclosed a report of the examination of the construction and materials of the walls and pillars at the Morton Street Playground, Ward 3, which has been requested by the City Council on motion of Councilor Fitzgerald.

Yours respectfully,
EDWARD W. ROEMER,
Building Commissioner.

City of Boston,
Building Department, June 2, 1930.
Edward W. Roemer, Building Commissioner, 901 City Hall Annex, Boston.

Sir,—In accordance with your orders I made an examination on May 29, 1930, of the present condition of the walls and the remaining pergolas at the Morton Street Playground, Ward 3, and compared the structure with plans submitted by the Park Department, and report as follows:

The cantilevered pergola capping that remained on the north side of Morton street has been removed with the exception of the brackets under the chimneys of the adjoining buildings. I am informed by Mr. Murphy, the engineer of the Park Department, that these brackets are to be removed and the chimneys bricked up to the present wall cap.

The brick buttresses in the wall are in fairly good condition. Possibly four or five of them are a little out of plumb, the worst condition being a leaning of about two inches towards the playground. The concrete panels between these buttresses show settlement cracks, but in my opinion these are not serious.

There is one bad crack clear through the wall in one of the panels in that portion of the wall where the top fell. This panel should be recapped and the entire wall gone over and repaired and pointed, especially on the top where the walls abut the adjoining buildings.

I would recommend that the pergolas on the southerly side of Morton street, because of the deflection of the concrete rafters and the loose concrete planks on the top of them, be removed and that the remaining walls be repaired and pointed as suggested for the wall on the other side.

General repairs on the other buildings and the toilets should be made.

In comparing the present structures with plans submitted by the Park Department I find that, barring a few slight variations in dimensions, the structures were built according to plans, except that the anchor bolts were not placed in walls and piers as shown on plans and that the dowels in the concrete planks holding them to the concrete rafters were omitted.

I would also say that owing to horizontal joints showing in the walls it would appear that proper care was not taken in the pouring of the concrete walls.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH E. CAHILL,
Supervisor of Construction.

TYLER STREET PLAYGROUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 2, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to forward herewith report of the Building Department with reference to condition of pillars and walls at the Tyler Street Playground, Ward 3, the same being in response to an order adopted by your honorable body recently.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Building Department, June 2, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Please find inclosed a report of the examination of the pillars supporting the wall at the Tyler Street playground, Ward 3, which has been requested by the City Council on motion of Councilor Fitzgerald.

Yours respectfully,
EDWARD W. ROEMER,
Building Commissioner.

Boston, June 2, 1930.
Edward W. Roemer, Building Commissioner, 901 City Hall Annex, Boston.

Sir,—By your order I made an examination on May 29, 1930, of the condition of the shelter at the Tyler Street Playground, Ward 3, and submit the following report thereon:

At the rear of the playground is a concrete wall 24 feet high from the level of the yard on Hudson street. About 7 feet of this wall acts as a retaining wall for the Tyler Street Playground. The remaining 17 feet of the wall forms the rear bearing wall for a shelter which extends about 7½ feet over all into the playground. The front of this shelter is supported on concrete columns 18 inches in diameter with a 10-inch by 12-inch beam acting as a plate. The rafters are 4 inches by 12 inches, about 20 inches on centers and cantilever over the plate about ¾ feet. The roof is of 1½-inch plank covered with metal. The columns are 4 feet from the rear wall and rest on a continuous concrete base. There are twelve of these columns and the structure is about 138 feet in length.

This rear wall is a pilaster wall with 12-inch by 24-inch pilasters about 12½ feet on centers with panels 8 inches thick. The wall is capped terra cotta wall capping 12 inches in length.

In the southwesterly end of the playground there is another shelter of the "pergola" type about 16 feet in depth and 60 feet front. The roof rafters are 6-inch I-beams resting on a 10-inch by 12-inch concrete plate which is in turn supported by four 20-inch square columns and 12 round columns 18 inches in diameter, with a span of about 10 feet on centers. The span of the I-beam rafters is about 11 feet, 20 inches on centers. Directly over the supporting plate and at right angles to the rafters is a false beam or parapet 2 feet wide and 18 inches high. This apparently is built of angle iron frame and covered with metal lath and cement plaster. There are two of these beams, one at the front and the other at the rear.

Between these two beams there are three concrete planks 2 inches thick and 12 inches wide supported by 1-inch by 1-inch angles running transversely to the rafters. The rafters cantilever over the face of the plate about 2½ feet and are tied by 2-inch by 2-inch angle. One end of this structure overhangs Tyler street about 18 inches.

At the back of this shelter is a wall up against the adjoining buildings 6 inches in thickness and about 14 feet high. It is a question whether this is on concrete or wire lath and cement plaster on angle iron.

There is an arch over the Tyler street entrance to the playground supported by two 24-inch by 24-inch concrete columns. The arch is of the pergola type and is built of wood covered with wire lath and cement plaster capped with terra cotta roof tile.

The iron fence on Tyler street is in poor condition and should be straightened up and painted.

I recommend that the structure at the southwesterly end of the yard be removed; it is in bad condition. Ten of the twelve round concrete columns are cracked and shattered; the rafters are rusted and sealed and are deteriorated to such an extent that their value is questionable. The concrete plank and supporting angles on top of the rafters are in an unsafe condition, some of them being almost entirely disintegrated.

With the exception of minor repairs to the capping and the flashing between the roof and the wall the shelter at the rear of the yard is apparently in good condition.

The arch over the Tyler street entrance to the yard should be repaired.

The gate leading from the abandoned school yard on Hudson street should be made fast as there are several bad holes in the brick pavement, one of which, near the cistern in the school yard, is especially bad.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH E. CAHILL,
Supervisor of Construction.

VETO—ST. ANN STREET WIDENING.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 14, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my approval, the order adopted by your honorable body under date of June 2, 1930, providing an expenditure in the sum of $500,000 for the laying out and construction of St. Ann street, in conformity to the provisions of chapter 248, of the Acts of 1929.

In my opinion, after consultation with competent authority and a most careful investigation, the amount necessary for this improvement is so far in excess of possible benefits that will result to the municipality that there is no way in which to justify approval.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my approval, order adopted by your honorable body providing for an expenditure in the sum of $30,000 for the enlargement of bathing area at Tenean Beach.

This improvement, in my opinion, is one that can very well be considered by the Park Commission in the compilation of their program for park improvements to be provided for in 1931, and in the event that it is included, I shall be most pleased to approve the same.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my approval, order adopted by your honorable body providing for the expenditure in the sum of $20,000 for the improvement of locker building at the Mary Hemenway Playground, Ward 16.

I have requested the Park Commission to make a study of the requirements of the various playgrounds throughout the city and to submit to me for consideration in January, 1931, a budget setting forth the requirements and, provided this particular improvement is in the opinion of the Park Commission deemed desirable and necessary, I shall be most pleased to include the same.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

CHARLESTOWN CAR SERVICE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, June 2, 1930.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to forward herewith report of the Boston Elevated Railway Public Trustees with reference to order adopted by your honorable body under date of May 12, 1930.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Boston Elevated Railway,

Boston, May 26, 1930.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In reply to your letter of the 19th I beg to advise that the Board of Trustees have directed me to present a copy of the actual figures of traffic and number of cars operated on the Charlestown lines, which indicate a total of from ten to eleven thousand seats provided for a passenger offering of from five to six thousand. Under the circumstances of operating adequate service, but not in excess of that in order to avoid any possibility of a deficit, they believe that these figures speak for themselves.

Yours very truly,

EDWARD DANA,

General Manager.

REPORT ON BRIGHTON HIGH SCHOOL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1930.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Louis K. Rourke, Superintendent of School Buildings, relative to your request for an investigation of the new Brighton High School. This is in reply to your order of May 26, 1930.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,

Department of School Buildings,
June 16, 1933.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—With reference to the following order of the City Council:

"Ordered, That the Superintendent of School Buildings be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to report to the City Council the amount of money which is to be further expended on the new Brighton High School, and what defects, if any, exist in the present structure."

I attach herewith a financial statement showing the total estimated expenditures for the completion of the new Brighton High School, and also the total estimated cost of same.

On May 10 I made a personal inspection of this school and found some minor defects, which, of course, will be remedied before the school is opened. The contractor, before receiving his final payment, must furnish a maintenance bond of $5,000 for two years, and guarantee the roof for twenty years.

Respectfully yours,
L. K. ROURKE,
Superintendent.

ENTRANCE TO FIELDS CORNER STATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Edward Dana, General Manager of the Boston Elevated Railway, regarding the establishment of an entrance from Dorchester avenue to the Fields Corner Station of the Dorchester Rapid Transit. This is in reply to your order of May 19, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Boston Elevated Railway,
June 10, 1930.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—The trustees have considered the request of the Boston City Council received with your letter of May 22 for the establishment of an entrance from Dorchester avenue to the Fields Corner Station of the Dorchester Rapid Transit and have instructed me to advise you as follows:

An entrance cannot readily be provided from Dorchester avenue to the Fields Corner Station. It would involve either a stairway leading to an elevated walk at approximately the track level or an underground passageway. The stairway and walk is estimated to cost $15,000. It would, of course, present an undesirable appearance. Effort has been made to make the location as attractive as possible. The space between the trolley track and the wall supporting the rapid transit tracks is now grassed over and planted with shrubs and there is ivy on the wall. The distance from a point at the foot of the stairs which would be located on Dorchester avenue to the first car of an inbound train by means of such an overhead walk would be 420 feet as compared with 680 feet from the same point by way of Faulkner street and present entrance to the station.

An underground passageway is estimated to cost approximately $20,000 and the distance from the top of stairs in Dorchester avenue to the first car of an inbound train would be approximately 540 feet as compared with 700 feet from the same point in Dorchester avenue by way of Faulkner street and present entrance to the station.

Under these circumstances the trustees do not feel that the expense of providing an entrance to the station from Dorchester avenue can be justified.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
General Manager.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In reply to order from the City Council that the present unsightly conditions at Columbus Square be remedied by the planting of shrubbery and grass, I desire to say that the place is grassed at the present time and has been for a number of years. It is no place for shrubbery on account of traffic conditions. Yearly there is a large case of flowers placed in the center of this square which remains there as long as the residents will allow it to.

It is the intention to place a large case there as soon as the department can get to it.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—Replying to your letter of May 22, with which you inclosed an order of the City Council providing that Station 13, Jamaica Plain, be covered with police ambulance service, I would say that I have obtained a report from Captain Mosher of Division 13 relative to this matter and I am sending you herewith copies of the same.

I am also returning the order inclosed with your letter. A copy has been kept for our files.

Very truly yours,
E. C. HULTMAN,
Police Commissioner.

City of Boston,
Police Department,
Police Station No. 13, May 29, 1930.
To the Superintendent.

Sir,—In compliance with your order of the 24th inst., in reference to the order adopted by the City Council, to provide Station 13, Jamaica Plain, with police ambulance service, I respectfully submit the following report.

A total of 103 ambulance service calls were handled by this division from May 1, 1929, to May 29, 1930.

The combination patrol and ambulance wagon assigned to this station is being used for both services. Whenever a call is received for either ambulance or patrol service and the wagon happens to be out on a call, another station is immediately notified with request to render service.

In order to facilitate proper control of both services, an additional two patrolmen would be required for duty.

The present structural frontage of the station garage prohibits the free entry or exit of another vehicle. There are at present two entries to the garage, one of which is being used as an exit for the patrol wagon, and the other for the Boston Police Department, Plymouth sedan.

Respectfully submitted,
JEREMIAH N. MOSHER,
Captain, Commanding Division 13.

SMITH'S POND PLAYGROUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 23, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from William P. Long, chairman of the Park Commission, regarding your request to have Smith's Pond playground properly drained. This is in reply to your order of June 2, 1930.

City of Boston,
Park Department, June 10, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In answer to Council order that Smith's Pond Playground be properly drained, I desire to say when this area was taken over as a playground, $30,000 was spent for drainage and grading.

In order to properly drain this area it would require a 3-foot fill, the cost of which is prohibitive. Each year after the skating season, this playground is of course in an unfit condition to use for a short period and there is a settlement each year which is repaired by this department. At the present time the playground is in good condition with the exception of one corner which will be cared for immediately.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON JITNEY LICENSES.

Coun. MURRAY, for the Committee on jitney licenses, submitted report on petition (referred May 26) of Boston Elevated Railway to operate motor vehicles between Washington street and Massachusetts avenue and St. James avenue and Arlington street.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, this being another intown jitney bus line, may I inquire of the chairman of the Committee on Jitneys whether it replaces an existing line or whether it is a new line on our already overcrowded streets?

Coun. MURRAY—Mr. President, the councilor in whose district it is located might be better informed and able to answer the gentleman than I am.

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, I am pleased to rise at this time to try to answer the interrogation of the gentleman who has just returned from Canada and say to him that this bus line was asked for by the Elevated at my request and the petition of many residents of the Columbus avenue and South End district between the railroad and Tremont street. There was practically no service of any sort since the tracks have been removed and the streets have been resurfaced. Several times I have had a bus put on there, but it has only remained temporarily. It is the same line augmented so that the service will be at more frequent intervals, and I trust is a betterment of the transportation facilities of this particular district.

President LYNCH—Does that information satisfy the councilor?

Coun. WILSON—I thought that was very nicely given.

Report accepted; said license granted on usual conditions.

ACCEPTANCE OF CHAPTER 415.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following: Ordered, That chapter 415 of the Acts of 1930, entitled, "An Act Establishing the Salaries of the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices of the Municipal Court of the City of Boston" be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

Referred to the Committee on County Accounts.

IMPROVEMENTS AT WORLD WAR MEMORIAL PARK.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to send to the City Council an order for an appropriation of ten thousand dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Park Department for the installation of electric current and other improvements at World War Memorial Park, Ward 1.

Coun. DONOVAN—Despite the fact, Mr. President, that we have a new bath house at Memorial Park and a new bathing beach, there is something amiss. Evidently in the construction of the building they forgot to put in electric lights. At the present time, Mr. President, it will entail an expenditure of $6,500 on the part of the city to have the Edison Company install service there. It was with that thought in mind, that the people may have lighting facilities when they dress, that I introduced this order.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PLAYGROUND, WARD 17.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of five thousand dollars be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Park Commissioners for the purchase of land for playground purposes in the vicinity of Dunbar avenue, Ward 17, Dorchester, and for the construction of said playground, and that to meet the said appropriation the City Treasurer be, and he hereby is, authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I would say in explanation of that order, just before asking for the passage of the same on its first reading under a suspension of the rules, that the original order for the construction of this playground, as a result of the unanimous report of former Mayor Nichols' committee, was passed in November, 1929, as I remember it, and signed by Mayor Nichols, for the sum of around $21,000. Under the new administration it became evident that because of an increased assessment, although in my opinion it still is under-assessed, there is not a sufficient amount to allow for the assessed value, plus the quarter, plus the one half, which under the law must be voted for construction purposes where a playground is purchased, or where land for a playground is purchased and the construction is to be made. And Mayor Nichols being committed to this, the former Special Committee on Playgrounds being committed to it, the present Mayor having signed a loan order and being committed to it, and the Council having been kind enough to already pass loan orders with reference to this playground, which is now being held up merely because of $5,000, I would respectfully request that it receive a first reading today under a suspension of the rules.

The rules were suspended and the order was passed at its first reading, yeas 20, nays 0.

ORDINANCE PROHIBITING CERTAIN UNNECESSARY NOISES.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

An Ordinance Prohibiting Certain Unnecessary Noises.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Section 1. No person owning or having the care, custody or possession of any musical instrument, radio set, phonograph, victrola or other machine or device for producing or reproducing sound shall operate or use or permit to be operated or used such machine or device in such a manner as to disturb the peace and comfort of the neighboring inhabitants, or at any time with louder volume than is necessary for convenient hearing for the person or persons who are in the room or chamber in which such machine or device is operated and who are voluntary listeners thereto. The operation of any such machine or device between the hours of eleven o'clock p. m. and seven o'clock a. m. in such a manner as to be plainly audible at a distance of fifty feet from the building or structure in which it is located shall be a violation of this ordinance prima facie. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit playing by a band or orchestra in a hall, building or in the open air, but this exception shall not apply to a reproduction of such playing by any machine or device.

Section 2. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence, and not only the person actually doing the prohibited thing but also his employer and every other person concerned in so doing, shall be subject to such penalty.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I would say with reference to that proposed ordinance that I believe the time has finally come when some reasonable restraint should be put on the present indiscriminate use of loud speakers on radios, not only in mercantile districts but in the residential districts of the City of Boston. I have no direct quarrel or indirect quarrel with the gentleman who makes a living selling radios, or with any of my own particular neighbors, for I am on Amos and Andy's daily free list myself at 7 o'clock every weekday night, and I can even remember the time when I still had some enjoyment listening to Rudy Vallee's singing of the "Stein Song" before it was rendered too often on other machines than mine. But in all seriousness, while undoubtedly the present abuse of radios throughout the City of Boston to the discomfort of almost every neighborhood is a violation of the rights of those who live near where the machines are being played, and although apparently they could be enjoined as a nuisance under the common law, it would appear that the time has come when there should be a city ordinance which will make it easy for the average person who desired to enter a complaint, and reasonably easy for the Police Department to take some definite steps. I believe in all seriousness that the average residential neighborhood should be protected, and I do not believe that the provisions of this particular ordinance are unfair. I believe that it is a matter which should receive careful consideration, and I have no objection to its going to the Committee on Ordinances, at which time I shall be glad to submit such sections of the present law as convince me that there is no question but that the ordinance should be passed. And I treat the subject in no comedy vein, for I believe it would receive, with proper publicity, the generous support of the residents of the City of Boston.

The order was referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

ACCEPTANCE OF ALLERTON ROAD.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out Allerton road, Ward 17, as a public highway.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave Lithgow street, Ward 17, with smooth paving.

PURCHASES FROM CHAIN STORES.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the various city welfare departments now purchasing provisions and merchandise from chain stores, be, and said departments hereby are, through his Honor the Mayor, respectfully requested to discontinue further purchases from such concerns as fail to recognize American standards of employment.

Coun. WILSON—I would say in explanation of that particular order that in the past I have heard comments made against the products of prison labor, and have read articles that have been published in the newspapers on more than one occasion with reference to the alleged unfairness of allowing prison labor to manufacture merchandise in unfair competition with industries endeavoring to maintain a living wage. And we have heard comment frequently against the encouragement of cut-throat competition of various industries, and against the purchase of European goods which are cheap, because of working conditions intolerable under American standards. And yet, because they are cheap I know that for the past few years destitute families have been given food orders on certain Boston chain stores. For example, the man who works in the wood yard, "works" sometimes, in quotes—works in the wood yard gets such an order on various of these chain stores in Boston. I say at the present time, from the information I am able to obtain, that the low prices in these particular chain stores are measured by and are an indirect reflection of working conditions in those very chain stores. Recently a constituent of mine who worked as manager or in some employment in a chain store in the Dorchester district was called for jury duty, and on returning from jury duty in the Suffolk Superior Court he found that he had been fired solely because he had been called for jury service. He had served as a jurymen and he was called before the Judge of the Superior Court bench on three or four occasions, and the man in charge of the store was called, and so far as I am able to ascertain from the last report, although I apparently was under the erroneous impression that the firing of a man because of jury service was a criminal offence, the man is still looking for a job in one of these very same stores to which the poor of the City of Boston are sent by the Welfare Department because the goods are cheap. I now understand that in one of the chain store outlets in the City of Boston the one afternoon a week, on Wednesday, which the men who go there to work for, I believe, $25 or less a week, had been receiving, although they work all hours of the day and night the rest of the week, that one half day a week is being taken from them. I do not believe that such practices should even indirectly be countenanced by the City of Boston through purchases made at such stores, merely to take advantage of the low prices made possible by any such un-American working conditions. And it was for that purpose that I introduced this order. If these stores are going to treat their help the way they are treated, and if they are going to fire a man merely because he does his duty and serves as a jurymen, I think it is high time that the Public Welfare Department and other departments of the city should not indirectly encourage any such un-American standards of workmanship.

The order was passed under a suspension of the rule.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY.

The first chartered colony in New England, charter granted by Charles I on March 4, 1629. About a year before, a patent had been granted to six prominent men of Dorchester, west of England, among whom was Capt. John Endicott. He sailed in June, 1628, with a party of fifty or sixty persons, arriving in September and settling at Naumkeag, afterward named Salem. In the spring of 1629, the Bay Company fitted out three ships conveying about four hundred persons and arriving at Salem in June. Endicott sent a small party to effect a settlement on the Bay in Mishawum, afterward named by the settlers Charlestown, the first town in New England to assume the town polity, Plymouth and Salem being governed by a governor and council. Endicott was appointed in London as the first resident governor on April 30, 1629. The Massachusetts Bay Company was reorganized in London on October 20, 1629, when John Winthrop was chosen as governor. He arrived at Salem on June 12, 1630, soon proceeded to Charlestown with a large following and finding that place unsuitable, finally settled in Boston. Winthrop served thirteen years as governor in four different periods ending in 1649 and Endicott fifteen years at various times ending in 1665. Other governors were Thomas Dudley, Richard Bellingham, John Haynes, Henry Vane, John Leverett and Simon Bradstreet, the latter serving twelve years until 1692 when the Bay Colony and the Plymouth Colony were merged, becoming the Royal Province of Massachusetts Bay, which existed eighty-two years to 1774, the governors being appointed by the King.

The name, Massachusetts, is Indian and signifies "near the big hills."

BOSTON CITIZENS MAKE MOST MEMORABLE CELEBRATION OF INDEPENDENCE DAY. ADDRESSES BY MAYOR CURLEY, HERBERT PARKER, CHAIRMAN OF TERCENTENARY COMMITTEE, AND HON. JULES HENRY OF FRANCE—ALSO DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS—ARE FEATURES.

SCENE FROM HISTORICAL PAGEANT, "THE BEACON," GIVEN ON BOSTON COMMON AS FEATURE OF INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION.

Boston's observance of Independence Day for 1930 moved into history when the fireworks display on the Common was over, taking rank among such events, as the greatest that this city has ever known. Mayor Curley and the committee in charge of the celebration had seen to it that nothing ever surpassed the occasion in any of the years that have gone. Thus the thousands of citizens who shared in the events of the day will, for many a day, sing the praises of the Mayor and the celebrations committee as well as the Tercentenary officials who also aided in making the event of import meet for the occasion, the 300th anniversary of the founding of the town.

Faneuil Hall played a large part in the day's exercises, and the Old State House and Boston Common also featured.

The Faneuil Hall program was broadcast over Station WNAC. Hon. Herbert Parker, chairman of the Massachusetts Bay Colony Tercentenary Commission, was orator.

Mayor Curley opened the program with a raising of the national colors at 9 a. m. President William G. Lynch of the City Council raised the municipal flag. These exercises took place on Boston Common where the parade formed and proceeded to other points where features took place.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLB.

ADDRESS DELIVERED BY HIS HONOR THE MAYOR ON BOSTON COMMON, FRIDAY, JUNE 27, UPON HIS PRESENTATION TO COMMANDER BYRD OF A CLOCK, THE GIFT OF THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

Massachusetts and Virginia have had much in common from the inception of the movement for the establishment of the American Republic. That great son of Virginia to whose genius we are indebted for the word "Equality" in the Declaration, Thomas Jefferson, was the recipient of aid in those trying days when the Republic had its birth from Benjamin Franklin, Samuel Adams, John Hancock, James Otis, and countless other Massachusetts men whose memories we revere.

Upon this sacred spot where we are now assembled the Father of our nation trod, that great son of Virginia, Gen. George Washington. We revere the memory of these great sons of Virginia as profoundly for their achievements as we do you, sir, for your masterful accomplishments, because they, like you, were actuated by the spirit through which man is ennobled, namely, service and sacrifice.

It is recorded by Plutarch that Themistocles, after a successful campaign, in a public address stressed his personal accomplishments, claiming credit for the work of his entire army, until interrupted by a soldier who cried out, "Were there no soldiers with you?"

How different from that scene in Ancient Greece this assemblage, where the hero whom we are assembled to honor brings with him his army intact, demanding they share equally the glory that has been achieved.

You, sir, in your unselfish leadership epitomize the structure through which alone America can continue the land of hope, promise and progress, namely, the spirit of equality.

Our prayers have gone out to you in your long and lonesome journey to the South Pole and our hearts are this day filled with gladness at your home-coming.

We rejoice that Almighty God has preserved in strength and health man's most treasured possessions, mother and wife, who this day are permitted to rejoice in your return to the best loved place on this earth, Home, Sweet Home.

The nation acclaims you but we Bostonians may be pardoned if we claim you as a son of Old Boston, whose accomplishments make you thrice dear. We have watched your career and rejoiced in your every success, and propose that neither you nor the memory of your glorious journey to the land of ice and snow shall fade with the passing of time.

Consequently, upon this occasion, we present you as a slight token of our affection, this symbol of time and the Polar Regions. May each tick of this clock convey to you a message of our affection and love for you, and may the seals supporting the clock convey to you the message so beautifully epitomized by the immortal Bard of Avon,

"How far that candle throws her beam,
So shines a good deed in a naughty world."

Unselfish, devoted service to your fellow man has been your good deed which time cannot dim or the passing of years efface.

The inscription on the clock presented by Mayor Curley to Rear Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd, read as follows:

Presented to Rear Admiral
Richard Evelyn Byrd, U. S. N.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

At the Old State House the Declaration of Independence was read from the balcony from which that historic document was first published to the people of Boston in 1776. The reader this year was Ernest Barron.

Following the Old State House ceremonies an official party proceeded to Faneuil Hall, where at 11 o'clock "a ceremony of ancient and continued interest" was held.

Mayor Curley presided, being presented by the chairman of the Independence Day Committee, Wilfred F. Kelley. Invocation was by Rev. Dr. Charles E. Park of the First Church in Boston.

A special guest of the day was Hon. Jules Henry, Charge d'Affaires, the Embassy of the Republic of France, Washington, D. C. He made an address at the Faneuil Hall exercises. Benediction was by Rev. William J. Casey of St. Patrick's Church, Roxbury.

A feature of the intown celebration was the pageant, "The Beacon," which was presented at 3 p. m. and 8.30 p. m. at the Frog Pond.

In the various wards throughout the city the councilors sponsored the programs, which included free distribution of ice cream and free movies. In nearly every ward there were band concerts and at various playgrounds there were athletic events for the children.

In the evening fireworks were set off at nine o'clock at Jamaica Pond, Strandway, Savin Hill Playground, Franklin Field, Smith Playground, Brighton, Connelly Playground and Marcella street.

The detailed programs follow:

messenger from the Congress at Philadelphia, was read to the people of Boston, July 18, 1776. This historic event is commemorated annually by the reading of the nation's "charter of liberty" on each July 4th.

MAYOR CURLEY ASKS CITIZENS TO UNITE IN SANE AND SAFE OBSERVANCE OF INDEPENDENCE DAY.

Mayor Curley, on July 1, issued the following statement re Fourth of July:

The City of Boston invites the citizenship, including the boys and girls, to join with the city officials in a sane and safe observance of Independence Day and the glorious night before.

In 1929 there were 217 fire alarms from 6 p. m. July 3 to midnight July 4, resulting in a considerable loss of property, and that this unfortunate and unwarranted menace may be this year prevented a liberal sum of money has been made available for the display of fireworks and for bonfires which may be witnessed by the public with safety.

Upon the night before the 4th of July bonfires have been authorized at the following places:

Columbus Park, South Boston.

John J. Connolly Playground, Roxbury.

Garvey Playground, Neponset.

Smith's Pond Playground, Hyde Park.

Smith Playground, Allston.

Upon the 4th of July night the city has been extremely liberal in expenditures of public money for fireworks exhibits, to which the public are likewise invited and which will be held at Boston Common.

Jamaica Pond.

Columbus Park, South Boston.

Savin Hill Playground, Dorchester.

Franklin Field, Dorchester.

Smith Playground, Allston.

Connolly's Playground, Marcella

Street, Roxbury.

The number of persons killed and injured last year in consequence of carelessness or recklessness in the handling of fireworks and firearms was far in excess of the number killed and wounded in the most important battle of the Spanish American War, and in most cases the victims were children.

The setting of bonfires in the streets constitutes a real menace since there is no means of determining the loss of property, and possibly of life, that may result from such fires, and in view of the fact that permits have been issued for bonfires there is no way to justify a violation of this character.

The Police Department have been directed to cooperate with the Fire Department in preventing the sounding of false alarms since, through such an act, the efficiency of the Fire Department is impaired and should a fire break out while the apparatus is absent on a false call there is always the possibility of the loss not only of property but of human life and there is no means of determining that this misfortune may not be visited upon the home and the family of the individual.

The attention of the fathers and mothers of the city is earnestly directed to the following list of DON'Ts if they would safeguard from injury and possible death their children:

Don't hold firecrackers in your hands.

Don't fool with firearms.

Don't throw firecrackers.

Don't shoot them off under bottles.

Don't play pranks with fire.

Don't permit flames to spread.

Don't carry fireworks in pockets.

Don't fool with dynamite caps.

Don't believe sparklers are harmless.

Don't play with toy pistols.

Don't let any kind of an accident spoil your glorious Fourth.

Don't spend weeks in a hospital for a minute of carelessness.

Interlude. In commemoration of the Yankee Skippers who captured the robbers of the sea.

Part IV.—The Closing Century.

Scene 1: Gay Moments with the Puritans on Boston Common. Interlude: Shadows of Superstition and Credulity. Dance of Witches and Demons.

Scene 2: Judge Sewall confesses his guilt in condemning witches. Dancers of Light Triumphant.

Scene 3: The Boston Spirit; arrest of Governor Andros. Interlude: At break of day, January 1, 1700.

Part V.—Individualism Against Imperialism.

Scene 1: Boston Traders in the ports of the seven seas.

Scene 2: Resistance: Boston mob defies the British Customs Officers and destroys stamps.

Scene 3: Washington at Cambridge Elm.

Scene 4: The Signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Scene 5: Boston receives news of the Signing of the Declaration of Independence. Minuet.

Epilogue.—The Light of the Beacon. The Arts, Science and Religion make contribution to Boston, the City of Beautiful Ideals.

Recessional, "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Fireworks on the Athletic Field followed five minutes after conclusion of the Pageant in the evening at 10 p. m.

The Mayor has approved the following vote of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That this Board determines that the undermentioned persons sustain damages in their estates by the taking of an easement for sewerage purposes and construction of sewerage works in private land at the northerly end of Lafayette park, Roxbury district, under the order of the Board, in the amount hereinafter mentioned, and awards said amount therefor.

METHODS OF ELIMINATING GRADE-CROSSING ACCIDENTS.

Five suggestions aimed at the elimination of grade-crossing accidents are offered in the monthly report of the Street Traffic Committee of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

It is estimated that curing the grade-crossing evil would reduce traffic accidents by 10 per cent in a very short time, and the Committee presents the following five points for discussion:

1. Do away with those grade crossings which have the heaviest traffic.
2. Place warning signs not less than 500 feet back from the railroad tracks.
3. Take down all signs from obsolete trackage.
4. Use traffic-light signals (operated by trains) instead of signs, if there are fewer than five trains per day.
5. Consider scrapping all railroad signs in favor of signals for use only when train is approaching.

"The last two points merit consideration first, because, though they are new doctrines, they seem the least expensive and most practical of application."

For many years there have been suggestions that public projects could be made to constitute an important element of stabilization in times of economic depression. The Mayor has approved the following order of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Whereas, Said sum ($4,197.80) was accepted by said Halpin not in full satisfaction of all damages so sustained but as payment pro tanto without prejudice to any right to have the remainder of said damages, if any, assessed by the appropriate tribunal; and

Whereas, Said Halpin petitioned the Superior Court for a jury to determine said damages in excess of the amount ($4,197.80) so awarded, accepted and paid; now, therefore, it is Voted, After consultation with the Law Department, and on its advice, that additional damages in the amount of $2,802.20 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Charlotte I. Halpin, and it is further ordered that the Corporation Counsel agree to judgment in said case on the terms herein stated.

MAYOR CURLEY MOVES TO RETURN RECALCITRANT HUSBANDS TO THEIR OBLIGATIONS.

At a conference on July 1, called by his Honor the Mayor the question of cost to the City of Boston of dependent relief and Mothers' Aid Relief was discussed. The following were present at this conference:

Hon. James H. Curley.
Corporation Counsel Samuel Silverman.
Assistant Corporation Counsel Joseph P. Lyons.
Police Commissioner Eugene C. Hultman.

City Auditor Rupert S. Carven.
Budget Commissioner Charles J. Fox.
All members of the overseers, as follows:
Mr. Morris Bronstein.
Mr. Simon E. Hecht (Chairman).
Mr. Vincent Brogna.
Mr. Walter V. McCarthy (Secretary).
Mrs. Katherine Gookin.
Mr. James P. Maloney.
Mr. Anders Tellstrom.
Mr. Edward H. Willey.
Mr. Assad Mudarri.
Mr. William H. Taylor.
Mrs. Thomas F. McMahon.
Miss Sophie M. Friedman.
Mrs. Eva W. White.

The records of the Department of Public Welfare show that the cost to the City of Boston for supporting women and children whose husbands and fathers fail to support them will approximate $500,000 for 1930.

The committee on legal affairs of the Public Welfare Department, consisting of Vincent Brogna and William H. Taylor, have presented a plan that should rid the city of a large part of this burden and place it on the shoulders of those on whom it legally and morally belongs.

The overseers requested the Mayor to assign to them an Assistant Corporation Counsel to enforce the law against those who do not support their wives and children, and who will have the assistance of the entire Boston Police Department. Police Commissioner Hultman will assign special officers from his department to work with the Public Welfare Department and carry out this plan, and it is proposed that husbands who have deserted their wives and children, or who wilfully fail to support them, will be forced to support them. If they fail to do so they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

The entire facilities of the Boston Police Department and the police of the entire country will be placed at the disposal of the Public Welfare Department to apprehend wife deserters and non-supporters, no matter where they may be located.

It is expected that the Corporation Counsel, with the cooperation of the Police Department, will immediately ask for summonses and, if necessary, will ask for indictment warrants and arrest every husband who has deserted his family or who has wilfully refused to support them.

It is felt that this will not only place the burdens of supporting families where they rightfully belong but in cases where there is a wilful refusal to support, or a desertion, justice will be done not only to the parties involved but to the city as well.

It will also be of great benefit in a social and family manner in that it will tend to reunite families to live happily together and tend to act as a deterrent in cases where the father or husband may consider his obligation rather lightly.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 32.

A Board of Inquiry was appointed to investigate the case of the escape of prisoner Victor Stanwhite from the City Prison, Boston, on Sunday morning, June 22, 1930.

The Board reported among many things, the following:

That the prisoner was put into a padded cell at 3.10 p. m., Saturday, June 21, 1930, and remained there until he escaped at or about 6.45 to 7 o'clock a. m., Sunday, June 22, 1930.

That between the hours of 3.10 p. m. June 21 and 1 a. m. June 22, those in charge and attendance at the City Prison watched carefully the actions of the prisoner who had made several attempts to commit suicide.

That Patrolman Walsh, delegated from Station 2, received instructions from Sergt. John C. E. Clark to watch the prisoner, and that Sergeant Clark gave to Patrolman Walsh the keys to the iron door which leads from the padded cell room to the main corridor and from the corridor to the yard entrance.

That between the hours of 4.40 and 7 a. m., Sunday, June 22, 1930, seventy-nine prisoners in groups of four and five were received at the City Prison, and that between the hours of 5.30 and 7 a. m. both Sergeants Clark and Inglis were in the front office of the City Prison busily engaged in booking prisoners.

That the prisoner opened two doors with a key attached to a key ring containing eight keys which he had taken from a bunch where Patrolman Walsh left it.

That the iron gate leading from the passageway in view of the office was carelessly left open, also the wooden door leading from the yard into said passageway, and also a large gate, through which vehicles enter and leave the yard, were open almost continuously from 4.40 a. m. until after 7 o'clock a. m.

That Sergeant Clark was careless in giving the keys to Patrolman Walsh, which was entirely unnecessary.

That Sergeants Clark and Inglis were careless and negligent in allowing the outside wooden gates to be open almost continuously from 4.40 a. m., until after 7 a. m., June 22; also the inside gate leading from passageway from office to yard, which was left open after the prisoners had been brought in.

That Patrolman Walsh was on a paying detail at the Beacon Trust Company until 12.30 p. m., Saturday, June 21, 1930, and went home and went to bed at 6.30 p. m., and awoke about 10.30 p. m. He was relieved by Sergeant Clark about two or two-thirty o'clock, and went to have something to eat. When he returned Sergeant Clark opened the door for him to enter the padded cell room and instructed him to continue to watch the prisoner carefully. Patrolman Walsh states that he paced the padded cell room until about 6.47 a. m., at which time he sat on a chair opposite the cell room and left the keys on a bench and went to sleep. On account of the heat that was turned on in the padded cell room he either dozed off to sleep or into a state of coma. When he awoke it was 7 o'clock and he found that the prisoner had escaped, that the door of the padded cell room was unlocked and ajar, the main iron gate was unlocked and ajar, also the iron gate leading from the passageway to the yard open and ajar, and the big wooden gates used by vehicles wide open.

The Board made the following recommendations:

A reprimand for Lieut. William H. Allen, Sergt. John C. E. Clark and Sergt. Edmund R. Inglis, and in view of the fact that Patrolman Joseph W. Walsh has a wife and three children to support and that his record at Station 2 shows that he has never been complained of for violation of the rules and regulations of the department since appointment, March 5, 1926, and at the present time is not receiving maximum pay as a patrolman, and that possibly the atmosphere and air of the room in which he was placed to watch the prisoner may have been more conducive to sleep than if he performed the same number of hours on street duty, therefore recommended thirty days' suspension with loss of pay.

The Board as a result of an inspection of the cell room made further recommendations in reference to certain conditions at the prison.

I considered the findings and the recommendations of the Board and felt that the suggested punishment by the Board to the officers concerned was not sufficient, and was seriously considering inflicting a much greater punishment, but it was called to my attention by the superintendent that on August 19, 1929, Lieut. William H. Allen, keeper of the City Lockup, reported to my predecessor, Herbert A. Wilson, as follows:

"I find that the City Prison is more or less handicapped in its work because of the shortage of patrolmen. The janitor and his assistant are used daily to assist in placing prisoners in their cells and in taking them out when they are sent to court. At times drivers of municipal and county vans assist in the work. Since the janitor and his assistant are civilians, I feel that at some time when there is trouble with the prisoners, that we are liable to get into difficulties because of this.

"I request therefore that four additional patrolmen be assigned to the City Prison. I should like also at least ten manifolds sent to the prison. I find that the prison has not received any since 1927."

I also found that nothing was done to remedy this situation, therefore in view of the possible suggestion that Lieut. Allen may not be entirely responsible for the conditions and reported them to his superior officer, I have decided to accept the recommendations of the Board of Inquiry.

I desire, however, at this time to call to the attention of every member of this department that in the future I shall not accept as an excuse for any laxity or inefficiency of any member of this department, a statement that he had notified one of my predecessors of certain conditions and therefore he could not be held responsible.

If any member of this department has knowledge of any conditions that should be remedied, it is his duty to immediately call the same to my attention.

Therefore, after carefully considering all the facts and circumstances in the case, I approve of the recommendations of the Board of Inquiry as to punishment for the several officers concerned, and order that Lieut. William H. Allen and Sergeants John C. E. Clark and Edmund R. Inglis, all of the City Prison, be reprimanded in General Orders; and, further, that Patrolman Joseph W. Walsh of Division 2 be suspended, with loss of pay, for a period of thirty days, commencing at 5.45 o'clock p. m., Thursday, June 26, 1930.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 33.

The following communication has been received by the Police Commissioner from the Commissioner of Civil Service, State House, Boston, and is published for the information of the members of the department:

DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL SERVICE AND REGISTRATION, STATE HOUSE, BOSTON,
June 25, 1930.

MR. EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Police Commissioner.

DEAR COMMISSIONER,—Under date of May 22 you presented certain suggestions for changes in procedure in connection with the promotion examinations. These were the subject of a hearing and consideration at a later meeting of the Board and at the meeting held yesterday action was taken on a part of them. The purpose of this letter is to advise you of such action.

In connection with your first three suggestions you requested that little credit should be given for so-called experience in the grade beyond the prerequisite for eligibility. This, as explained to you at the hearing, had been subject to change rather recently and very little credit is now given, so no action on this suggestion was necessary in any case.

Your first suggestion recommended retaining the rule requiring patrolmen to have served five years before becoming eligible for examination for sergeant. No change was necessary in this case.

Your second suggestion, that a sergeant be allowed to compete for lieutenant at the end of two years instead of three years, was approved.

Your third suggestion, that a lieutenant be allowed to compete for captain at the end of one year instead of three years, was also approved.

Your fourth request, that examinations be held for the position of deputy superintendent, although the position is exempt, was acceded to.

Your fifth suggestion dealt with a major change in practice in reference to detectives. We have agreed to this as an experiment and will give it a full trial. Our understanding is that, from this date, you may assign a patrolman as detective in the Bureau of Criminal Investigation and that you will merely have to notify us of such assignment. Sergeants may be similarly assigned as detective sergeants and lieutenants as detective lieutenants, etc. But, in all examinations for promotion hereafter in your department, certain questions relative to detective duties and detective functions will be included in the questions for every rank.

Your sixth request, that promotional examinations be held yearly above the grade of sergeant, was acceded to.

Your seventh suggestion in regard to the treatment of extraordinary acts of bravery raised some question and was laid over for further consideration.

Your eighth suggestion in regard to physical condition of applicants was not adopted. The explanation is that we are unable to find tables for regulating weight and height to age, although there are tables of relation of weight to height. The only effect of using such tables would, in our opinion, be to reject men for obesity and this we can do under our present examination.

Your ninth suggestion in regard to cases of unusually meritorious acts raised some question and, therefore, was laid over for further consideration.

Should you desire to be heard further in connection with these matters laid over, to wit, records of efficiency and achievements and acts of bravery, please let me know.

Very truly yours,

ELLIOT H. GOODWIN,
Commissioner of Civil Service.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 34.

The following matter was reported by John M. Anderson, captain, commanding Police Division 5:

At about 10.40 o'clock a. m., June 21, 1930, while Patrolman Patrick J. Gaffey, Division 5, was patrolling his route and passing a pawn shop on Dover street, he observed that the doors of the shop were closed and suspecting something unusual, stopped, looked in through the door and saw a young man with a revolver in his hand. At the same instant the patrolman heard one shot and observed the proprietor of the shop with his hands in the air.

The officer drawing his gun, pushed open the door and ordered the "hold-up" man to drop his revolver, which he did at once and surrendered to the officer.

Later, on examination at the Boston City Hospital, it was found that the proprietor of the pawnshop had been shot in the left thigh, and he was held for treatment.

The weapon of the person under arrest proved to be stolen.

Subsequently, the prisoner was identified by a drug store proprietor of the Dorchester district as the person who had held him up at the point of a revolver on June 20, 1930, and robbed him of money.

Patrolman Gaffey, in observing that the doors of the pawnshop were closed, sensed something unusual.

The commissioner is pleased to note this alertness to duty and joins with the patrolman's commanding officer in the opinion that the officer's investigation, and in confronting and apprehending the law breaker was an excellent piece of police work.

It is hereby ordered that Patrolman Gaffey be commended in General Orders.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 35.

The following matter concerning Sergeants Edward A. Carey and Walter A. Driscoll, and Patrolman Frederick W. McGonigle, Edward C. Killeen and Terrance P. McManus, all of Division 19, was reported by John E. Driscoll, captain:

On June 20, 1930, at 6.20 p. m., on information received at the station house of Police Division 19, Sergt. Walter A. Driscoll, in charge at the time, being of the opinion that there was something unusual and wrong at a Chinese laundry shop on Blue Hill avenue, despatched Patrolmen Killeen and McGonigle, both of Division 19, in a motor vehicle to the place in question.

On arrival Patrolman Killeen went to the front door and Patrolman McGonigle to the rear door.

As Patrolman McGonigle arrived at the rear door he heard a key turn in the lock. With his revolver in hand he pushed open the door and was faced by a man armed with a loaded revolver.

Patrolman McGonigle grappled with his suspect and with the assistance of Patrolman Killeen, who had entered by the front door, took possession of the suspect's revolver and placed him under arrest.

Later on questioning at the station house, it was revealed that the prisoner was an alleged accomplice in a crime of murder on Police Division 5, about five years ago; that he is the person who has been robbing Chinese laundries, and, further, that he admitted breaking and entering dwelling houses.

Further inquiry brought out that a female decoy was used in the laundry cases.

As a result of information obtained, within a few hours later the decoy was arrested by Sergt. Walter A. Driscoll and Patrolman Edward C. Killeen, assisted by officers of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation.

As a result of information obtained, also, two alleged Chinese killers of a chinaman on Division 5, hereinbefore referred to, were apprehended by Sergeant Driscoll, Patrolman Killeen and officers of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation.

Sergt. Driscoll and Patrolmen McGonigle and Killeen, who participated in arrests in this case, are commended for the good police work they performed while on regular duty, as well as the long hours spent on the case while off duty.

Patrolman Terrance P. McManus is commended for his work in this case and the extra hours put in of his own time.

Sergt. Carey, who was off duty and was at the station house when the case was first reported, went immediately to work with others in the investigation and devoted many hours of his spare time until all sources of information were "covered"—for which he is commended.

It is hereby ordered, in addition to the commendations above noted, that Sergeants Driscoll and Carey and Patrolmen McGonigle, Killeen and McManus be granted, each, two days' additional vacation, to be taken now or in connection with their annual vacation periods.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 14.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
June 25, 1930.

To the Heads of City Departments.

GENTLEMEN,—You are hereby directed to grant leave of absence, without loss of pay, to employees in your department who are members of the Army Reserve Corps, the Naval Reserve Force, the National Guard, or the United States Citizens' Training Camp, to attend the annual tour of duty or service school.

Very truly yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

AUTOMOBILISTS ALLOWED TO VIEW FRANKLIN PARK ROSE GARDEN.

The Rose Garden in Franklin Park, situated opposite the Bird House near the Seaver street side, is a beautiful sight at the present time, containing over 1,500 roses with 125 different varieties. A brief description might be interesting:

The site as selected is well protected by high trees and lies in a sunny situation north of a long ridge—the ridge itself being planted heavily with climbing roses.

The Rose Garden is one of a group of pleasure gardens which is being built in Franklin Park by direction of his Honor Mayor James M. Curley. The Rose Garden was built during his former administration. The herbaceous garden was started and completed during his first administration and a rock garden is being arranged for under the present administration.

The easterly portion of the garden group is devoted chiefly to herbaceous plants grouped in a naturalistic way showing the shrubberies and trees as backgrounds.

The Rose Garden itself is at the westerly end of the garden scheme and is a special inclosure of oval shape and is arranged especially for roses.

A trellis is designed for the margin to display climbing and pillar roses. The trellis is 9 feet high and at the present time is covered with rambler roses.

The entrance is arranged as a pergola and is also covered with climbing roses. Within the inclosure are lattice-work entrances and niches which are also completely covered with roses. The outer margin of the garden is about three feet higher than the central portion in order to give visitors a good view of the interior,—four flights of steps leading from the high to the low level. Arches are used liberally around the upper encircling path. In the center is a pool arranged in a naturalistic way containing many water plants. There are also vases of Indian pottery at the entrances and four statues surrounding the pool designating the four seasons of the year.

In laying out this garden, special pains were taken to prevent it from intruding on the natural open landscapes of the park and also to bring it within the boundaries of the Zoo for the accommodation of the general public.

His Honor the Mayor has directed the Park Commissioners to arrange for entrance to visitors with automobiles from the Humboldt avenue side which is within one minute's walk of the Rose Garden. Here also can be seen the statues recently removed from the Post Office and which are now set up on granite pedestals—one of the statues being entirely completed, the other will be completed within a few days.

STREET, BURLEY STREET, LITLEDALE STREET AND MAYNARD STREET, WEST ROXBURY.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for sewerage works in Dale street, Burley street, Littledale street and Maynard street, West Roxbury. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 50 per cent of the amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Plans and proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be inclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Sewerage Works in Dale Street, etc.," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 m. of Wednesday, July 16, 1930, with a certified check for two thousand (2,000) dollars, payable to and to become the property of the city if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the proposals. If the price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or to award the contract as he deems best.

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
(July 5.) Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, MAYOR CURLEY AND FRANCE RENEW PLEDGES OF FRIENDSHIP ON JULY 4 WHILE ENTERTAINING REPUBLIC'S DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN, HON. JULES HENRY, CHARGE D'AFFAIRES FOR REPUBLIC OF FRANCE AT WASHINGTON. MAYOR MAKES ADDRESS OF WELCOME AND ENTERTAINS WITH LUNCHEON.

Mayor Curley and the citizens of Boston entertained, on July 4, as chief of the city the Hon. Jules Henry, Charge d'Affaires of the Republic of France, Washington. The distinguished guest arrived in the city on the day preceding. After having been shown many of the interesting places in greater Boston, including visits to the most important historical sites, the distinguished representative of the Republic of France was welcomed to the city at the exercises in Faneuil Hall, and then entertained with a luncheon at the Parker House.

In welcoming the distinguished citizen to Boston, Mayor Curley in his address said:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

It is both pleasing and fitting upon this the one hundred and fifty-fourth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence that the ceremonies should be held in Faneuil Hall, known and beloved the world over as "The Cradle of Liberty." It is a source of gratification that a representative of our sister Republic of France should be present, since a citizen of France made possible this outstanding shrine of liberty — Peter Faneuil.

Within these sacred walls for more than a century and a half the public have assembled to voice their protests against oppression and injustice. Upon this very platform during the most trying period of the recent World War it was the very great privilege of the citizenship of Boston to greet the immortal hero of the Marne, through whose genius, generalship and sublime courage the mad march of the armies of the Central Empires was halted — Marshal Joffre. Upon this platform it was my very great privilege as War Mayor of Boston — in 1917 — to present to Marshal Joffre my daughter Mary, deputized by the generous-hearted citizenship to present a check in the sum of one million and a quarter francs for the relief of the children of France whose fathers had died in defense of country and flag.

The French Government has shown wisdom in honoring the City of Boston upon this occasion with the presence of the Charge d'Affaires, Jules Henry, courageous as soldier and brilliant as a statesman. It is, however, but another evidence of that wonderful comradeship which had its birth in America's hours of greatest triumph.

The contribution of France in 1778 was responsible for the winning of the Revolutionary War and the establishment of the American Republic. In those trying days succeeding the departure of the British from Boston in March of 1776 the army of Gen. George Washington had never received the cheer of victory and were in constant retreat for a period of two years.

When the outlook was most drear and the trail of the Army of Valley Forge might be traced for hundreds of miles by the blood left on snow and ice by those who had neither shoes nor stockings, when supplies of food and ammunition were scarce, when desertions were common, dissension was rife and disintegration in evidence and when the Father of our Country could often be found kneeling in the snow, praying to Almighty God for assistance and success of the great movement, the prayer was answered by the arrival of a French squadron in charge of Admiral De Grosse and the Marquis La Fayette with seven regiments of French soldiers. Then the morale of the army which prior to this time was at a low ebb was changed. The Battle of Yorktown was fought and speedily the gloom of Valley Forge was dispelled and the liberty of the colonies assured.

America's obligation was due for one hundred and thirty-nine years and in response to the appeal of Marshal Joffre was discharged by the services and enlistment of six million of the flower of America's manhood. The message given to the world by the leader of the American forces upon the arrival of the first contingent on French soil thrilled America and the world, and recalled our obligation when General Pershing made the simple but powerful announcement, "La Fayette, we are here."

The armies of the allied forces had fought with stubborn tenacity, as did the forces under Washington in colonial days, with scarce a cheer of victory during a period of three years, until the arrival of the American troops. Once again America, and the world, was thrilled when that contingent of the fighting forces, whose insignia bears the words, "Semper Fidelis," at the Battle of the Argonne furnished proof to the world that the citizen soldier, although he possessed but a limited knowledge of military tactics and the science of war, when animated by high ideals, could be depended upon to fight with courage unexcelled and if need be die in defense of a righteous cause.

There is no method by which man is privileged to peer into the future and foretell coming events, but I believe that I voice the sentiments of Americans everywhere, when I express the wish that the bonds of brotherhood which had their birth in the hour of travail of both republics may, with the passing of the years, be strengthened and that whatever of good or evil the future holds for the two republics this long-continued friendship may remain unbroken.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

FRIENDSHIP OF NEW ENGLAND FOR FRANCE EXTOLLED IN JULY 4 ADDRESS BY REPUBLIC'S REPRESENTATIVE, HON. JULES HENRY, CHARGE D'AFFAIRES FOR COUNTRY, AT WASHINGTON.

Following Mayor Curley's address of welcome, Hon. Jules Henry, Charge d'Affaires, Republic of France, at Washington, spoke as follows:

I am profoundly grateful to Mayor Curley for his touching words and for the feelings expressed toward my country in such an eloquent manner. My gratitude is tinged with sympathy, for I know all his recent sorrow.

It was a very touching thought on the part of the City of Boston to invite France to participate, on this Fourth of July, in the celebration of the Tercentenary of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, and it is with great pleasure that I read the following message sent to the Honorable James M. Curley by the President of the Republic:

"At the time when the City of Boston is ready to celebrate the Tercentenary of its foundation, I associate myself heartily to the commemoration of such a great date and I am very pleased to send to the population of that illustrious city the expression of my keen sympathy and of my most sincere wishes. Signed, GASTON DOUMERGUE."

Standing here as your guest, on this Independence Day, I cannot help looking back into the past, and recalling the names of countrymen of mine who were associated with the history of New England and of Boston. Years before the foundation of this city and even before the first landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, some French pioneers had visited the coasts of what was not yet New England and which was once called New France. Samuel de Champlain, to whom your great historian Francis Parkman paid a glorious tribute, was their leader. In 1609 he came down the beautiful lake which still bears his name; but in 1605 he had already explored your eastern coast.

From Mount Desert Island, which he named, he visited the coast of Maine and entered Massachusetts Bay; he described the island of what is now Boston Harbor as covered with trees; they have since died and left few descendants. It is said that a fog prevented him from seeing Boston Harbor itself; otherwise he might have been the very founder of your city. He sailed down the South Shore and anchored for the night near Brant Rock; the next day a wind drove him into a bay, which he called Port Saint-Louis; fifteen years later your Pilgrim fathers entered in Port Saint-Louis and called it Plymouth Bay.

It was not until quite a number of years later that other Frenchmen sailed from France to settle among the Pilgrims. They were Huguenots whom the Saint-Barthelemy first and the repeal of the Edit de Nantes afterwards compelled to leave France. After a stay in Holland they settled in the New World where they hoped to be free to practise their religion in this new country of liberty, and on this continent some of them selected New England. Among the best known was Gabriel Bernon of La Rochelle; for almost fifty years he was practically the business manager of a small colony, established in the territory of New Oxford, which had the appearance of a little corner of France. Such an establishment was too small for his vast plans and we soon find him engaged in work of plantations in Rhode Island and in trade between Boston, Europe and the West Indies. He died in Providence after having accumulated what at the time was a great fortune, and after having contributed largely to the development of the Church of England in Rhode Island.

Pierre Daille of Saumur was another distinguished Frenchman of Boston. For nearly twenty-five years he tried, in vain, to establish a French church in your city; it was only his successor, Lemercier, who was able to succeed in that enterprise; unfortunately, the small building did not last long and the only souvenir left of the French church of Boston appears to be a bible presented by Queen Anne to the French refugees. Both of these Frenchmen proved to be excellent New England patriots, the latter going as far as loudly applauding the victories of English armies over the soldiers of the King of France.

Of all the names of French origin, the one best remembered among you is undoubtedly Faneuil, and it is a very pleasant coincidence that I should speak today in this very hall named after that family.

Pierre Faneuil "the jolly bachelor," as they called him, who insisted on living on "nothing gaudy, but the handsomest," was one of the most generous and beloved persons in New England. John Lowell said of him when he died that "he was the man with the keenest sense of 'esprit public' that until now has been seen on the Northern Continent of America."

Those are souvenirs of the early days of New England. But it was during the period of your independence that my country had the privilege of becoming closer to you, in fact from the very first day of your struggle for liberty. Was it not a son of France, Paul Revere, who, according to a tradition beautifully preserved in a famous poem, gave the signal for the first defence of the country which soon was going to be the United States of America? From that moment the French people never ceased to give the Americans all the help possible for the gaining of that independence.

New England and Boston were closely connected with the happenings of the French-American alliances. Twice, during the year 1778, Lafayette visited Boston to confer with Admiral d'Estaing, whose fleet was in Newport. It was from Boston that he sailed on January 11, 1779, on the ship "Alliance" for France where, after having received command of his regiment, he worked for the next year for the American cause. It was in Boston that he landed on the 26th of April, 1780, on the "Hermione" with instructions from the king to proceed to America and "to hasten to join General Washington to whom he would announce, under the bond of secrecy, that the king, who desires to give the United States a new proof of his affection and of his interest in their welfare, has decided to send out to them early in the spring, reinforcements of six ships of the line, and 6,000 men of regular infantry."

It was in New England, at Newport, that Rochambeau and his companions or arms arrived on July 11. From the port, after several visits in Boston, they sailed for the South to meet Washington.

After the Yorktown victory, Lafayette sailed back to France from Boston on the "Alliance" on the 21st of December, 1781, writing to Washington, in reply to his farewell message: "Adieu, my dear General. I know your heart so well that I am sure that no distance can alter your attachment to me."

A few years later, after the signature of the treaty putting an end to the war, Lafayette returned to America upon Washington's invitation. He was the guest of the nation. In October, 1784, he paid an official visit to your city, where 500 of the leading citizens gave him a dinner in this very hall and a wonderful ovation. But it was in 1824, during his last visit to this country, that the people of Boston showed him the greatest courtesy and gave him the warmest reception he was ever given. The then Mayor of Boston, Josiah Quincy, had invited him to lay the cornerstone of yonder Bunker Hill monument. In accepting, Lafayette wrote: "I joyfully anticipate when I may revisit Boston, the glorious cradle of America, and in future, I hope, of universal Liberty." The love entertained by that great countryman towards your city was at the time expressed in these two verses in one newspaper:

"Now he sees the Boston dome,
Now he feels his heart at home."

The friendship of New England for France cemented during the War of Independence has never failed and you gave us ample proof of it during the tragic hours that befell us in 1914. You showed us in a beautiful way on what side were your feelings.

Among the first Americans who volunteered in the French Army were Bostonians and New Englanders and among them three names will be forever remembered by France: Norman Prince, Henry W. Farnsworth, and Kenneth Weeks. Allow me to pay to their memory the tribute they deserve.

Among the first societies founded in America for the relief of French soldiers and of the French population, the New England and Boston societies were numerous and active: The Fund for the French Wounded, the Fatherless Children of France, the American Field Ambulance, the Lafayette Committee, the Committee for Devastated France, the Christian Science Church. Harvard and Boston were the first to welcome French officers on American soil and when the time came for the Americans to fight side by side with the French, the men of New England came to us with enthusiasm and covered themselves with glory.

If the gallant conduct of the 26th Division added a beautiful chapter to the history of American arms, its generous gesture in the reconstruction of Belleau Church soon gained the heart of the French people, and I wish to renew here the expression of gratitude which was shown last year to the delegates of the Yankee Division during their visit to France.

Although I am speaking here to the citizens of Boston, I hope they will pardon me if I send a friendly thought to the Americans of French descent who live in the surrounding cities. In this old part of the Union, where intellectual traditions and culture have always flourished and where French literature and art have always been appreciated, these Franco-Americans are an important influence toward good understanding between our two nations.

Your Honor and citizens of Boston, in congratulating you upon this celebration, may I convey to you the warmest wishes of the French Republic and of the French people for your prosperity and happiness.

PLEADS FOR PRESERVATION OF THE CONSTITUTION INVIO- LATE THAT THE GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN LIBERTY MAY NOT FAIL—HON. HERBERT PARKER, CHAIRMAN, MASSACHUSETTS TERCEN- TENARY COMMISSION, STIRS CROWDED FANEUIL HALL TO ENTHUSIASM AS HE DELIVERS INDE- PENDENCE DAY ADDRESS ON JULY 4, 1930.

Hon. Herbert Parker, Chairman of the Massachusetts Tercentenary Commission, delivering the Independence Day Oration, at Faneuil Hall, on July 4, 1930, spoke as follows:

Here, as in many voices of the past, still speaketh "the conscience of the state." From the vibrant echoes of these walls the history and the glory of the ancient days of the city breathe in living words again. Here we may read the prophetic records of the centuries that forecast the days that are to come, as when the morning sun dispels the mists that veil the distant mountain tops.

Let us harken that we may hear, as the Maid of Orleans heard, from the voices of the air, the call to her rescue of beleaguered France. Let our vision search the stars that are set in the midnight skies of the past, that have closed like a curtain behind the days whereon the sun has set. Here is the citadel wherein we may defend, if assailed, and preserve inviolate, those principles of human liberty under our established law, which are our birthrights and our inheritances, and our own by right of the valor, service and sacrifice of the kinsmen of our citizenship. From here we may flash again the signals that shall call our people to counsels or to arms, as, under guidance and control of our own laws, we shall safeguard the Republic from whencesoever a menace against its virtue or authority may appear. Here, for generations, the people have met, in the successive years of peace, or of peril, and have made pledge of their loyalty to the City, Commonwealth and Nation; and here again we make and renew our own vows of like fealty and devotion.

More than a century and a half long gone, the initial commemorative observances had place in the celebration of fateful days, to which this assembly today is in direct succession of patriotic sentiment.

We have been told that the last public appearance of James Otis, before the shadow of the eclipse of his faculties, or the day of his passing, had darkened his realization of his country's independence, was when, presiding as moderator at a town meeting of the inhabitants of Boston, on the fifth day of March in 1783, in this very place of our meeting today, he put to its adoption a motion to make annual celebration of our national independence, in substitution for the commemoration of the "Boston Massacre," which had had, on each of its recurring anniversaries, sad and solemn memorial observance by the people. So, William Cooper, then Town Clerk, had made record, as it was voted, that:

"Whereas, the annual celebration of the Boston Massacre on the 5th day of March 1770, by the institution of a public oration, has been found to be of eminent advantage to the cause of virtue and patriotism among her citizens; and whereas the immediate motives which induced the commemoration of that day do now no longer exist in their primitive force, while the benefits resulting from the institution may and ought ever to be preserved, by exchanging that anniversary for another, the federation of which will last as long as time endures:—it is therefore resolved, that the celebration of the 15th of March from henceforth shall cease, and that instead thereof, the anniversary of the Fourth day of July, 1776,—a day ever memorable in the annals of this country for the declaration of Independence—shall be constantly celebrated by the delivery of a public oration, in such place as the town shall determine to be most convenient for the purpose,—in which the orator shall consider the feelings, manners and principles which led to this great national event, as well as the important and happy effects, whether general or domestic, which have already and will forever continue, to flow from this conspicuous epoch."

In obedience to this mandate of the people of patriotic Boston, in each passing year, such oration has here been fervently pronounced, as ordained, animated by the ancient and ever living spirit which gave, and preserves the liberties of our country.

This day, this assemblage of our people, the united, harmonious sentiment of our happy and prosperous nation, in honorable peace with all the world, all acclaim the verity of the prediction of John Adams, patriot and prophet—

"That the 4th day of July 1776 will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America."

and

"that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts to God Almighty. . . ."

And to this day, in truth, my fellow citizens, so it has been. And, with praise and prayer to the God of our fathers, and of our children, so we proclaim again that it shall ever be.

With the spirit of history and of prophecy guiding his hand, on the third day of July, 1776, John Adams, from the Convention in Philadelphia, wrote thus to his wife, Abigail Adams, of happy and revered memory (for mother she was, as he a father of the Republic):

"Yesterday, the greatest question was decided which ever was debated in America; and a greater, perhaps never was, nor will be, among men."

"Twice within a century," said Rufus Choate, citing two examples of the oratory of freedom in this fateful period in the story of the birth of our nation,—

"men have heard the eloquence of revolution in the true cause of liberty. They heard it once, when, in 1782, Ireland in arms, had extorted . . . in part from the justice of a new administration—the independence of her parliamentary and her judiciary," and quoting the speech of Grattan, the American orator, rekindles the phrase of that immortal son of liberty, as he repeats—

"I found Ireland on her knees. I watched over her, with an eternal solicitude. I have traced her progress from injuries to arms, from arms to liberty . . ."

"Men heard that eloquence in 1776," said Mr. Choate, "in that manifold and mighty appeal by the genius and wisdom of that new America, to persuade the people to take on the name of nation and bring its life."

"But the leader in that great argument was John Adams, of Massachusetts. He, by concession of all men was the orator of that revolution—the revolution in which a nation was born. Other and renowned names, by written or spoken eloquence, cooperated effectively, splendidly, to the grand result, Samuel Adams, Samuel Chase, Jefferson, Henry, James Otis in an earlier stage. Each of them, and a hundred men, within circles of influence wider or narrower, sent forth, scattering broadcast the seed of life in the ready virgin soil. Each brought some specialty of gift to the work: Jefferson, the magic of style, and the habit and the power of delicious dalliance with those large fair ideas of freedom and equality, so dear to man, so irresistible in that day; Henry, the indescribable and lost spell of the speech of the emotions, which fills the eye, chills the blood, turns the cheek pale, the lyric phrase of eloquence, the 'fire water' as Lamartine has said of the revolution, instilling into the sense and the soul the sweet madness of battles; Samuel Chase, the tones of anger, confidence and pride, and the art to inspire them."

"Yet," says Mr. Choate, historian, and as well himself master of every art of perfect eloquence, "John Adams' eloquence alone seemed to have met every demand of the time."

"In the ardor of the atmosphere" of the birthland of our Republic, reflected in the oratory of those who have told the story of the nativity of our nation, we read humbly, yet proudly, the annals of the later days, and, in obedience to the injunction of the Boston town meeting of that older day, we—

"consider the feelings, manner and principles which led to this great national event, as well as the important and happy effects, whether general or domestic, which have already, and will forever continue to flow from this auspicious epoch."

We may hold in our hearts lamenting memories of Crispus Attucks, innocent victim of the arrogant or heedless act of a soldier of the king. The melancholy incident was at the time characterized in the angry apprehension of the offended Boston patriots as a "massacre." It has been, in the perspective of later events, held to have marked the first bloodshed of the Revolution.

Yet it's true and more auspicious significance is revealed in the orderly and just procedure of the Trial Court, conducted, notwithstanding tense and hostile popular excitement, by the loyal patriot John Adams, himself acting as counsel for the accused British officer in command of the royal troops then occupying the Town of Boston and by their presence a constant menace to the liberties of the people.

In the acceptance by the people of Boston of the just but unpopular judgment of the Court there was evident that respect for the law, and obedience to its authorized and formal decrees, which was instinctive and inherent in the thought, conduct and faith of the founder of New England. The outcries of an excited populace have never found phrase or reflection in the adjudications of our courts.

Three hundred of the most momentous years in the history of mankind have passed since that body of creative law was brought here by Governor John Winthrop and his company, embodied in the form of a Royal Charter from the hand of King Charles the First.

During that period the seemingly impregnable fortresses of our constitutional liberty have been upbuilt by our colonial ancestors. We have ourselves enlarged them. They seem to assure us our religious freedom, our rights in our property, immune against any diminution save for public need, and under due process of law; to safeguard the inalienable protection of our personal liberty, by the writ of habeas corpus, and the indisputable right to an impartial trial by jury, in lawfully constituted courts. Yet all these splendid constitutional structures may be swept away, or crumble in the dust, if the people, misled by evil counsels or unmindful of their charge, shall so permit.

Thrice-walled the city may be, and threefold may be its brazen gates, yet the enemy may enter in and despoil its sanctuaries, if the sentinels shall sleep, or prove faithless at their posts.

The Preamble to the Bill of Rights in our Massachusetts Constitution both warns and reassures us in its declaration that:

"the people have a right to alter the government and to take measures necessary for their safety, prosperity and happiness."

Only in the alert, enlightened, intelligent, and, above all, responsible, exercise of the duties of our citizenship, can our constitutional security be preserved to us, subject, as it is, and must be, to possible disintegration, inherent in its own structure, dependent, as it must always be, upon the ultimate expression of the popular will. Be, then, ceaselessly vigilant, remembering that even constitutional rights are not assured to us, save through our own efforts to defend and maintain them. If love of country give place to love of self; if, through an idling, intellectual diversion we yield even curious consideration to the blasphemies of those who profanely say, in derision of the authority of our laws, "There is no God"; or if over-confident in the protection of those laws, as children play with fire in their nurseries, we hold heedless dalliance with the fawning advocates of the bomb, instead of the honest ballot, or with those delirious advocates of the coming of liberty through a reign of terror under the bloody tyranny of Democracy gone mad, and so the gates of the temple be laid open to its destroyers, then, as in a day that has passed, or as a watch in the night, all these constitutional battlements which we have defended shall fall in destruction and desolation about us.

See to it that the great cause of human liberty under the law, luminous in our Constitution, the slow development of unmeasured centuries of human aspiration and effort, shall not fail, or take harm in our hand. See that no message or mandate, whencesoever it may come, shall intimidate our counsels by threats, relax the stern conclusions of our reason by the solvents of solicitous adulation or flattery of untried or inconstant friends, or corrupt our conscience by mercenary consideration of financial profit at the peril of our national defense, or to the impairment of our righteous strength, to maintain, as against all aggressors those standards of morals, those principles of government for which our fathers died, and in which alone we may ourselves live in honorable peace.

Let us make pledge to each other, and to our fathers who may not hear our voices, that the Constitution that they have left to us, and that we have defended, shall remain inviolate. Let every citizen realize, that as it is an imperative duty on our part to prevent the intrusion into that compact, of provisions which are in manifest conflict with the elemental limitations and safeguards of the agreement between states and people and nation; so it is a more insistent duty upon us to remove, by lawfully ordained proceedings, an evil and harmful intrusion, if it has been proved to be detrimental to the public welfare, and to have brought infections into the very body of our laws, bringing with them physical and moral disaster to the Republic.

On this very calendar day, more than a century ago, conscious of the splendid realization of those fifty years of our national independence, there passed from the sight of their countrymen,—Thomas Jefferson, who had phrased the immortal avowals of a people's freedom, and John Adams, who had wrought that declaration into the vital frame work of a people's laws. As both these patriots had part in the birth of their nation, so both had been its guardians and patron saints during the first half century of its youth. Together, as they passed through the portals of the closing day, they turned in salutation and benediction to their countrymen, and committed to them the great trust which they had created. So, the day of the Declaration of Independence, and the day of their passing, are twice hallowed! Most illustrious day in the calendar of the centuries, which notes the history of American liberty!

You may hear at this very moment as we harken here, the majestic voice of Webster, as he spoke to the ages of the past, and to those which are to come, and to him to whose memory this anniversary is forever dedicated.

"And so that day shall be honored, illustrious prophet and patriot! So that day shall be honored, and as often as it returns, thy renown shall come along with it, and the glory of thy life, like the day of thy death, shall not fail from the remembrance of men."

We are all, in these present days, more than usually intelligent, interested, or at least industrious students of our New England history, either because of political conditions incident to passing anxieties due to the exigencies of our living economics, attributable to industrial and financial conditions and affairs, or to more remote and perhaps sentimental reflections, aroused or stimulated by the now almost universal discussion, even visible dramatic representations of the ancient days, reflected in what we have come to call this "Tercentenary Period."

Enlightened by such instruction, we may at once observe that the scheme of temporal government, brought here by Winthrop and his associates three hundred years ago, was not intended by them for the benefit of, or as an endowment for humanity, or for the world at large, but only for those of their own communion in religious faith, and to be always controlled by an electorate so strictly limited.

Now we know that the intolerant and intolerable restriction in their attempted establishment of a united and inseparable church and state, precluded the possibility of the survival, through such combination, of any true democracy, or of a republic such as we know today.

Yet the Puritan ideals, even formulations of a frame of temporal government, though by them to be confined to their own elect, have, in a wider field, survived, and remain the vital, animate forms of the elemental ordinances of our constitutional and legislative laws today. They have been adopted by, or are the aspiration of all the peoples of the earth, who have learned to know the benefit, and the security of that system of law, which has its origin and existence in constitutional foundations, established by the people themselves.

The changes, related to the Puritan fundamentals of government, wrought by time, and the events of our history, have been due, not to the abolition, or even cardinal modification of the structure of that government itself, but only to the extension and expansion of its benefits, through an unrestricted electorate, and an enfranchised citizenship, limited only by its acceptance of the duties and responsibilities of a citizenship of such equality.

In part, these changes, through which indeed our nation had its birth, were due to the influence, ever active in the spirit of individual independence, inherent in New England Puritanism, which would itself have ultimately redeemed the citizen from his ecclesiastic bondage. The Puritans themselves, and on their own initiative, sought to establish religious freedom as the basis of even their charter government, and, to that end, with other of their fellowship, their chief minister and prophet, Increase Mather, labored, finally with success, manifest in the Charter of William and Mary, which, after sixty years, supplanted that of Charles the First.

Yet, certain it is that even the more liberal thought of the later Puritans, or of their descendants in blood, or faith, or name, could not alone have established the now fixed, as we believe, ideals, spirit and genius of our American framework of constitutional government. Without the liberalizing, enlightening, helpful influence of those who have followed the Puritans overseas, to take up the burdens, and enjoy the benefits of liberty under the law, our Commonwealth could not have become, as it is today, lustrous example, admonition, and manifest refuge and sanctuary to all those, who, obedient to its requirements of citizenship, have come here to share in its obligations and in its gifts.

Those who in good faith seek the enjoyments of these blessings, themselves offering and giving irrevocable pledge of their allegiance to our institutions of government, are welcome indeed to the household of our own fellowship, as their virtuous and worthy forbears from foreign or alien lands once were and ever have been.

But the stern rigor of our laws, and the righteous and relentless spirit of our own people, shall forever exclude, or expel from among us, all those who may have come here with sinister purpose to deceive our hospitality, and to profane or destroy our roof trees or firesides, where we have given them shelter, or shielded them from adversity or oppression, or where unwittingly we have afforded them secret places for their treachery.

Be our citizens those of our most ancient faith, in blood, or lineage, or name, or of that not less honorable allegiance, though more recent pledge or service,—let us all live in the light of that duty we owe to the Commonwealth of our ancestors, of our own, and of our children.

"She that lifts up the manhood of the poor,
She of the open soul and open door,
With room about her hearth for all man-kind,
The helm from her bold front she may unbind,
Send all her handmaid armies back to spin,
And bid her navies hold their thunders in,
No challenge sends she to the elder world,
That looked askance and hated; a light scorn
Plays on her mouth, as round her mighty knees
She calls her children back, and waits the morn
Of nobler day, enthroned between her subject seas."

MAYOR GIVES $100 TO START FUND FOR THE FOUR HUNDREDTH OBSERVANCE OF FOUNDING OF CITY.

Following is a letter sent to Edmund L. Dolan, City Treasurer:

July 5, 1930.

MY DEAR MR. DOLAN,—I beg to inclose herewith my check, in the sum of a hundred dollars, which I am desirous shall be utilized as the nucleus of a fund for the Four Hundredth observance of the founding of the City of Boston.

I have discussed the question with Honorable Herbert Parker who, as orator at Faneuil Hall upon July Fourth, is entitled to an honorarium of one hundred dollars and he has agreed to contribute the amount due him so that the fund established with two hundred dollars may be known as the "Curley-Parker Fund."

It is our desire that this money be invested and reinvested and that the entire amount, which is estimated will be some twenty-six thousand dollars in the year 2030, be expended to defray the cost of a proper observance of the Four Hundredth Anniversary of Founders' Day.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MY DEAR MR. CURLEY.—Confirming our personal conversation of this afternoon relative to the "Minute Man Moral Persuasion Club or Constitution Supporter," which gave me great pleasure in presenting to you, the first cane made from the heart of this old historic elm tree which stood on the Lexington battle ground in front of the Buckman Tavern at the time when "first shot heard around the world" was fired.

Attached hereto, I am giving you the history regarding this cane, which I related to you verbally at the time of presentation, and which history, I feel sure, you will be interested to know.

Sincerely yours,

ROGER SHERMAN.

CONSTITUTION SUPPORTER, 1776.

This "Minute Man Moral Persuasion Club" was cut from the heart of the historic elm tree which stood on Lexington battle ground, within one hundred feet from where the "first shot" for American independence was fired.

The tree was recently cut down, and together with several others about the same age, were given to me by Mr. W. S. Scamman, Lexington Town Manager, for souvenirs. This cane was made by me therefrom.

STIMULATING WISE MUNICIPAL CONSTRUCTION.

The American people are initiating one of the most important governmental experiments ever tried on any considerable scale. For many years there have been suggestions that public projects could be made to constitute an important element of stabilization in times of economic depression. At the instance of President Hoover the states and cities of the country are about to cooperate with the Federal Government to prevent the stock market depression from spreading into business generally.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 37.

In the matter of the complaint of James McDevitt, deputy superintendent, commanding the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, against James J. Driscoll, patrolman of the same bureau, for violation of the rules and regulations of this department, to wit:

Charge 1: Conduct unbecoming an officer.

Specification 1: In that on the twentieth day of June, 1930, the said Patrolman James J. Driscoll, while off duty and not in uniform, was under the influence of intoxicating liquors to such an extent that he was unable to perform police work if called upon so to do.

Charge 2: Neglect of duty.

Specification 1: In that on the sixteenth day of June, 1930, the said Patrolman James J. Driscoll, did fail to report at the B. C. I. at 7.30 p. m. to perform his night on the street duty.

Specification 2: In that on the seventeenth day of June, 1930, the said Patrolman James J. Driscoll did fail to report at Police Division 15 at 9 a. m. to perform his tour of duty on Division 15.

Specification 3: In that on the eighteenth day of June, 1930, the said Patrolman James J. Driscoll did fail to report at the 9 a. m. roll call.

Specification 4: In that on the nineteenth day of June, 1930, the said Patrolman James J. Driscoll did fail to report at the 9 a. m. roll call.

Specification 5: In that on the twentieth day of June, 1930, the said Patrolman James J. Driscoll did fail to report at the 9 a. m. roll call,

The trial board submitted the following recommendation:

The Board, having heard and carefully considered all the evidence as presented by witnesses, finds the said Patrolman

James J. Driscoll guilty as charged, and believes that the previous good record and excellent work of Patrolman James J. Driscoll should be taken into consideration in the disposition of said charges, and, therefore, the Board respectfully recommends that Patrolman James J. Driscoll be suspended from duty for a period of thirty days, with loss of pay.

The Police Commissioner accepts the recommendation of the trial board and hereby orders that the said Patrolman James J. Driscoll be suspended from duty, said suspension to take effect as of Wednesday, July 2, 1930, at 5.45 o'clock p. m.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 38.

The Commissioner of Public Health of the City of Boston, in the exercise of the authority conferred on him by chapter 450, section 7, Acts of 1889, as amended by chapter 287, Acts of 1911, having made requisition for the transfer of Patrolman Thomas D. Gallagher of Division 20 to the service and direction of the Boston Health Department, the said Patrolman Gallagher is so transferred.

The name of Patrolman Thomas D. Gallagher will, therefore, be no longer carried on the roll of the Police Division 20 but will be carried as attached to the superintendent's office.

This order will take effect as of 7.45 o'clock a. m., Monday, July 7, 1930.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 39.

In the matter of the complaint made against Parker A. Coleman, patrolman, Division 10, for violation of the rules and regulations of this department, to wit:

Charge: Conduct unbecoming an officer.

Specification 1: In that on the second day of June, 1930, at about 2.40 p. m., the said Patrolman Parker A. Coleman while not on duty and in civilian clothes, did use harsh, violent, profane and obscene language to a female person, a citizen.

Specification 2: In that on the second day of June, 1930, the language used by said Patrolman Parker A. Coleman toward a respectable woman was an act contrary to good order and discipline, and, therefore, tended to bring into disrepute his associates on the force and the Police Department as a whole, the Commissioner after hearing the witnesses in the case, including the officer complained of, finds the said Patrolman Parker A. Coleman guilty as charged, and imposes on him punishment duty of seventy-five (75) hours.

People having business with the Police Department generally form their opinion of the entire department from their experience in dealing with one member of it. If that member treats the person with civility and courtesy, and impresses him with the policeman's knowledge of his duties, the whole force is benefited by the feeling of satisfaction which the citizen derives from that kind of treatment.

Members of the department must realize that the Police Force is not supported by the people of the city for the purpose of its dealing harshly and arbitrarily with the public, but for the efficient and courteous service it can render for law enforcement. The policy of the department in not bringing into court first offenders for minor infractions of the traffic law does not substitute for the penalty provided by law a coarse and profane harangue by a member of this department.

This summer particularly we shall have large numbers of tourists in the city. The sole contact of many of these visitors with the authorities of the city will be with some police officer, either in the way of requesting information or assistance, or due to some slight infraction of the traffic regulations. The opinion that the visitors will have of our city will in many cases be entirely decided by the treatment received from the single police officer with whom they may be brought in contact. The commissioner believes that the reputation of the force as a whole is excellent for courtesy and politeness, but reports of exceptions are sufficient to make it necessary to call this matter to the attention of superior officers as well as the rank and file of the department.

Every member of the department must observe that when he has occasion to converse with the Police Commissioner he does not use harsh, coarse, violent or profane language, or assume a dictatorial manner. If he will converse with strangers and other citizens in the same manner that he does with the commissioner, there will not only be no danger of causing offence, but he will bring credit not only to the department but also to the City of Boston.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 40.

In the future, investigators of the Law Department will interview officers at their respective divisions concerning highway accidents. The division commander will be notified beforehand of the time of the investigator's visit, and of the names of the officers to be interviewed. This practice is undertaken with a view to speeding up investigations of cases, also to spare officers leaving their divisions for long periods of time. All officers of the department shall co-operate with the Law Department in carrying out this order.

In accident cases against the city due to alleged defective highways, it is essential that the testimony of disinterested witnesses be procured as to the condition of the highway at the time of the accident and prior thereto. Instead of calling upon transients at the time of investigation, the officer should secure the statements of owners or occupants of the abutting premises or premises close by, whom he knows to be substantial and reliable citizens. This phase of the investigation of city cases is of great importance to the city. All officers of the department are instructed to obtain these statements in the manner described above.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 41.

The commanding officer of Division 15, Capt. William W. Livingston, reports the following commendable police work:

On July 4, 1930, at 7.18 p. m., for a fire on property 141-153 Medford street, Charlestown district, an alarm was sounded which was followed within thirty minutes by a third, fourth and fifth, and by an alarm from another box.

The fury and extent of this conflagration is familiar to us all. The buildings in the vicinity, many of them old, of wooden construction and housing a congested tenement district of thousands of inhabitants, would have been consumed by the fire had there been greater velocity of the wind.

For the prompt, tactful and helpful assistance rendered at the fire by Patrolman Arthur T. Prescott of Division 20 (who was on a "day off"), by Patrolman Joseph H. Tierney of Division 20 (who was "off duty"), and by Patrolman John F. Meehan of Division 1 (who was on vacation), commendation is extended by the commissioner and each of these three officers granted an additional day's vacation.

For the services rendered on this occasion of great peril the commissioner is happy to commend also:

(1) The officers detailed at the fire from Division 15, Charlestown district, and the various police divisions throughout the department, who worked willingly and handled with tact and judgment the large crowds of people under circumstances most difficult.

(2) The officers from Division 8 (the Harbor Police) on the police boat "Watchman," in charge of Sergt. Carleton B. Perry and manned by Patrolmen Francis S. Duffin, Glennie E. Kimbrell, Aubrey B. Cayting and James W. Broderick, all of whom did good work on the waterfront, keeping small boats and persons from interfering with the efforts of the Boston Fire Department crafts.

(3) Mounted officers, Patrolman William H. Delay and Thomas M. Kirwan, detailed from Division 16, who rendered excellent assistance in holding the crowds in check without an accident.

(4) Officers from the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, detailed at that place, and under the command of Sergt. Justin McCarthy, who assisted in every way possible for the protection of lives and property, viz., Patrolmen Francis J. O'Connor, Harry T. Kershaw, John J. McDonald, Gerald F. Ahern, Michael J. Dennehy, Joseph D. McGillivray, Henry A. Donovan, Edward L. Kirby and Daniel J. McDonald.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

The following communication was received from Count Hirotaro Hayashi, President of the Japanese Education Association:

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I have heard of a tercentenary of your city from the party of Japanese Education Associations last November and from Mr. George W. Tupper, Secretary of the Japan Society of Boston. I made Mr. E. Noguchi, the Chief Director of Japanese Education Association send three hundred cherry trees, congratulating the 1930 celebration of your city. I am much pleased to hear that you received them willingly, making the Japanese envoys plant the first of the trees upon the shores of Jamaica Pond. I am pleased very much also to read your address in honor of the Japanese envoys.

We are waiting the day when they will bloom successfully and be pointed out as one of the show places in your country, as the cherry trees on West Potomac Park in Washington, D. C., are. I am much expecting that both of us will do our best to promote friendly relations between the United States of America and Japan.

Very sincerely yours,

COUNT HIROTARO HAYASHI.

AUTOMOBILE FATALITIES.

Automobile fatalities for the months of January and February of this year, as compared with last year, decreased considerably in the cities and increased considerably in the towns and country, as indicated by the Nation-wide reports received by the National Safety Council.

These reports show that the cities had six per cent fewer automobile deaths this year than last year; 61 of the 90 cities that reported showed declines, or no changes at all, as compared with a year ago. But the state-wide reports received during the same period showed an increase of 11 per cent in fatal automobile accidents. In the total, there were an estimated 4,240 motor vehicle deaths during January and February of this year, as compared with 4,220 such fatalities during the same two months of last year.

CHANGING STREET NAMES.

Alteration in the names of streets seems to be on the increase in the United States. In most cases the reasons for it are inadequate, while changes that would actually make for clearness remain unmade. The reason for change would usually seem to be general patriotism, national or local, as where the name of some prominent person is given to a street. During the war German names were largely discarded, as where Berlin avenue in St. Louis became Pershing avenue. In the height of President Wilson's popularity abroad, Wilson avenues sprang up all over the allied countries. Later, disappointment or dissatisfaction caused many of these to be changed again.

TRAFFIC CONDITIONS, FLOOD SQUARE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 30, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Hon. Joseph A. Conry, Traffic Commissioner, regarding traffic conditions at Flood square, Ward 6. This is in reply to your order of June 2, 1930.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, Jun 23, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of a request from the City Clerk regarding a City Council order, as follows:

"Ordered, That the Boston Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide for such traffic regulation at Flood square, Ward 6, as will relieve the present dangerous situation at this point."

In reply the engineer of this department has recommended that Emerson street be made one way from Broadway to K street and that suitable warning signs be placed on Broadway east and west of I street. The matter of making Emerson street a one-way street will be taken up for formal action in the general revision of the rules and regulations now under consideration by the Traffic Commission.

Respectfully yours,
JOSEPH A. CONRY, Commissioner.

Placed on file.

VETO OF ANNUITY TO WIDOW OF EDWARD J. LENNON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 25, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my signature, the order passed by your honorable body for the payment of an annuity to the widow of Edward J. Lennon, late a member of the Police Department. The law provides for the payment of such annuities only in cases where the death is the natural and proximate result of an accident occurring in the performance of duty.

I have given careful consideration to the reports which were submitted to and in the possession of the City Council in regard to this particular case, and have been unable to find anything to bring it within this provision of law.

The passage of an annuity order of this kind may be due to an honest difference of opinion as to whether or not the facts bring it within the law; or it may be due to neglect to consider the information submitted by the department concerned, or it may be due to a reliance on the fact that the chief executive, in the performance of his duty, will be obliged to veto it.

However, the Council, as well as the Mayor, owes a duty and responsibility to the taxpayers, and, while I would not presume to interfere in any way in the conduct of the business of the Council, the suggestion may be pardoned that it is perfectly feasible in cases of this kind to obtain the attendance of the Corporation Counsel and have a full discussion of the facts and the law before taking action on the annuity order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATION FOR CONGRESS STREET BRIDGE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 30, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Public Works, in which he requests that an additional appropriation of $4,327.05 be made available for Congress Street Bridge. I submit herewith an order providing for the transfer of the amount requested from the appropriation for Columbus Avenue Bridge. I respectfully recommend adoption of this order by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, June 24, 1930.
To the Honorable the Mayor.

It will be necessary to provide some more money for the appropriation for Congress Street Bridge, as the funds are nearly all encumbered by contracts and other expenses such as bills for testing and inspection of materials, etc.

I respectfully request that a transfer be made as follows:
From the balance of the loan appropriation for Columbus Avenue Bridge, $4,327.05, to the appropriation for Congress Street Bridge, $4,327.05.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN E. CARTY,
Division Engineer.

Approved.

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893, the City Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Columbus Avenue Bridge, $4,327.05, to the appropriation for Congress Street Bridge, $4,327.05.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATION FOR NEW FERRYBOAT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 30, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Public Works, in which he requests that an additional appropriation of $2,500 be made available for the necessary gates for the new ferryboat. I submit herewith an order providing for the transfer from the appropriation for Ferry Improvements, etc., the sum of $2,500 to the appropriation for new ferryboat in accordance with this request and respectfully recommend adoption of this order by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, June 24, 1930.
To the Honorable the Mayor.

In order to build the necessary gates for the new ferryboat it will be necessary to make a transfer to the appropriation for new ferryboat in the amount of $2,500, as the funds are not sufficient in the appropriation for the new boat to provide for this work.

This amount can be taken from the item of Ferry Improvements, etc., and the transfer should read as follows:

From the appropriation for Ferry Improvements, etc., $2,500, to the appropriation for New Ferryboat, $2,500.

I respectfully recommend that the above transfer be made.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN E. CARTY,
Division Engineer.

Approved.

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893, the City Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Ferry Improvements, etc., $2,500, to the appropriation for New Ferryboat, $2,500.

Referred to Executive Committee.

SALE OF LAND IN HYDE PARK.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 26, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—In consequence of the annexation of Hyde Park the City of Boston became the owner of a parcel of land on Fairmount Hill, partly in Boston and partly in Milton, which was formerly used as a part of the Hyde Park water-works. It is a liability rather than an asset, and under private ownership it might well be developed for residential purposes.

I transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner of Public Works stating that the land is not required for public purposes, and an order authorizing its sale at public auction at an upset price of $8,300, which is the assessed value and the amount recommended for an upset price by Mr. John Beck, real estate appraiser, in a report submitted to me.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, May 17, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The parcel of land now owned by the City of Boston and in the charge of this department, located on Fairmount Hill, Hyde Park, known as the old reservoir lot, and on which there was a standpipe which was removed during our last term, is in my opinion no longer required for public purposes.

The City of Boston at present pays taxes on a portion of this land which is in the town of Milton, and in my opinion it would be advisable to sell the property.

Yours very truly,
JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to sell at public auction at an upset price of eight thousand three hundred dollars all its rights, title and interest in and to a parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated partly in Hyde Park and partly in Milton in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, on the north-easterly side of a proposed extension of Milton avenue, containing about 194,660 square feet of land; included in said sale and for the same consideration, in so far as the city is legally able so to do, to sell the right and easement to pass and repass over the said proposed extension of Milton avenue, to and from the said above-described premises in all ways and for all purposes for which passageways are ordinarily used in the City of Boston, the said right and easement to terminate when and if the said proposed extension of Milton avenue is laid out, constructed and accepted by the said City of Boston as a public street by the said City of Boston; and to execute and deliver in the name and behalf of the City of Boston a deed of the said premises and rights to the purchaser in form satisfactory to the Law Department of the said City of Boston.

Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

CUSTODY OF REAL ESTATE IN WOBURN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 30, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to submit herewith order drafted by the Corporation Counsel, providing for acceptance by the City of Boston of certain real estate located in the city of Woburn and in the town of Burlington, which said property was devised to the City of Boston in trust,

"to hold and keep the same forever open as a public pleasure ground and to maintain and care for the same in a suitable manner in accordance with that purpose."

It has been customary in Boston for many years to conduct outings for children under the provisions of the Randighe Excursion Fund at Rainsford Island and at Long Island. The means of transportation that has been used in the past has been the steamer in use by the Penal Institutions Department for the conveying of prisoners from the mainland to Deer Island. The method of conveyance never has been conducive to the moral welfare of the children and the entire atmosphere has been depressing and other than what it should be.

In the event that this benefaction is accepted and the property in question, consisting of in excess of some two hundred acres, is suitably developed, it should make possible an ideal summer outing playground for the poor children of the city.

I accordingly recommend the acceptance of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Whereas, Mary P. C. Cummings of Woburn died December 23, 1927, leaving a will which was allowed by the Probate Court of the County of Middlesex on January 18, 1928; and

Whereas, Under the fourth clause of said will certain real estate in the city of Woburn and in the town of Burlington was devised to the City of Boston in trust,

"to hold and keep the same forever open as a public pleasure ground and to maintain and care for the same in a suitable manner in accordance with that purpose"; and

Whereas, The City of Boston by an order of the City Council approved by the Mayor of Boston, on April 8, 1930, accepted the bequest and devise made by the said Mary P. C. Cummings to the said City of Boston under said will according to the terms set forth in said will; and

Whereas, The Park Department of the City of Boston is the proper agency to care for pleasure grounds belonging to the said City of Boston; Now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the said property and estate bequeathed and devised to the said City of Boston under said will of the said Mary P. C. Cummings be and they hereby are placed in the control and custody of the Board of Park Commissioners of the said City of Boston to be managed, cared for and controlled by said Board of Park Commissioners in accordance with the terms of the will of the said Mary P. C. Cummings.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

COMPLETION OF MORTON STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 30, 1930.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to the completion of Morton street and recommend the passage of the accompanying order transferring the sum of $25,000 from special fund, sales of city property, for this purpose.

I appreciate the long delay that has taken place in the completion of this street and feel certain that the immediate passage of this appropriation order will be the final action necessary on this much needed improvement. The reason action has not sooner been taken was that it was deemed advisable to complete the street so far as possible by the use of the funds provided under the special act of the Legislature and until the city authorities could determine how much balance remained from that appropriation it was not possible to determine how much additional money was needed.

We have preferred to take the additional $25,000 from a special appropriation rather than by letting out the remainder of the street under the general highway act which would make two sets of assessment orders and involve other complications.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, June 30, 1930.
To His Honor the Mayor.

In 1925 the Legislature authorized the expenditure of $325,000 outside the debt limit, to which was added a sum equal to 10 per cent of that amount from the tax levy, making a total of $357,500 to be spent for the widening and construction of Morton street from Morton road to Washington street and also including the widening and construction of Washington street from that point to a point about opposite River street.

Under this authorization, late in 1925 a contract was awarded for the section between Morton road and Canterbury street, which was completed early in 1926, and a contract was awarded last year, and finished this year, for the widening and construction between Druid and Washington streets, at the easterly end, and a short spur was constructed at the westerly end from the Southern Artery.

Between Druid street and the end of this spur remains to be done, in order that Morton street may be completed, and it is estimated that in addition to the balance on hand of the original authorization, $25,000 will have to be made available, to be obtained as a loan inside the debt limit or by transfer from other available money, for the Morton Street Improvement.

Yours respectfully,
JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That the sum of $25,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated from Special Fund, Sales of City Property, for Morton Street, Improvement.
Referred to the Executive Committee.

PLAYGROUND, NORTH END.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 30, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Various civic organizations interested in the conservation of the health and lives of the children of the city are unanimous in the opinion that certain property should be taken in the North End of Boston, in the vicinity of Foster street and Commercial street, a plan of which is hereby appended.

I informed the committee that waited upon me that if the owners of the property were willing to convey the same to the city for a sum not in excess of the assessed valuation that I would recommend to the City Council the adoption of an order providing for appropriation in a sum sufficient to cover the cost of said taking. This has been done by the owners and I accordingly recommend the adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $7,500 be, and hereby is, appropriated from Special Fund, Sales of City Property, for Playground, North End District, Vicinity of Foster Place and Foster Court.

I accordingly submit herewith an order providing for the appropriation of this amount from the Reserve Fund and respectfully recommend the adoption of same by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $5,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated to be expended by the Board of Park Commissioners for recreation purposes, by the transporting of children from the various parts of the city to certain recreational centers within and without the limits of the city, and for other incidental expenses in connection therewith, said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES.

Coun. GREEN, for the Committee on Ordinances, submitted the following:

1. Report on ordinance (referred April 14) relative to park frontages—that same ought to pass.

Coun. HEIN—Mr. President, I would like to ask, through the Chair, when the Ordinances Committee met. Being on that committee, I had no notice of it.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, I might say that we have had four or five meetings, and we had this matter up at every meeting. There has been no opposition to the proposed amendment of the ordinance at any time. But, on account of the adjournment of the City Council, I had to wait, and I have now introduced the report at this time.

President LYNCH—The Chair would also volunteer the information that this ordinance has passed the City Council on two occasions, but has not received the signature of his Honor the Mayor.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, I rise to a point of information. What does the ordinance involve?

President LYNCH—Lifting of restrictions on a portion of Columbia road. On the opposite side the restrictions were removed in 1925.

Coun. MURRAY—What ward of the city is it?

President LYNCH—Ward 7.

The report was accepted and the ordinance passed.

PLAN FOR NORTH END BATHING BEACH AND PARK.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following:
Ordered, That the Park Commissioners, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to furnish the City Council, at the earliest possible date, with a plan for the proper development for a bathing beach and park of the land in the vicinity of Leverett and Nashua streets conveyed to the city by the Commonwealth in connection with the Charles River Embankment Improvement, together with an estimate of the cost of the same.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, my purpose in introducing that order is that some quick action may be brought about in the matter of this development. On February 7 an order was sent to the City Council by his Honor the Mayor relative to the conveyance of this land from the state to the City of Boston for the sum of $25,000, and it has been hanging fire until last Thursday afternoon. But the papers have finally been placed on record and the City of Boston has paid over to the state the $25,000. I desire at this time to ask a suspension of the rule and the passage of the order, so that the proper authorities who now have the matter in hand may rush it to a final conclusion. The people of that section, both in the ward that I represent and the ward represented by Councilor Curtis, will be greatly benefited by prompt action. With the proposed Charles river improvement there will necessarily be some curtailment of opportunity to use a good deal of the river front, while the present proposed improvement there is in course of construction. This is on the opposite side of Leverett street, and if action is taken at once the people can have a small space for breathing purposes. The City of Boston has made a good bargain with the state. It means that 50,000 square feet of land on the land side and 30,000 square feet on the water side, or 80,000 square feet of land in all, is purchased by the city for $25,000, land that, in my opinion, is worth $250,000. I certainly hope that the Park Commissioners and the Mayor will push this thing to a rapid conclusion. I ask a suspension of the rule.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

CONFIRMATION OF CONSTABLES.

On motion of Coun. WILSON, the Council took up the following names of constables, under unfinished business:

SALARY OF CHIEF PROBATION OFFICER.

Coun. FITZGERALD, for the Committee on County Accounts, to whom was referred June 23, 1930, a communication from the Chief Justice of the Municipal Court of the City of Boston, establishing the salary of the chief probation officer of said Court, submitted report, recommending passage of the accompanying order, viz.:

Ordered, That the salary of the chief probation officer for the Municipal Court of the City of Boston, as determined by the Chief Justice of said Court, viz., Albert J. Sargent, chief probation officer, $6,000 per annum, effective July 1, 1930, be, and the same is, hereby approved.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, that is an order sent in by the Chief Justice of the Boston Municipal Court, who has authority to do so under chapter 276 of the General Laws. The proposed increase is $400, which will bring the salary to $6,000. This is the largest court we have in the Commonwealth, taking in practically the entire city proper, and this officer has a large force under him, the largest under any probation officer. It is entirely different from the situation in the local district courts. As I say, this order has now been sent down by Chief Justice Bolster, was referred to the Committee on County Accounts, and we recommend its passage.

Report accepted; said order passed.

SIDEWALK ON WAVERLY STREET.

Coun. GALLAGHER offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Waverly street, both sides, from Market street to Western avenue, Ward 22, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

TRAFFIC REGULATION.

Coun. CURTIS offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider, and, if deemed advisable, to adopt, a traffic regulation substantially as follows:

No person having charge of a vehicle shall stop the same when obstructed by traffic in such a manner as unnecessarily to obstruct traffic on a cross-street; but it shall be the duty of such person on approaching a cross-street not to proceed across such street until he is reasonably sure that the condition of traffic ahead of him is such that it will not be necessary for him to stop on the crossing.

Coun. CURTIS—Mr. President, this is simply an order requesting the Traffic Commissioner to give consideration to this matter. It seems to me if there is one source of obstruction of traffic in our streets which is entirely unnecessary and inexcusable, it is that caused by the stopping of vehicles in the path of pedestrians at cross streets where there is a traffic block ahead. When there is such a block, drivers behind, instead of keeping free the passageway for pedestrians drive right up behind the block, thereby preventing the passage of pedestrians along the intersecting street. I know that this occurs very frequently in Ward 5, as it does, of course, all over the city. People coming down or going up Mt. Vernon street, for example, are held up when there is a traffic block on Charles street, and the same is true on Beacon and other streets. This is merely a request to give the matter consideration and if advisable issue an order that it shall be the duty of drivers in such cases, where there is a block in traffic ahead, not to stop on a crossing, thereby blocking traffic along the intersecting streets. I was going to suggest that we pass an ordinance to that effect, but the clerk tells me that under the 1929 act the matter is under the control of the Traffic Commission. So this is merely a request that they take up the matter. I move a suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAVING OF TOWNSEND STREET.

Coun. BUSH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave Townsend street, Ward 12, with smooth paving.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to investigate and report to the City Council the advisability of providing increased fire protection for the Metropolitan Hill section of Ward 18.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. NORTON, at 3.48 p. m., to meet on Monday, July 7, 1930, at 2 p. m.

PITTSFIELD FIRST CITY TO ADOPT WELDING SOCIETY BUILDING CODE.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

The following communication was received:

THE FINANCE COMMISSION OF THE
CITY OF BOSTON

June 5, 1930.

Hon. Joseph J. Hurley,
Chairman of the School Committee,
Boston, Mass.

Dear sir:

The Finance Commission has organized a committee of three to conduct an investigation of school administration, to consist of the following:

William D. Parkinson, Fitchburg
Renton Whidden, Brookline
Matthew Sullivan, Canton

The Finance Commission considers itself fortunate in being able to obtain the services of these three men who make up a well-balanced board of inquiry consisting, as it does, of an educator of note, a prominent builder, and a well-known architect.

Mr. Parkinson is a distinguished educator. He is a graduate of Dartmouth and for six years served on its Alumni Council. For many years he was well-known as a teacher and subsequently served several communities as superintendent of schools, the most noteworthy being the City of Waltham; later, became agent of the State Board of Education in charge of vocational teacher training; and served later as the principal of the State Normal School at Fitchburg. He has been known for many years as an authority on educational matters, particularly with reference to teacher training and vocational education. He is an ex-president of the New England Association of School Superintendents, president of the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents, and the New England Teacher Training Association. He is particularly well-qualified for the work in hand because of his recognized independence of thought and expression.

Mr. Whidden has for many years been prominent in real estate circles. He was, also, for many years identified with one of the largest building construction companies in the City which, in addition to other large operations, constructed a number of school buildings. In the last ten years he has represented Brookline in the Massachusetts House of Representatives, and his experience on the important Ways and Means Committee and the Committee on Municipal Finance qualify him particularly for a study of school expenditures.

The third member, Mr. Sullivan, is an architect of wide experience in school planning. He was at one time City Architect in charge of school buildings, later became connected with Maginnis & Walsh, and now for several years has maintained offices under his own name in Boston, during which time he has planned a large number of school and other institutional buildings throughout New England.

This study is being made because of the tremendous increase in school appropriations during recent years. It is hoped that it will be accepted in a spirit of cooperation by the school authorities in order that it may be determined, if possible, whether or not the cost of education in the City of Boston may be materially reduced without affecting the high standing Boston has always enjoyed in the educational world.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) Frank A. Goodwin,
Chairman

The Chairman stated that the Chairman, for the Committee, and the Superintendent have both issued statements of the Committee's willingness and desire to cooperate to the fullest extent with this Investigating Committee.

The communication from the Finance Commission was therefore placed on file.

INSTALLATION OF DANGER SIGNALS IN VICINITY OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS

The following communication was received:

BOSTON TRAFFIC COMMISSION

May 20, 1930

Joseph J. Hurley, Chairman
Boston School Committee,
15 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I have received a great many requests from school masters and parents asking that this department install signal lights, warning signs, danger signals and so forth in the immediate neighborhood of school buildings. The department has always eagerly complied with requests for signs. In the matter of installing signal lights this becomes the subject of serious importance, inasmuch as the installation of one of those intersecting signals represents an expenditure of about forty-five hundred dollars.

His Honor, the Mayor, has authorized me to take up with the proper officials of the School Committee the matter of bearing the expense of installing these signals, cautionary signs and so forth in the neighborhood of school buildings. This expenditure appears to be a proper charge on the appropriation of the School Committee and I respectfully invite your cooperation in connection with working out the project.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Joseph A. Conry,
Commissioner

The Chairman stated that upon receipt of Mr. Conry's communication, he instructed the Secretary to obtain an opinion from the Corporation Counsel as to the authority of the School Committee to make expenditures out of school funds for the installation of signal lights, warning signs, danger signals, etc., in the immediate neighborhood of school buildings.

The opinion of the Corporation Counsel is contained in the following communication:

LAW DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

June 10, 1930.

Ellen M. Cronin, Secretary,
The School Committee of the City of Boston,
15 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Dear Miss Cronin:—

The School Committee has asked to be advised what authority it has to make expenditures for the installation of signal lights, warning signs, danger signals, etc., in the immediate neighborhood of school buildings.

The power of the School Committee to make appropriations is specifically set forth in the various statutes authorizing such appropriations to be made. See c 206 of the Special Acts of 1919 and various amendments to that act. These purposes are itemized in the statutes. I cannot find any authorization for the expenditure proposed in your communication to me. It can hardly be said that the installation of signal lights, etc., in the highways of the city is included within the provisions of law authorizing appropriations to be made by the School Committee "for general school purposes." It is true that the installation of these signal lights may be in the interest of pupils who attend schools in that it affords safety to them. Nevertheless the connection between the safety of the pupils and the general purposes for which the schools are conducted is too remote to permit of the interpretation of the law that an expenditure for the installation of these traffic signals in the highways is for school purposes, especially since these traffic signals will be for the benefit of all who use the highway and not for the exclusive use of school children. The installation of these signals clearly is in connection with the regulation of traffic, and in my opinion cannot be made chargeable to any school appropriation.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Samuel Silverman
Corporation Counsel

The communications were placed on file and a copy of the ruling of the Corporation Counsel ordered transmitted to the Traffic Commissioner for his information.

Special: Cookery, Valid in Day Elementary and Day Intermediate Schools, in accordance with the provisions of Section 274, paragraph 2 (a):

REPORT ON ATTENDANCE AT CONVENTION

A communication was received from the Business Manager, under date of June 7, 1930, submitting, in compliance with the provisions of Section 3 of Chapter 274 of the Acts of 1914, report on his attendance at the Annual Convention of the National Association of Public School Business Officials held at New Orleans, May 20 to 23, 1930, inclusive.

EXPENDITURES TO JUNE 1, 1930

A communication was received from the Business Manager submitting a statement showing the expenditures for maintenance of the public schools for the first five drafts of the current financial year, the expenditures for the first five drafts of the financial year 1929, and the increases and decreases in the several items.

Placed on file.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO CUSTODIAN

A communication was received from the Schoolhouse Custodian, under date of June 16, 1930, recommending that leave of absence on one-half net compensation be granted Frank J. Christie, custodian, Curtis Guild Schoolhouse, for the period May 25 to June 14, 1930, inclusive, because of personal illness.

Placed on file and leave of absence granted for the period specified.

The Chairman then called for discussion on various items which have come before the Committee and which it has been agreed shall be discussed in public meeting, rather than in Conference.

Discussion then ensued on items submitted, as follows:

ACCOMMODATIONS IN NEW BRIGHTON INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL AND PROPOSED COMBINATION GYMNASIUM AND ASSEMBLY HALL.

The Superintendent stated that it is proposed in this new intermediate school building to establish a new standard size class room, 30 by 22 feet, five rows of seats, seven seats in a row, which is a smaller class room than the standard which has been in effect and will reduce the cubical contents of the building, and, of necessity, reduce the cost of construction.

The question of the combination hall and gymnasium versus the separate hall and gymnasium has been considered in all its different aspects. The combination hall and gymnasium has not given satisfaction where it has been tried. There is conflict of time for use for the separate activities and a great amount of moving of furniture is required. Then there must be place for storage of furniture. When the combination hall-gymnasium is used for community purposes, additional expense is involved because of moving of furniture. In the Public Latin School of this city there is a gymnasium in the basement, and a hall of substantial size on the floor above. After visiting both types of construction—the combination hall and gymnasium, and the separate hall and gymnasium, the Board of Apportionment, the Superintendent of Construction, and the Superintendent of Schools are of the opinion that the Public Latin School arrangement is preferable.

The Superintendent quoted from a communication from the Superintendent of Construction, addressed to the Superintendent under date of June 10, 1930, in which Mr. Rourke reports that in his opinion if the gymnasium and assembly hall are to be used efficiently, they should be separate and distinct. His idea is to construct the gymnasium in the basement, thus occupying space that is frequently unused, and directly above this gymnasium place the assembly hall; the arrangement to be similar to that which now exists in the Public Latin School.

The Superintendent recommended the separate hall and gymnasium as outlined above.

The recommendation was accepted by unanimous vote as the policy for new intermediate school buildings.

TEMPORARY ABANDONMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS

The Superintendent reported that by rearrangement of classes it has been found possible to temporarily abandon the following-named school buildings, beginning in September, 1930: Auburn School, Thomas Gardner School Annex, Washington Allston School Annex, High School of Practical Arts Annex (Winthrop Street School).

The Department of School Buildings has been asked to board up the buildings to protect them against damage.

On question, the Superintendent explained that the opening of the new intermediate school in the old Brighton high school building has made it possible to release the Auburn School, a four-room building, and the Thomas Gardner and Washington Allston Annexes, which are old buildings and not now desirable for school use.

Question was asked as to possible use, for example, as a branch library. The Superintendent felt that before releasing any building for such purpose, a careful study as to possible future needs should be made.

On question as to possible use for schools of special types which may be established at some future time, namely, schools for crippled children, children mentally defective, etc., the Superintendent thought that for such purposes buildings more centrally located would be desirable.

The report of the Superintendent of the abandonment of the four buildings above referred to was accepted.

ABANDONMENT OF PORTABLES

The Superintendent reported a list of fifty-five portables scattered throughout the city which are to be actually abandoned at the close of the current school year.

On question from the Chairman, the Superintendent stated that the abandonment of these fifty-five portables is not the result of the contemplated building program for this year. The portables are now available for demolition and the Superintendent of Construction has been so informed. It is probable that eighty or more additional portables may be abandoned as the result of the building program now proposed and for which appropriation is about to be made. In addition to the fifty-five portables now to be abandoned, fourteen portables which will not be required in their present locations are to be removed to other sections of the city to meet temporary needs. At the close of the current school year, there will be a reduction of approximately twenty-five per cent in the number of portables in actual use.

The Chairman stated the expectation of the School Committee that with the completion of the building program which is to be undertaken this year, a reduction in the number of portables to the extent of approximately one hundred fifty will be accomplished, out of a total of two hundred twenty.

The report of the Superintendent was accepted.

CIRCULAR RE ECONOMY IN EXPENDITURES

On Mr. Reilly's motion, the Secretary was instructed to send to Principals of Schools and Districts, Directors and Supervisors and all executive heads, the following announcement:

"The School Committee asks that principals, directors and others who are responsible for requisitions for supplies and incidentals required for school use, or for office administration, curtail expenses this year to such extent as will result in a ten per cent (10%) saving for the current financial year, on the basis of last year's expenditures.

"The Committee believes that with the whole-hearted support of the service, it will be possible to effect this saving without in any way impairing the effectiveness of the schools."

PURCHASE OF ATHLETIC WEARING APPAREL

On question from the Chairman, the Business Manager stated that the Legislature has taken unfavorable action on the petition of the School Committee for authority to purchase athletic wearing apparel. It now appears that the balance of some five thousand dollars ($5,000) from the income of the games at Braves Field on Thanksgiving Day must be deposited with the City Collector and reported as part of the income of the School Committee. As a result, there will be no money available for the purchase of uniforms in the fall.

On Mr. Reilly's motion, the Board of Superintendents, with the Business Manager, was asked to give further consideration to the whole question of providing for the purchase of athletic wearing apparel and make report before the Committee adjourns for the summer. The Secretary was directed to ask the Corporation Counsel to cooperate with the School Committee in its endeavor to work out a satisfactory solution of the difficulties in which the School Committee now finds itself.

PETITION FOR SALARY ADJUSTMENT

The Chairman reported the receipt of a petition for salary adjustment from division heads and trade instructors of the Boston Trade School, and stated that this is one of a number of petitions which have come to the Committee since the first of the year and that it will be referred to the Board of Apportionment in accordance with custom.

The petition was so referred.

ADMISSION TO THE TEACHERS COLLEGE OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

The Superintendent recommended that for this year admissions to The Teachers College be limited to two hundred.

Discussion followed, in the course of which the Superintendent stated that for some time the Board of Superintendents has been strongly of the opinion that admissions to the College should be limited in number. Admissions are based on the results of examinations and are on a competitive basis. The limitation as to number was based on the result of a study of the number of annual appointments to the elementary schools extending over several years. The extension of courses in The Teachers College has made possible an output of teachers qualified for all grades from the kindergarten through the high schools; nevertheless it seems inadvisable to admit to the College a materially greater number than can be absorbed into the system.

The admission of numbers far beyond the possible number of appointments is holding out false hopes to the young women and their parents and is bound to result in disappointment in the years to come. Within a few years, graduates of The Teachers College will compete for appointment through the medium of examination, with those who come from other sources. The admission of numbers far beyond the possible number of appointments is not justifiable, either educationally or financially.

Discussion then followed as to the advisability of admitting beyond the possible number of appointments; also as to the advisability of establishing a percentage basis for admission, and limiting admissions to those who attain the established standard, even though the number shall be less than the two hundred recommended by the Superintendent.

The Chairman called attention to the fact that at the present time there are more than six hundred teachers, including the 1930 graduates of The Teachers College, eligible for appointment to the elementary schools, with little likelihood, under present conditions, of more than one hundred appointments annually.

On question as to the purpose of The Teachers College, the Superintendent stated that the purpose originally was to train teachers primarily for Boston schools, not to provide a woman's college for general training.

Question came on the adoption of the recommendation of the Superintendent, namely that admission to The Teachers College in September next be limited to not more than two hundred candidates, who shall pass the admission examinations satisfactorily to the Board of Superintendents.

Mr. Gray offered as a substitute motion:

That the Board of Superintendents establish a passing mark and report the same at the next meeting of the School Committee; and that the September admissions be limited to those who meet that standard, but in any event not more than one hundred and fifty.

Question came on the passage of Mr. Gray's substitute motion.

The motion was lost, Mr. Gray and Mr. Hurley voting in the affirmative; Dr. Lyons, Mrs. Pigeon and Mr. Reilly in the negative. Mr. Reilly stated that he is in favor of the first part of Mr. Gray's motion.

Mr. Reilly offered the following:

That the Board of Superintendents is hereby requested to determine the passing mark for admission to The Teachers College, and report the same at the next meeting of the School Committee.

The motion passed, Mr. Gray, Mrs. Pigeon, Mr. Reilly and Mr. Hurley voting in the affirmative; Dr. Lyons in the negative.

Dr. Lyons offered the following:

That the recommendation of the Superintendent—that for this year admissions to The Teachers College in September be limited to not more than 200, subject to the meeting of the standards for admission which shall be established by the Board of Superintendents,—be adopted.

The motion passed, Dr. Lyons, Mrs. Pigeon and Mr. Reilly voting in the affirmative; Mr. Gray and Mr. Hurley in the negative.

The Chairman stated that he is in favor of meeting the present situation, admitting not more than 150.

Mr. Reilly stated that at the recent examinations for admissions to The Teachers College, candidates were informed by the Board of Examiners, on behalf of the Board of Superintendents, that there is and can be no guarantee that those who are admitted and who satisfactorily complete the course, will later be appointed to positions in the Boston schools.

On motion, it was VOTED, That with the notification to successful candidates for admission to The Teachers College on the results of the examinations of June, 1930, there shall be sent a statement which shall set forth the present situation and point out for the benefit of pupils and parents, that there can be no promise of employment upon graduation, in order that throughout the course in The Teachers College pupils and parents may be fully aware of the situation and be guided accordingly in their activities.

PETITION FOR ADDITIONAL ACCOMMODATIONS

A committee of parents of children living in the Temple Street, West Roxbury, neighborhood, representing the Brook Farm Civic Association, came before the Committee to ask for the establishment in September next of a fourth grade and a kindergarten in that immediate neighborhood, and submitting a list of children numbering some seventy-five who would attend such a kindergarten if available.

The Chairman stated that he has asked the Assistant Superintendent in charge of the district, Mr. Arthur L. Gould, to look into the situation and report to the Committee at an early date, first, on the subject of the fourth-grade portable; and, secondly, on the possibility of kindergarten accommodations. The answer on provision for the fourth grade is included in the Superintendent's report on portables which indicates that a portable is to be moved to the Temple Street neighborhood for occupancy by a fourth grade in September. The report on kindergarten accommodations will be received at the next meeting.

NAMING OF SCHOOL IN MEMORY OF MRS. JAMES M. CURLEY

Mr. Reilly stated as a matter of record that Dr. Lyons suggested this evening in Conference that in the near future a school building be named in memory of Mrs. James M. Curley, and the suggestion was referred to Mrs. Pigeon, Committee on Naming of School Buildings.

Mrs. Pigeon stated that she will be very glad to cooperate in every way in the suggestion which has come to her.

Dr. Lyons stated that he will be very happy to see this suggested testimonial to the memory of this woman of sterling character who has graced this city as its first lady for a number of years.

The Committee adjourned.
Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

SAFE DRIVING.

Most cities and towns have a long list of "don'ts" but do little to educate the drivers of cars. If one half the time that is used trying to make people do something or not to do something was spent in educating the drivers much better results would be obtained. We need drivers' schools and the city or town that first starts such a school will be doing a real service.

GIVES PRAISE TO WOMEN OF MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY WHOSE CHASTE AND COURAGEOUS LIVES LEFT IMPRESS THAT STILL WORKS FOR BROAD CONCEPTS OF LIBERTY — MAYOR CURLEY DELIVERS MASTERLY ADDRESS AS OPENING OF TERCENTENARY CELEBRATION ON COMMON.

At the State's Tercentenary exercises on Boston Common, Mayor Curley, for the City of Boston, delivered a masterly address. When introduced by Governor Allen he spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman, Your Excellency, Reverend Sirs, Honored Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I would be remiss in my obligation if I did not pay tribute to the exceptional character, painstaking and devoted service, through which it has been possible to create a demonstration such as is in evidence here today, due almost wholly to the effort, genius and leadership of former Attorney-General Herbert Parker.

It has been truly said, "One master mind is worth more than a million hands," and to no individual in the history of Boston is this more applicable than to the chosen leader of the Massachusetts Bay Colony — Governor John Winthrop. Under his courageous and brilliant leadership the handful braved the dangers of the wilderness, combating with courage and fortitude hunger, cold, and sickness to the end that they might establish a place in the world where they and their posterity might be privileged to worship their maker as God gave them the light to so do.

Under his stern though able leadership, the corner stone was laid upon which with the passing of time was reared the noblest experiment in government the world has ever known — the United States of America.

Divine Right Theory Challenged.

The political doctrine in which they believed and to which they dedicated their lives was the first genuine challenge to the divine right theory the world had ever heard when they declared that the people may be trusted with their own. Like a thread of gold this declaration may be found extending through every page of the glorious history of our country. They realized the importance of education and to their God-given vision may be traced the development of a great public school system for every individual in America.

Five years after the establishment of Boston the first free public school, now known as the Public Latin School of Boston, was established and with the exception of a few months during the American Revolution has been permitted to continue a fruitful service unto this day. The establishment of the Public Latin School was shortly followed, thanks to the generosity of John Harvard, in 1636, by the establishment of that great institution for higher education which will shortly observe the tercentenary of its founding, Harvard University.

To the impetus given education by the founders may be traced in large measure the enviable position enjoyed by Boston and Massachusetts in the world. It is rather unfortunate that educational opportunities were limited only to men in the days of the Puritans and that the limitations continued for more than two centuries after the establishment of the first free school in Boston. As late as 1834 here in Boston John Pierpont, minister of the Hollis Street Church, was mobbed in the streets because of his support of a movement for a high school for girls, and our eminent historian, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, in 1854 published in the "North American Review" a rather labored article with the caption, "Should Women Learn the Alphabet?" and to this article may be traced the inspiration which prompted Sophia Smith to endow the Smith College in Northampton, one of the leading institutions of its kind to be found today in the world.

The urge for education has in no sense been confined wholly to the Puritans and their descendants, since within the archdiocese of Boston today may be found 100,000 girls and boys in Catholic schools and colleges, and over the lintel of the doorway of each school are engraved the words, "For God and Country."

Good in Puritans Unheralded.

The immortal Bard of Avon once stated, "The evil that men do in this life lives after them, the good is oft interred with their bones," and surely all that was evil in Puritan is known, while much that is good has received but scant reference.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

MAYOR CURLEY SOUNDS WARNING AGAINST INVASION OF COMMUNISTIC TEACHINGS IN UNITED STATES - SAYS SOLUTION OF PROBLEM OF UNEMPLOYMENT MOST IMPORTANT OF ANY CONFRONTING COUNTRY AT THIS TIME.

Before a great throng of citizens, Boston opened its official Tercentenary Celebration with exercises at the "Tribune" on Boston Common, at which Mayor Curley was the chief speaker. Distinguished mayors of the Commonwealth were guests of the city for the occasion. The Mayor spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman, Your Honors, Honored Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is a very great privilege to be permitted to present a suggestion to the acknowledged heads of the various cities that constitute the units of this great Commonwealth, and I know of no time that is more essential that some message epitomize, if you will, the vision, courage and the determination that made possible the establishment and the continuance of the Massachusetts Bay Colony than in the present hour of the life of our nation.

Within the last seventy-two hours the world has been treated to two most interesting declarations by two of the most eminent intellects in the world—one the Sovereign Pontiff of the Catholic Church, the other the greatest legal mind in America, if not in the world, Elihu Root, both proclaiming the importance and the necessity of the American Nation's giving consideration at once to the rise and spread of communism in the United States of America.

As one American citizen, in some measure conversant with the early history of our country; as one who has proof that even Scripture itself points out that "The poor we have always with us"; as one who has an appreciation of the needs of the Pilgrim and the Puritan in the early days of the settlement of Massachusetts, not only of water, but of food; as one who has a realization that economic conditions in no sense vary in great measure from the economic conditions that obtain in general throughout the world today, and which obtained for a period of nearly a quarter of a century in England, preceding the migration to America, and the establishment of the Massachusetts Bay Colony; as one who realizes that industrial depression, according to such an eminent authority in England as David Lloyd George, has been in evidence about once in every three years; and as one who appreciates that we have been subject to industrial depression about once in every seven years, I am wondering if it is not about time when the application of the same character of courage that made possible the establishment of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, that made possible the firing of the shot at Lexington, "Heard round the world," be made now.

With a majority of the three millions of people that constituted the population of the thirteen colonies against the then greatest power in the world, realizing that if that war were to be conducted on sea, that it were only possible to fight the enemy with their own ships, and if conducted on land, only possible to wage with the arms and ammunition in the possession of the then mother country. They did not hesitate—they threw down the gauge, and as a result the most inspiring land in the whole world was born, Our Land, the United States of America.

PROBLEM OF ADVERSITY URGENT.

We may trace the history of our country from the landing of the Pilgrims and the establishment by the Puritans of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, through the long weary years of Revolutionary struggles, in which the leaders of the American people were confronted with many great problems, yes, the problem of adversity always. The problem of international trade between the newly created American Republic and the other countries of the world, met through the vision and genius and courage of General Washington, through the establishment in 1787 of a system of imports, through which it was possible to develop the American merchant marine, and made possible the carrying in ships, built in American shipyards by American mechanics, and manned by American sailors, the carrying from America and to America, 91 per cent of the exports and imports.

We may trace the history of our country and find that through the lack of courage and lack of vision we have lost our place as a commercial nation. Just prior to the breaking out of the World War we had passed from carrying 91 per cent to carrying but 9 per cent of the imports and exports of America.

We are now assailing that problem with a reasonable degree of courage and a reasonable degree of foresight, and there is a fair assurance that we will solve it right, as America solved the problem of making a reality out of the theory of equality as announced by Thomas Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence, and as contained in the Bill of Rights, making it possible after four long years of war, under the able leadership of the Emancipator, Abraham Lincoln, and in making it possible without the loss of State to the Union or star to the American Flag. These problems of adversity have been solved. The problem solved within the short period of eleven years now rapidly becomes a memory. The problem of preserving that which was made possible through the sacrifices of the colonial fathers and mothers, by that which was provided through the genius and statesmanship and leadership of Woodrow Wilson, which made possible free government in the world. If we have solved all these problems in the day when America was weak in numbers, weak in finance, what is possible in our own day and in our own hour?

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

If communism rears its head in America, who is responsible? Is it the unthinking uneducated citizen of America, or the newly arrived immigrant, who finds that through a change in economic condition the doorway of opportunity, that offered opportunity for food, clothing, shelter and happiness for his family, has been closed through the introduction of new methods through the machine age, if you will, are we justified in permitting a condition that is prolific for the development of communism to obtain in America without at least doing something toward a solution of that particular problem? If in the day when we were weak in commerce and finance, in the day when America was weak as a nation, in the early days of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, they solved the problem of giving the world the American Republic, why should we hesitate to essay a solution of this particular problem? The creed of the Puritan and the Pilgrim was what? It was "The Man—the Home—the Town—the Commonwealth," and without providing the necessary measures of protection for the individual man, for his home and family, we fail to provide them for the city, town and for the Commonwealth.

I sincerely trust that through this delegation of mayors, representing substantially every city in the Commonwealth, that we may evolve some character of program that we can give to America in the way of a solution.

"How far that little candle throws her beam, so shines a good deed in a naughty world." The candle of liberty was lighted in Boston, the fight for the emancipation of the Black man first found light of day in Boston. These patriotic people visioned obstacles. Let us give some consideration to this important problem. Personally, I am not in favor of the solution that has been in operation in Great Britain since 1920, the "dole" system. I do not want to see a dole system in America.

MUST FIND SANE SOLUTION.

We must find a saner solution of some of these social and economic problems in Massachusetts. This important function of ours rests in asking the mayors of Massachusetts to take counsel with the intellectuals connected with our universities to plan and devise some character of social program that will serve as a guarantee that every individual American, able and willing to work, might have opportunity for a livelihood under the American Flag. We have adopted the eight-hour day, the Saturday half-holiday, the Mother's Aid Act, and recently, half-heartedly, adopted an old age pension plan. We have been helped because of these enactments, but they are in no sense new in the world. When such conditions arose in the German autocracy, the ablest man in the Empire was called by the Kaiser to outline a social program that would develop the Fatherland,—Bismarck—which resulted in a program in 1884 of social and economic legislation that gave Germany a standing higher than any other country in the world, a standing that was maintained until the World War. It was in Germany that the old age pension came into being. Germany had the sick insurance, as the man is not responsible for his health, but is responsible for the welfare of his family. The unemployment insurance, because the individual is the victim when industrial depression takes place. We did not adopt the Mother's Aid Act in Massachusetts until 1913, nearly three decades after it had been in operation in the foremost autocracy in the world.

The "Dole System" representing an outlay since 1920 of two hundred millions of dollars, each year, in Great Britain, and mounting in leaps and bounds, saps the initiative, and makes of a man a chronic loafer.

I ask the mayors of Massachusetts, with the intellects connected with our universities, to plan and devise some character of social program that will serve as a guarantee that every individual American, able and willing to work, may have opportunity for a livelihood under the American flag.

I don't know whether it means a five-day week, or a six-hour day, and I do not know whether it means regulation of the hours of operation in industry. The ablest minds in America have recommended as a solution of the farm problem in America restriction of the area to be put into production, annually, and becomes a matter of protection for the labor and investment that he has made in the development of his crops.

How about our great industrial centers, and how about the over-production through the inventive genius of the world, and more particularly the inventive genius of the American people? But recently came into operation the steam shovel, that provides us with physical recreation from watching it in operation, and which has displaced one million laborers in a period of ten years. The chain belt, or conveyor system, displacing a half million more, and countless other inventions.

Unless we are to encourage machines, we should regulate them for the benefit of the American people; regulate the forces that deprive the individual of the opportunity of livelihood; and through sound legislation make no place in America for any disciple of communism.

LAND-TAKING IN WEST ROXBURY.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for a public improvement consisting of the laying out and construction of Lasell street, West Roxbury district, as a highway, from Baker street northeasterly, bounded and described as follows:

A highway named Lasell street is hereby laid out, from Baker street northeasterly to a point approximately 672 feet northeast of La Grange street, and ordered constructed.

Said highway and the land, exclusive of trees or structures standing upon or affixed thereto, in which an easement for street purposes is hereby taken, is bounded and described as follows:

Part from Baker street to La Grange street:

Westerly by Baker street, forty-three and 99-100 feet; northwesterly by the northwesterly line of Lasell street as hereby laid out, two hundred fifteen and 56-100 feet; northeasterly by Temple street, thirty-eight and 82-100 feet; and southeasterly by the southeasterly line of said Lasell street as hereby laid out, two hundred thirty-three and 79-100 feet.

Part from Temple street to La Grange street:

Southwesterly by Temple street, forty feet; northwesterly by the northwesterly line of said Lasell street as hereby laid out, twelve hundred and eighteen feet; northeasterly by La Grange street, forty and 79-100 feet; and southeasterly by the southeasterly line of said Lasell street as hereby laid out, twelve hundred ten and 5-100 feet.

Part from La Grange street to a point approximately 672 feet northeasterly:

Southwesterly by La Grange street, forty and 79-100 feet; northwesterly by the northwesterly line of said Lasell street as hereby laid out, six hundred seventy and 63-100 feet; northeasterly by the northeasterly line of said Lasell street as hereby laid out, forty and 18-100 feet; and southeasterly by the southeasterly line of said Lasell street as hereby laid out, six hundred seventy-four and 84-100 feet.

Trees or structures standing upon or affixed to the aforescribed land shall be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said land for the purpose of constructing said improvement.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the abutting lots of land on both sides of Lasell street as laid out under this order, from Baker street northeasterly to a point approximately 672 feet northeast of La Grange street, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Lasell Street, West Roxbury, Assessment Plan, May 24, 1930, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

ADDRESS OF MAYOR CURLEY.

Our own New England poet—John Greenleaf Whittier—in his masterly poem entitled "A King's Missive," epitomized the futility of persecution in the closing paragraph wherein he visualized the scene here enacted.

"I see the vision of days to come,
When your beautiful city of the Bay,
Shall be christian liberty's chosen home,
And none shall his neighbor's rights
gainsay;
The varying notes of worship shall blend,
And as one great prayer to God ascend;
And the hands of mutual charity raise
Walls of salvation and gates of Paradise!

So passed the Quakers through Boston town,
Whose painful ministers sighed to see
The walls of their sheep-fold falling down,
And wolves of heresy prowling free.
But the years went on, and brought no wrong;
With milder counsels the state grew strong,
As outward letter and inward light
Kept the balance of truth aright.

The Puritan spirit perishing not,
To Concord's yeomen the signal sent,
And spake in the voice of the cannon-shot
That severed the chains of a continent.
With its gentler mission of peace and good-will
The thought of the Quaker is living still,
And the Freedom of soul he prophesied
Is gospel and law where its martyrs died."

TRIBUTE TO ANN HUTCHINSON.

Three centuries mean little in the life of the world but much in the life of America, which, to the thoughtful student of history, has apparently been designed as the instrument of Almighty God for the consummation of certain of His mysterious and Divine decrees. Time and truth are essential for proper perspective and it is to that time and truth we on this day should revert in payment of just tribute to the courageous women who endured even greater hardships uncomplainingly than the men, and who, for conscience sake in some cases, suffered martyrdom.

We of Boston are justly proud of the generous prompting of heart and of mind responsible for the erection of a permanent and enduring memorial to Governor John Winthrop in the shadow of the First Church, but we are equally proud that the Commonwealth has seen fit to place in the shadow of the State House, where laws are enacted, a memorial to Ann Hutchinson.

To me it appears fitting and proper that the ceremonies for which we are assembled for participation should be conducted in a structure known as "The Tribune," and that "The Tribune" should be erected upon the spot where it was customary to conduct the trials of persons who had given offence in the early days of established order.

Nearly three centuries have passed since that courageous woman, Ann Hutchinson, in defence of truth, witnessed without fear the execution of two Quakers.

Upon yonder hill, where today floats the flag that shelters within its folds more than 120,000,000 of persons in the full enjoyment of the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, without regard to race, creed or color, Mary Dyer, because of her belief in the doctrine of kindness and pacifism and her refusal to respect the decree of banishment, was hanged. Yet today the President of our nation, the Honorable Herbert Hoover, is an adherent of Quakerism. The same sun that today shines upon us shone upon Mary Dyer, and the same parcel of earth upon which we this day assemble was, nearly three centuries ago, the assembly place for those who stood in judgment upon this courageous woman to whose sacrifice we may, in part, trace the inspiration which prompted the great Virginian, Thomas Jefferson, nearly a century and a half later, to include the word "EQUALITY" in the Declaration of Independence.

The world moves on and sometimes forgets, but great deeds for humanity are eternal, and down through the ages the names of these chaste and courageous women will be revered equally with the names of the men who led the Massachusetts Bay Colony for the sacrifice made by them for a broader and more liberal concept of liberty of conscience.

John Boyle O'Reilly has epitomized the Pilgrim contribution and it is equally applicable to the Puritan, wherein he says:

"Give praise to others, early-come or late,
For love and labor on our ship of state;
But this must stand above all fame and zeal:
The Pilgrim Fathers laid the ribs and keel.
On their strong lines we base our social health:—
The man—The Home—The Town—The Commonwealth."

MAYOR CURLEY AT BANQUET IN EVENING.

At the state's banquet in the evening, at the Copley-Plaza, Mayor Curley spoke for the city.

He remarked that all he could hope to do in five minutes would be to outline the program of the City of Boston, which is really to have three celebrations—the official celebration on September 15, the celebration of Columbus Day on October 12, and the celebration of the convention of the American Legion.

He said the city has appropriated $45,000 for a permanent memorial in granite and bronze, on the site of the first spring found by Blackstone on Beacon street, opposite Willow street, the spring which was made available for Winthrop and his friends, and was responsible for their coming here, and so for the settlement of Boston.

"The original spring is not in operation," said the Mayor, "but we have arranged to have the memorial connected with the pure Cochituate water, which will serve us for the next hundred years, till we celebrate our quadriennial."

He quoted to the English clergyman present the saying, "without vision, the people perish," and pleaded for a better common understanding. "Not only between the people of the Commonwealth," said he, "for Democrats and Republicans don't always understand one another. In fact, there are rumors that only last night there was a misunderstanding right here in our city; happily it was of no importance." The reference to the omission to invite him to the Jefferson Club dinner got him a great laugh.

For the city celebration in September, he said every official in the United States above the rank of fence viewer has been invited, in the hope of promoting better understanding. Later, Governor Allen asked him to include the fence viewers, saying that in his town it was the custom to appoint newly married young men to that office, and it was the first office he ever held.

For the Legion convention, every officer of the Great War on the Allies' side has been invited, and Mayor Curley foresaw a better understanding among the nations. A similar result he hoped for on Columbus Day, when all the Pan-American peoples have been asked to send delegates.

REAR ADMIRAL BYRD THANKS MAYOR FOR HOSPITALITY.

Mayor Curley, on July 10, received the following letter from Rear Admiral Byrd:

HOTEL BILTMORE,
NEW YORK, July 9, 1930.

I want to express to you and through you to the people of Boston, the heartfelt appreciation of my companions and myself for the reception you gave us the other day.

It was simply great, and your reception alone made all of us feel that the time we put in in the South Polar regions was not in vain. It is only human that we should be pleased at being so royally received.

With many thanks to you for the great attention to details and trouble you took, I am, with kindest personal regards,

Faithfully yours,

R. E. BYRD.

Mayor Curley also received the following letter from Admiral Byrd:

One of the most heartening things that has happened to us in connection with the expedition was the telegram we received signed by five thousand citizens of Boston.

I am most anxious to express to each individual who signed this telegram my appreciation for their courteous message.

Could you advise me any way in which I could do this, for it would be a real pleasure for me to be able to express my thanks to them.

With kind personal regards always,
I am,

Sincerely yours,

R. E. BYRD.

BOSTON CITIZENS GAINING HEALTH AT RECREATIONAL CENTERS.

Mayor Curley, on July 14, sent the following letter to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and the New York Life Insurance Company:

GENTLEMEN,—I beg to direct your attention to the health movement that has started in Boston in consequence of the instructions received at the George Robert White Health Fund Units. It would be worth while for some representative of your company to take a stroll over to South Boston on any week day or Sunday afternoon and witness from 1,000 to 5,000 young folks stretched out on the granolithic walks taking sun baths. In the opinion of medical authorities, who have visited this great outdoor health and recreational center, there is nothing that is more beneficial to the health of the children of the community than the sun baths they here receive.

Very truly yours,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

INCREASED SAILINGS FROM BOSTON.

Mayor Curley, on July 11, was advised by Mr. P. L. Stuart, New England Traffic Manager of the American Republic Line, that the said line is to make a sailing from Boston every two weeks instead of three as heretofore, to the River Platte ports of Montevideo, Uruguay and Buenos Aires, Argentine. The lack of frequent sailings to South American ports from Boston seems to have been one of the reasons for our New England producers to ship through the port of New York.

It is hoped that this additional service will secure much additional business for the Port of Boston.

Because of the splendid service rendered by the members of the department at the six-alarm fire on the evening of July 4, 1930, Boxes 4147 and 4162, the Fire Commissioner commends all those who worked at this fire. Notwithstanding the hazardous exposures the members of the department by their efficient and untiring labor extinguished the fire before it became a conflagration. It is on such occasions as this that the Boston Fire Department shows its worth, and the commissioner extends his thanks to all the officers and men of the department for their services on this occasion.

The following letter, which has been received from Rev. Henry Lyons, pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Charlestown, is published for the information of the department:

EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN, Fire Commissioner.

DEAR MR. COMMISSIONER,—Kindly accept our sincere appreciation of the heroic work of the firemen on last Friday evening.

Knowing the neighborhood and being present when the first lines of hose were laid I marvel at the skill and efficiency of the men in limiting the fire to such a small area.

Officers and privates were faithful to their assigned posts and to this, we owe our homes and church property.

Our confidence in and our indebtedness to these noble men cannot be measured by words.

Again thanking the men through you,

I am very sincerely,

REV. HENRY LYONS.

July 7, 1930.

II. TRAFFIC CONDITIONS.

The district chiefs will make a thorough study of the various fire stations in their districts with relation to the effect of traffic conditions on response of fire apparatus to alarms of fire. In this investigation attention should be given to the impeding of response by street cars and automobiles, particularly as to the parking of automobiles opposite and adjacent to fire stations. These reports should be forwarded not later than Monday, July 21, 1930.

III. RETIREMENT.

The following retirement is hereby announced to take effect at 8 a. m., Wednesday, July 16, 1930:

Hoseman Thomas J. Cavanagh of Headquarters.

Hoseman Cavanagh was appointed to this department on October 17, 1890, and he leaves the department with the best wishes of his associates.

IV. COMMENDATIONS.

The Fire Commissioner has received from the Orpin Desk Company a check for $100 in appreciation of the services rendered by members of this department at the fire in Charlestown on July 4, 1930. The check has been turned over to the treasurer of the Boston Firemen's Relief Fund.

The following letter, which accompanied the check, is hereby published for the information of the department:

July 10, 1930.

EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN, Fire Commissioner.

DEAR SIR,—Please accept on behalf of our company, our admiration for, and appreciation of, the splendid work of Chief Fox and the members of his department during the fire of July 4.

The successful efforts of the department prevented a spread of the flames to our main building and the large stock of finished and processed goods stored therein. We would request that you use the inclosed check any way that you might desire, as a small token of our appreciation.

Yours very truly,

ORPIN DESK COMPANY,
W. JONES, General Manager.

The commissioner is also in receipt of the following letter from the Pacific Coast Lumber Company, which is hereby published for the information of the department:

July 9, 1930.

DEAR COMMISSIONER,—The writer, in behalf of the Pacific Coast Lumber Company, wishes to commend your fire department, especially that part of the service that was instrumental in saving our building from total loss.

I was in the office during the fire from eight o'clock until eleven o'clock, and all of the men performed most valiant work in fighting this disastrous conflagration. We are certain that if the men had not responded to the alarms as quickly as they did it is possible that the whole tenement section of Charlestown would have been wiped out.

We again thank you for the service and trust that the men will be commended for the work they did.

Very truly yours,

PACIFIC COAST LUMBER COMPANY,
G. A. HALPIN.

The Fire Commissioner wishes to commend the following members of the Motor Squad for the efficient service rendered by them at the three-alarm fire, Box 4133, June 28, 1930:

Assistant Engineer of Motor Apparatus James Wall, Engineer Bernard Hoppe, Engineer Ernest Learson.

In order to obtain water to operate efficiently at this fire it was necessary to draught from the river, using in some cases two, three and four lengths of suction. The above-named members of the department supervised the placing of the pumping engines and removing of the pumps after they had become sunken in made land.

Capt. Edward N. Montgomery of Engine Company 31 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 4147, six alarms, July 4, 1930, while off duty.

By order of Fire Commissioner EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN.

HENRY A. FOX,
Chief of Department.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7, (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the new style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

DIMENSIONS, ETC., OF BOSTON.

Boston's greatest length, 13.8 miles, i. e., from northern end of East Boston to southern end of Hyde Park; greatest width, 7.75 miles, i. e., from Marine Park shore to western end of Brighton; median transverse width, 5.75 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Harvard Bridge to Neponset river at Blue Hill avenue; width of business center, 1.2 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Cambridge Bridge to Fort Point channel at Summer street. Geographical center of city in Roxbury, corner Walnut and Westminster avenues.

NEW ORLEANS BUILDING THREE NEW INCINERATORS.

Three new incinerators to cost a total of $700,000 are under construction at New Orleans and will add appreciably to that city's sanitation system. This will make a total of five plants where garbage can be readily disposed of. The plants, according to Commissioner of Public Property John Klorer, will be equipped in the most scientific manner with special provision for the prevention of any smoke nuisance.

The incinerators are conveniently distributed about the city, one of the new ones being almost ready for use. The one now nearing completion can handle 170 tons of garbage every 16 hours with no odor escaping, and its stacks are 125 feet high.

COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES BY MUNICIPALITIES.

The collection of delinquent taxes is often neglected by city officials, resulting in a considerable financial loss to the municipality.

The sale of property for taxes usually takes place from one to three years after the taxes have become due and after the publication of a tax sale notice for from three to six weeks. The property is sold at auction to the highest bidder provided that the bid covers the amount of taxes, all unpaid assessments, interest, fees, penalties, and other charges against the property. If the bid is not sufficient to cover these items, the city bids in the property. Property sold for taxes may be redeemed after a period varying from one to three years upon payment of sum sold for, together with interest computed at the rate of 12 per cent per annum. If the property is not redeemed within the prescribed time the purchaser is given either a deed, an estate in fee simple, or an absolute estate in fee, subject only to the lien of unpaid state and county taxes.

In two cities, White Plains and Yonkers, the tax lien is sold. This has worked out very satisfactorily. In Yonkers the problem of the collection of delinquent taxes has been cleared up:

1. By keeping the assessed valuation down to the real present market value, thereby preventing the accumulation of a large amount of uncollectible taxes.
2. By foreclosure, in one action, of large numbers of lots in one ownership.
3. By assignment of tax liens, at full value, to any one applying for same.
4. By resale, at reduced amounts, of tax liens held by the city.
5. By compromise with owners, reducing the amounts due to a sum that will make it worth while for such owners to pay up the city thereby saving foreclosure costs, and immediately placing such property on a taxpaying basis, and at the same time allowing the owners to get out with some equity. Foreclosure should never be resorted to where an owner shows any disposition to compromise.

BOSTON AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (441 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexations as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the thirty-nine cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would be second to the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

CHICAGO TRAFFIC POLICE IN YEAR-LONG DRIVE.

Chicago traffic experts have promised a 50 per cent decrease in deaths from motor-car accidents, as a result of a week-by-week drive now in operation by Commissioner Russell of the Police Department to enforce the city traffic code. The drive, an outgrowth of the National Safety Congress and Chicago Safety Week recently held in Chicago, is expected to prove a valuable educational feature for drivers, pedestrians and policemen.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.Special General Order No. 1.

FURTHER NOTICE.

There seems to be some doubt in the public mind as to the sincerity of the efforts of this department to apprehend Oliver B. Garrett, now fugitive from justice. The commissioner cannot believe that any member of this department is so stupid as not to realize the importance of the capture of Oliver B. Garrett to the Boston Police Department as an evidence of its good faith and efficiency.

If such doubt exists in the mind of any member of this department the commissioner wishes to inform the Police Force that no other action would go so far to rehabilitate the good name of the department with the public as the capture of Oliver B. Garrett.

If the members of the force cannot appreciate the importance of this for their own good, the commissioner calls their attention to their oath of office which requires them to faithfully and impartially perform their duties as police officers of the City of Boston.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

Ordered, His Honor the Mayor having approved the same, that the said Detective-Sergeant Edward C. In the matter of the complaint of James Laffey, captain commanding Division 21, against Patrolman George R. Hobbs, Jr., of the same division, for violation of the Rules and Regulations of this department, to wit:

Charge: Neglect of Duty.

Specification 1: In that on the sixth day of July, A. D. 1930, the said Patrolman George R. Hobbs, Jr., did leave a fixed traffic post at Massachusetts avenue and Westland avenue from 9.15 o'clock p. m. to 10.45 o'clock p. m. without permission from his superior officer.

The commissioner, after considering the complaint, and also taking into consideration the recommendation of the superintendent that in view of the fact that Patrolman Hobbs was truthful in his statement as to his absence from his post, it is hereby ordered that the said Patrolman George R. Hobbs, Jr., perform 105 hours' punishment duty.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 45.

Capt. Robert E. Grant of Division 18 having arrived at the age of sixty-five and ten-twelfths years, having performed faithful service in the Police Department for twenty-nine and three-twelfths years, and having requested to be retired from active service, it is hereby Ordered, His Honor the Mayor having approved the same, that the said Captain Grant be retired from active service and that his name be placed upon the department pension roll with pay at the rate of two thousand (2,000) dollars per annum (payable monthly), said sum being one half of the amount of compensation received by him in the office from which he is retired; to take effect at 7.45 o'clock a. m., Wednesday, July 16, 1930.

The present commissioner has not had the privilege of a close acquaintance with Captain Grant, but by every record of service that has reached him, he is justified in expressing, as the sentiment of the whole department, keen regret for the withdrawal of a loyal comrade, gratitude for his long years of service, and hope that comfort and contentment may follow him.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 46.

and four twelfths years, having performed faithful service in the Police Department for thirty-four and eight-twelfths years, and having requested to be retired from active service, it is hereby

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 47.

The following matter was reported by the commanding officer of Police Division 9, Capt. Arthur B. McConnell:

On the evening of July 3, 1930, a horse attached to a vehicle was startled by a fire cracker thrown by a heedless person who ran away.

The horse became frightened and bolted.

At the corner of Maywood and Warren streets, Roxbury district, Patrolman John F. Eagan of Division 9 ran from the sidewalk, seized the bridle of the horse's harness and was dragged to a point near Edgewood street (a distance of 200 or 300 feet) before he was able to stop the animal.

The officer received injuries to his knees and right hand, and it was by good fortune that something more serious did not happen to him.

He received attention at the Boston City Hospital and was conveyed to his home.

I join with the captain in praise of this officer's courage in the performance of this dangerous duty. His act may have saved injury to others who would have been in the path of this frightened animal.

Patrolman John F. Eagan is commended in General Orders.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 48.

The resignation of John H. Merrick, secretary to the Police Commissioner, has been accepted, to take effect as of Tuesday, July 15, 1930.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

SAFE DRIVING.

Most cities and towns have a long list of "don't's" but do little to educate the drivers of cars. If one half the time that is used trying to make people do something or not to do something was spent in educating the drivers much better results would be obtained. We need drivers' schools and the city or town that first starts such a school will be doing a real service.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU CHECKS ON ALIEN LABORERS ON CITY WORK.

Mayor Curley, on July 10, directed the following communication to the Boston City Council:

"I beg to inform your honorable body that I have this day advised the Director of the Municipal Employment Bureau to forward to the Corporation Counsel the names of all contractors who are violating the provisions of sections 13 to 19, inclusive, of chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, for such action as he deems necessary in the premises."

Mayor Curley, on July 10, directed the following communication to the Boston City Council:

"In reply to the order of your honorable body passed on July 7, 1930, requesting that the Director of the Municipal Employment Bureau investigate and report to the City Council concerning men employed by contractors and subcontractors doing public work for the city whether the provisions of sections 13 to 19, inclusive, of chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 are being complied with by said contractors and subcontractors, I advise your honorable body that the director has informed me that he has in every case of violation of the ordinance which has been called to his attention by the Public Works Department, taken the necessary steps to correct the situation and has notified the contractor in every instance to replace all alien employees with citizens. In all cases, I am informed by him, his request has been complied with.

"Your body must appreciate that it is with some difficulty that the information as to whether an employee is an alien or citizen has been ascertained. Misinformation and concealment of the facts in many instances are some of the obstacles which must be overcome. However, everything possible is being done to bring about a compliance with the order."

STREET REPAIRS.

The Mayor has approved the following order of the Board of Street Commissioners of the City of Boston:

That this Board, having passed the order of notice, relating to the public improvements hereinafter described, and having caused a copy of said order to be published May 9, 10, 12 and 13, 1930, in the Boston Globe and the Boston Transcript, two daily newspapers published in the City of Boston, and having given the public hearing, notice of which was given in said order, and being of the opinion that public convenience and necessity require, does hereby order that specific repairs be made in the following streets by substituting bituminous type pavement in such portions as are now paved with granite blocks:

Washington street, Dorchester district, from Codman square to Mora street.

MAYOR CURLEY AND PROMINENT CITIZENS GIVE MOTORSHIP "BRITANNIC" BIG WELCOME.

Mayor Curley and a large delegation of Boston citizens as his guests welcomed the new motorship "Britannic," of the White Star Line, to the harbor on Sunday, July 13. Mayor Curley boarded the ship for his welcome, amid the skirling of a pipe band. Fully 3,000 persons, following the welcome of the Mayor, visited and inspected this newest addition to the line making Boston a port for traffic across the ocean.

Sliding majestically up the harbor like a sleek, sparkling yacht, fireboats, airplanes and thousands of guests joined in a welcome that was reminiscent of the waterfront in the postwar days.

Her oval squat funnels, lofty, sheltered decks and cruiser lines, marking her as a product of the newer marine idea, the 27,000-ton "Britannic" left here at 3 o'clock on her initial trip from New York and Boston for Queenstown and Liverpool.

Fireboats, with sirens screaming, threw great curtains of water, and daring aviators darted close to the raked pole casts as the motorship was warped into her dock, and then, an hour later, they turned the welcome into a bon voyage.

Mayor Curley, first guest over the gangplank, carried the best wishes of the city to Capt. F. F. Summers, commander of this new ship. With the Mayor was his daughter, Mary, and his young son, George, accompanied by City Treasurer Edmund Dolan, Secretary Cornelius Reardon and Frank B. Howland of the Public Celebrations Department.

On the "Britannic" Mayor Curley was welcomed by Capt. Frederick F. Summers of the "Britannic" and Gaillard Ravernal, general passenger agent of the line. After photographs had been made of the official group, Mayor Curley and the members of his party were entertained at luncheon in the main dining-room of the ship. In the meantime those who had cards of admission visited every part of the vessel thrown open to the public.

Mayor Curley's departure from the ship was just as spectacular as his arrival, the gaily-uniformed musicians of the Boston Caledonian Pipe band, led by Angus McKillop, "playing" his Honor down the gang plank. The "Britannic" sailed at exactly 3 o'clock, her send-off being as noisy as her arrival.

ACCEPTANCE OF CHAPTER 223, ACTS OF 1930.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 7, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Chapter 223 of the Acts of 1930 authorizes a city or town which accepts the legislation to appropriate money for advertising its resources, advantages and attractions, provided that an equal amount shall have previously been contributed from other sources and paid into the city treasury.

This particular piece of legislation is a refreshing indication of a change from the conservatism which so long has hampered the industrial and commercial development of New England, and I am heartily in favor of taking advantage of it.

Upon the acceptance of the act the Commercial, Industrial and Publicity Bureau created by me, which has funds raised by public subscription amounting to $85,000, stands ready to turn over to the city the sum of $25,000 for advertising purposes, and I shall recommend an appropriation by the city of an equal amount.

I accordingly recommend the passage of the accompanying order accepting the act.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That section 6A of chapter 40 of the General Laws, inserted therein by chapter 223 of the Acts of 1930, entitled "An Act Relative to Municipal Advertising," be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

CAMBRIDGE STREET ENTRANCE, EAST BOSTON TUNNEL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 7, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Col. Thomas F. Sullivan, chairman of the Transit Commission, regarding your request to discontinue the entrance to the East Boston Tunnel on Cambridge street. This is in reply to your order of June 23, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Transit Department, July 2, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I return herewith order of the City Council, dated June 23, 1930:

"Ordered, That the Transit Department be asked to report to the City Council whether it is practical and possible to discontinue the entrance to the East Boston Tunnel on Cambridge street."

The East Boston Tunnel entrance on Cambridge street is leased to the Boston Elevated Railway Company under authority of chapter 741 of the Acts of the year 1911. This lease is substantially in the same form as the lease for the other subways and tunnels, and it is provided therein that no changes can be made in any of these structures, except at the request of the lessee.

Until an entrance is provided at some other point, it is neither practical nor possible to discontinue the Cambridge street entrance, as there is no other way in which cars can be sent to the Eliot square shops for major repairs, or new cars brought in for replacement purposes.

Yours very truly,
T. F. SULLIVAN, Chairman.

PLAYGROUND, CHESTNUT HILL AVENUE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 7, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from William P. Long, chairman of the Park Commission, regarding your request for a playground on Chestnut Hill avenue. This is in reply to your order of June 23, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, July 2, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of order from the City Council that the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to advise the Boston City Council the approximate cost of making suitable for use as a playground and the erection of a shelter house, of forty thousand square feet of land on Chestnut Hill avenue, owned by the city and now used as a paving yard by the Public Works Department.

Due to the fact that this was formerly a ledge, it would be inadvisable to consider the area for playground purposes—it would cost in the vicinity of $150,000 to put this place in condition.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

LOAN FOR COUNTY JAIL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 7, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The widening of Charles street involves the taking of a portion of the Suffolk County Jail property and the removal of a wall and one of the buildings. The sheriff estimates that the replacement and other incidental expenses made necessary by the street widening will cost approximately $135,000 and I accordingly recommend the passage of the accompanying loan order for that amount.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $135,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Sheriff for County of Suffolk, Jail Improvements, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be, and hereby is, authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I understand that this order that has just come up from the Mayor is an emergency order which requires immediate attention so that the building and the wall of the jail may be taken down to make way for the widening. I understand that at the present time they are already removing the building at the corner of Charles and Cambridge streets, and I therefore move a suspension of the rules so that the order may have its first reading this afternoon.

Coun. MURRAY—Mr. President, I believe, even though this is an emergency order, that it can wait until the next meeting. What is the good of our coming into the Council if on every order we are going to suspend the rules and pass it? What did you form committees for? It is not our fault that it is an emergency. Why don't they send it to a committee and let us see why they want it, and wherefor? I am against the suspension of the rules.

Coun. WILSON—I move that the matter be referred to the Executive Committee. The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

APPROPRIATION FOR MUNICIPAL ADVERTISING.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 7, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith and recommend for passage by your honorable body an order appropriating the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for advertising purposes.

The authorization for this appropriation is contained in chapter 223 of the Acts of 1930, an explanation of which is contained in my message of this date recommending its acceptance.

In order to take advantage of the opportunity afforded by the vacationing and tercentenary travel, which is approaching its height, it is necessary to have the money immediately available, and I accordingly respectfully request immediate action on the order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 223, Acts of 1930, the sum of $25,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Mayor for Municipal Advertising, and that said amount be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. WILSON was here called to the chair.

OPINION OF CORPORATION COUNSEL IN RE ANNA DOROTHY SMITH.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 7, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to submit herewith opinion received from the Corporation Counsel with reference to order adopted by the City Council under date of February 24, 1930. The opinion, as submitted by the Corporation Counsel, is both lucid and conclusive and there is nothing further can be done in the matter.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, June 18, 1930.
Cornelius A. Reardon, Esquire,
Secretary to the Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I beg to submit my opinion to his Honor the Mayor with reference to the reward to be offered as a result of the case of Anna Dorothy Smith, of 17 Sackville street, Charlestown, Mass.

On February 24, 1930, the City Council adopted the following order:
"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and is hereby, authorized, under the provisions of section

10 of chapter 276 of the General Laws, to offer a reward of five hundred dollars for the detection or apprehension of the person who kidnapped Dorothy Smith from Belmont street, Charlestown; said sum to be paid from the Reserve Fund."

Section 10 of chapter 276 of the General Laws, pursuant to which the order of the City Council was adopted, provides as follows:

"Section 10. The aldermen or the selectmen, if in their opinion the public good so requires, may offer a suitable reward of not more than five hundred dollars in any one case, to be paid by the town to any person who, in consequence of such offer, detects or secures a person who has committed a felony in such place, either before or after he has been charged therewith, and such reward shall be paid by the treasurer upon the warrant of the aldermen or selectmen. If more than one claimant applies for the payment of such reward, the aldermen or selectmen shall determine to whom it shall be paid, and if to more than one person, in what proportion to each, and their determination shall be final."

You will observe that this statute provides in part that the reward shall be paid by the city to anyone who detects or secures a person who has committed a felony in this city. The facts in this case, as disclosed by the report of Captain Livingston of Division 15, indicate that the person was convicted of the felony of "carnal knowledge and abuse of a female child" in Middlesex County. The order of the City Council offers a reward for the detection or apprehension of the person who kidnapped Dorothy Smith. The criminal in this case was not convicted of the felony "kidnapping." In fact, he was discharged in the Charlestown District Court on April 9 on this charge. Consequently I am of the opinion that no one is entitled to receive the reward offered by the City Council; first, because the crime specified in the order of the City Council was "kidnapping" when, as a matter of fact, the crime for which the criminal was convicted was "carnal knowledge and abuse of a female child"; second, the felony was not committed in the City of Boston but was committed in Middlesex County and the City of Boston has no legal right to pay a reward to anyone for a crime committed outside the precincts of the City of Boston.

Very truly yours,
SAMUEL SILVERMAN,
Corporation Counsel.

DRINKING FOUNTAIN, CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUND, FENWAY NORTH.

Coun. ARNOLD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install a drinking fountain on the children's playground, Fenway North.

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, on your sort of urging me, I will say a word in regard to this. During the celebration of the great American holiday on last Friday I had very many requests from little children, as well as from parents, that some provision be made for drinking water in that children's playground. It seems to be a most unpardonable oversight that a playground that is devoted entirely ordinarily to very young children and their mothers would not have any drinking water at all. Otherwise, the celebration was a great success, although the band didn't have any bandstand or any chairs to sit on.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

Coun. MAHONEY, for the Executive Committee, submitted reports, as follows:

1. Report on petition of Daniel Gallagher to be retired, recommending that the petition be granted.

2. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that chapter 223 of the Acts of 1930, entitled, "An Act Relative to Municipal Advertising," be accepted—that order ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

3. Report on order (referred today) that chapter 387 of the Acts of 1930, entitled "An Act Relative to Pensioning Certain Members of the Police Department of the City of Boston," be accepted—that order ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

4. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) for appropriation of $135,000 for County of Suffolk Jail, Improvements.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. MURRAY—Mr. President, the reason I feel at this time as I did in executive session is because when we voted a million dollars for Charles street we were all led to believe there were to be no takings. After listening to the councilor from Ward 18 he informed us that the Evans house is being torn down, and that is the reason they have got to go along on the right-hand side of Charles street coming from Cambridge street, and I believe, if there have been takings when we voted there would be no takings, we at least ought to be informed by the Street Commissioners why the change from one side of the street to the other before we vote on this order.

The order was read once and passed, yeas 19, nays, Coun Murray, 1.

5. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) for appropriation of $7,500 for playground, North End district—that order ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

6. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) for appropriation of $25,000 for municipal advertising—that order ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed yeas 19, nays 0.

APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED.

President LYNCH—The Chair will call up No. 1 on the calendar and appoint Councilors Hein and Arnold to receive, sort and count the ballots.

The Committee on Claims, to whom was referred June 23, 1930, the petition of Edward H. Kilday to be reimbursed for amount of execution brought against him on account of his acts as a fireman, having considered the same, respectfully recommends the passage of the following order:

Ordered, That the sum of one hundred and forty-one (141) dollars be allowed and paid to Edward H. Kilday in reimbursement for amount of execution brought against him on account of his acts as a fireman, said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

Report accepted; order passed.

EMPLOYMENT OF ALIENS BY CONTRACTORS DOING PUBLIC WORK.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Municipal Employment Bureau, through his Honor the Mayor, be, and hereby is, requested to investigate and report to the City Council forthwith concerning men employed by any and all contractors and subcontractors doing public work for the City of Boston, whether the express provisions of sections 13 to 19, inclusive, of chapter 40 of Revised Ordinances of 1925 are being actually or even approximately complied with by said contractors and subcontractors.

Coun. WILSON—Despite the fact that it is a hot day, and despite the fact that many members of the Council may want to get away—and those who want to get away can get away, even though I present this order at this time—I want to have some consideration, and in detail, given to this particular order. I want my position clearly understood in this matter. In the first place, it is not my intention to criticize the Public Works Commissioner, who, despite the handicap of late action by the Legislature, has already done wonderful work on streets this year. Nor do I criticize my good friend Shields, who has made the Municipal Employment Bureau this year less resemble Death Valley or a study in still life. Finally, I have every assurance that an order such as this will receive the wholehearted support of the present Mayor of the City of Boston, under whose previous administration the ordinance therein referred to was passed, and whose signature it received in 1925. I believe this order, and the idea behind it, should and will receive the support of every city department in the City of Boston. During the past few years the unemployment situation in our country, and especially in New England, and above all in Boston, has become absolutely acute. And when I say unemployment, I mean unemployment of citizen labor. Our first duty is to American labor. And we are falling down on the job, with a city ordinance of 1925 still right on the books and still effective. I am not asking for anything new; I am asking for the enforcement of an ordinance five years old. A sixteen million dollar East Boston tunnel is to mean work, we are told, for hundreds of men. Four hundred and eighty aliens and twenty Americans—or 100 per cent American? The Governor square job. Columbus Park. The biggest street program in a generation; millions of dollars to be spent for streets. Schoolhouse work. Every time this body votes another million dollars we are told it will relieve unemployment. And it does—unemployed aliens. Of course when the contractors who bid on a basis of $5 a day for citizen labor, and then pay $3 and $4 a day for alien labor, can get away with it, even in the face of a prohibiting city ordinance, they will continue to do it. $1 and $2 per head per day on a three months' job means real money. It is high time that this city ordinance, that apparently has become obsolete in five short years, should be dug up from a premature grave and put into use where it will do the most good. I think it is important enough to read, if you will allow me to wipe off the cobwebs and brush off the dust. I will read the provision of that particular ordinance, the details of which are perhaps unfamiliar to some members of the City Council. It is in the Revised Ordinances of 1925, chapter 40, section 13. The paragraph:

"Section 13. No contract shall be made by the city except with—

"(a) individual citizens of the United States;

"(b) corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one-half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States.

"Section 14. No person other than a citizen of the United States shall be employed on any public work being done by—

"(a) the city of Boston;

"(b) any contractor with the city of Boston;

"(c) any subcontractor with such contractor; except that persons not such citizens may be employed in the manner and under the conditions set forth in the following section:

"Section 15. Whenever no citizens of the United States competent to perform the work in question can be had at the prevailing and customary rate of wages, the head of the department having charge of the work in question, with the written approval of the mayor, may issue a written authorization for the employment of such number of persons other than citizens for such time as may be necessary to do the work, provided that no such authorization shall be issued except after compliance with the provisions of the following section:

"Section 16. Before issuing the written authorization provided for in the preceding section, the head of the department having charge of the work or contractor shall give one or more public hearings and shall satisfy himself and certify in writing that the facts exist which warrant the issuance of such authorization. Where the employment is to be by a contractor or subcontractor he shall require a written statement from such contractor or subcontractor to such facts sworn to before a justice of the peace.

"Section 17. It shall be the duty of all heads of departments to cause suitable inspection to be made of all work for which they are severally responsible to ensure compliance with the provisions of the four preceding sections and also to call all breaches thereof to the attention of the proper authorities for prosecution.

"Section 18. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provisions of sections 13, 14, 15 or 16 of this chapter shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence and a separate offence shall be regarded as committed for every day during which such person, firm or corporation shall continue such violation.

"Section 19. All contracts hereafter made by the city shall contain suitable provisions requiring contractors and subcontractors to comply with the terms of sections 13, 14, 15 and 16 of this chapter and providing that no recovery shall be had on such contracts or subcontracts either against the city or any other person if a breach of said sections has been established."

In other words, whenever no citizens competent to perform the work can be had at the customary rate of wages, the department head may, with the written approval of the Mayor, himself issue written authorization to the contractor or subcontractor to hire aliens for the time necessary to complete that job. But even before that written authority is given, the department head must give one or more public hearings, to satisfy himself that there are no citizens available, and the contractor must certify to that fact under oath before a justice of the peace. If there was ever a public hearing held in this hall to determine the fact that there are no able-bodied citizens available in Boston as laborers at $5 a day, they would need 10,000 or 15,000 men to help rebuild City Hall after the riot was over. Mr. Shields can tell us whether there are any unemployed laborers in Boston at the present time. The census figures would seem to show some 27,000 men out of work in Boston. It occurs to me that a dozen or so may be citizens. The Boston Post of June 25, 1930, gives the total of unemployed in Boston as 27,360, and states that the average number of unemployed in each ward in the City of Boston amounts to 1,243, with 4,542 in Ward 3 alone. There is a penalty incident to the ordinance I have quoted. In fact, there are two penalties. One penalty is a voiding of the contract by the city; the other is a fine of $20 for each separate offence, and every day means a separate offence. The ordinance, so far as I know, is still effective. I should like to see any contractor, affected by its provisions, un-American enough even to question its validity, and still expect to get city work from the present Mayor of the City of Boston. We hear stories of a schoolhouse job in Boston where between twenty and thirty aliens are reported to have pooled $2,000 each to insure a bid big enough to get the job last year, with the guarantee that they therefore would each be guaranteed a year's work and a return of the $2,000. I understand that the councilor from Charlestown recently lined men up at the Bunker Hill street job, and demanded employment for citizens in preference to alien labor, and won his point. There are college graduates in this city today, with starving families, and these men are ready, able and willing to swing a pick. So I ask that the Employment Bureau, as the most appropriate bureau, check up this situation. On March 25, 1929, I offered the following order in the City Council:

"Ordered, That the Public Works Department, through his Honor the Mayor, advise the City Council forthwith:

"1. Is the customary provision that citizen labor must be employed if available still included in contracts let out by the City of Boston for sewer and street construction?

"2. What are the names and addresses of all individuals or firms now holding contracts from the City of Boston for sewer or street work, and covering work on what streets?

"3. On each job now in process, what number of laborers are employed by each contractor and how many of such laborers on each job are aliens?"

I offered a similar order with reference to the Schoolhouse Department on April 29, 1929. On the Oakland street, Dorchester, job in the spring of 1929, it appeared that seven out of seventeen men were aliens; and on Morton street ten out of sixteen men were reported to be aliens, then working on that city job. Let the workers be paid wages out of the money of the Boston taxpayers, but my request is to give citizens of this country the right-of-way. I mean business on this particular order, gentlemen, and after its passage, which I now earnestly urge, I propose to offer a companion order which I feel will show that we mean business.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. Chairman, I agree fully with what the councilor from Dorchester has said. I agree with his ideas on the unemployment situation. There is one note in his address that I didn't agree with. He has quoted the official United States Census figures, as given out here in Boston, showing 27,000 people out of work in Boston on April 1 of this year. I would like to call attention to the fact that on April 1 of this year, under an order that I introduced here in the Council, the city police of Boston reported 41,500 people admitted that they were wage-earners and out of work. The very same month, perhaps the very same day, the very same week, these United States Census takers, also asking how many people were out of work in the various homes of Boston, reported 27,000. Now, I submit, Mr. President, that when a police officer goes to a home in uniform and knocks on the door and leaves his card, there is just a sense of pride in every human breast. The average wife or mother does not like to admit to a police officer that one of her own is out of work, and when 41,000 odd people in Boston admit they are out of work at the very same time that the United States Census enumerators in civilian clothes report 27,000 out of work, there is a serious error there. We have questioned the figures of the census enumerators on the matter of population in the various wards. Here is a direct disagreement between the figures of the United States census report and the figures of the Boston Police Department. When a policeman in uniform reports 41,000 odd people out of work here in Boston on the first day of April, and these census takers, working for Uncle Sam in civilian clothes, report 27,000, I ask any fair-minded body which figure is correct. Judging by the reports of our Employment Bureaus and our social and philanthropic agencies, we not only have 41,000 out of work, but, as I told the Mayor of Boston, if 41,000 people admit to a police officer of Boston that they are out of work, then surely there must be 75,000 more out of work.

The order was passed under suspension of the rules.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the director of the Municipal Employment Bureau, through his Honor the Mayor, report in writing to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston for prosecution or other appropriate action the names of any persons, firms or corporations violating the provisions of sections 13 to 19, inclusive, of chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1923, on and after July 14.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I was interested to hear the figures advanced by the councilor from Hyde Park, whose figures I agree are probably more accurate than those reported by the census manipulators of last spring, and, taking his figures of at least 41,000 men, I again press the point that probably a large number of that 41,000 are citizens. I say again, good luck to the alien who comes to these shores, even though he does not take the oath of allegiance to this country, if there are jobs and no citizens out of work. But I say where the City of Boston, with $16,000,000 to be spent on the tunnel and $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 on Governor square and $1,000,000 on streets and various improvements—where the City of Boston proposed in the next twelve months to a year and a half to spend upwards of fifty millions of the taxpayers' money on real work with the pick and shovel, I say the citizens of the City of Boston ought to get the break, and I say it is high time where there is a city ordinance on the books of the City of Boston, passed as long ago as 1925, in the last year of the most recent administration of Mayor Curley, the time has come to put some teeth in that ordinance and get down to business. I suggest with reference to the order that has just been passed, that one excellent idea that Mr. Shields of the Municipal Employment Bureau could use—and it is an idea advanced by Councilor Cox—is that he should at once demand from every contractor doing work for the City of Boston the names and voting residence, if any of them have any voting residence, of the aliens now doing work for practically every city contractor in the City of Boston. I say run these aliens to cover, and that is why I press the passage of this additional order, under suspension of the rules, giving them one week, seven days, starting next Monday, even if we have to put some men to work down in Mr. Shields' office. When these contractors get jobs from the City of Boston on the basis of five dollars a day for citizens and then go out and hire aliens for two or three dollars a day, it is time we had a "showdown."

Coun. FITZGERALD—I think the order offered by the gentleman from Dorchester may be all right, but a place to start a reform is right here where these contracts are given out. It has always seemed very strange to me that men are allowed to take contracts for the same money that was paid twenty years ago, when the highest price paid to a laborer and the highest price paid to a city employee was $2 a day. How they can give those contracts out now for the same amount of money that was paid twenty years ago has been a mystery to me. I think the reform should start right here in City Hall. I don't know what the Employment Bureau can do about this. If they know these engineers and these men in charge of these contracts that these men are taking, it would be very interesting to read over some of these figures in the city records. I saw where they had asked for bids a second time on one job, the East Boston Courthouse, I think it was. Some of the bids had been reduced $30,000 to $40,000 when the second bids came around. Now, who is responsible? We hear a lot of "blah" in the newspaper headlines about this contract and that contract being given out at a certain price. Take this fire station in the West End. That is a mystery to me. It has been going on for years. It is hardly near completion now. Certainly that man must be losing money on it. If he is not, he must be a martyr to the cause, and it is no nearer completion. A month ago they started on the Telephone Building, and it is going up by leaps and bounds, and will probably be finished and open and occupied before the fire station will be ready to be occupied. The reform ought to start here. I would like to know what the Employment Bureau is going to do about it, how they are going to remedy this situation. Right after we hear a lot of talk here about competent inspectors, a wall collapsed. The thing has been hushed up. Had it happened in the evening, with a lot of people hanging around, sitting around talking, all would have been killed. The entire wall on one side of the building came down, and men competent in the building game know why it came down. How do we know when the apparatus gets in there that the entire structure will not come down? They may satisfy the defects by that time. I hope they will. But something is rotten. We know that the old, reliable contractors have been driven out of business overnight. Men who had records for the work they did. You ask why certain big firms erecting big office buildings cannot compete on city work. There must be a reason for it, but I don't think you can find it in the Employment Bureau. It ought to be found right here. These men who have these contracts must be made to explain how they can do that work for the price they bid on it.

Coun. NORTON—The councilor from the West End reminds me of one of my favorite topics, and that is the question of the automatic machine. In the next year contracts are going to be let amounting to millions of dollars, and I want you to know how few men are actually put to work under these contracts amounting to millions in the City of Boston. There is the great question of today, colleagues—not Prohibition, not the Tariff, not the London Naval Conference, but the great question of this day is the question of unemployment, due to the intrusion of automatic machinery among the forty-five million workers of America. That's the great question in America today, and next year you will see it become predominant—not Prohibition, not the Tariff, but bread. And as we watch these millions of dollars being spent, just observe how few men are employed. Walk over here to South Boston, the Strandway, where the Tomasello job is going on, and you will not count fifty men, where over a million dollars is being spent. Later on, Mr. President, I would like to introduce an order to the effect that the Mayor of Boston be requested that where possible he ask the department heads to eliminate the automatic machine, the automatic digger, the automatic pipelayer and put in their place some of these men we are now paying from the City Poor Department to do the work. Lay off the automatic machine as long as there are home-owners and family heads out of work. I am not against the automatic machine, but I want you to recognize it is an acute, a chronic problem. I suppose the greatest study of that problem has been given to it in contemporaneous times by the United States Senator from New York, a former Justice of the New York Supreme Court, Senator Charles Wagner. He says this—and this is to the Senate of the United States:

"This is not only an acute problem, but my research, my study of the unemployment problem in America, shows it not only to be acute, but chronic. And it will not be over this year or next year. And not only is it indigenous to America, but it is world-wide, wherever industry takes the strategic place in the life of a nation."

Germany, said Senator Wagner, with 1,600,000 men, for the rest of this generation to live on a dole. The thriftiest nation in all Europe, and one of the thrifty nations of all time, the present German nation! In England over 800,000 people today depending upon a dole that averages twenty-five cents a day for food! The difference between starvation and living! This world-wide condition is here. You are going to see more of it in the headlines of the newspapers. You are going to have more people come to you seeking employment, and even you men who have served the city for so many years in political life, while you may have gone through past periods when unemployment was acute—I am going to predict to you, gentlemen, that this present problem that is here now will be here for many years, and as the months go by it will become more acute. I am going to introduce, a little later on, an order that his Honor the Mayor be asked that where possible on city work, where these millions are being spent, they eliminate the automatic machines that eliminate the hand labor of the workers.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I listened with some interest to the remarks of the gentleman from Hyde Park, who was not here under the last administration, under whose leadership in this city the machine of business allowing alien labor to get a foothold in this city was operating—a machine not run by gasoline or coal. I agree with much that he said with reference to the incoming of the machine and its driving of hand labor out of the fields of industry here in Boston. But I still insist that on a job such as the East Boston job, a job such as the Governor square job, on street improvements aggregating anywhere from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000 hundreds of men can be put to work, or at work, and will be put to work. The reason that I named the director of the Employment Bureau is because he is paid for that duty. He has a staff of assistants down there. That is where you and I and the next councilor send a man for a job, and if there is one department in the City of Boston that ought to know how many citizens are out of work in Boston today, and probably does know, it is the Employment Bureau, vested with real authority to go around, like you or I cannot go around, to a contractor and back him up to a wall with a figurative gun and say, "I am placed in charge by the Mayor of the City of Boston of the unemployed of this city. As an official of the City of Boston I want, in writing, within twenty minutes, the names and voting residence of every man that you have on a job working for the City of Boston, and I further say to you, right up against the wall, that if you do not file this information with me before next Monday we will have prosecutions brought against you by the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston." That is why I send it to Mr. Shields, because he has got some official sanction. That is why I say to Mr. Shields, "You have got authority to back these 'babies' to the wall, and make them either hire citizens to do the work of this city or go out of business." [Applause.]

Coun. COX—Mr. President, I am very much interested in this order. I was rather interested to learn what the councilman from Dorchester read about city inspectors seeing that this ordinance was enforced. Evidently the inspectors have not seen that it was enforced. I suggested to the councilor from Dorchester that the inspector on the job, on the contract, get from the contractor a list of those employed on the job, because he is in a position to know whether or not there are twenty men or thirty men; he is in a position to check up that list and to furnish that list to Mr. Shields, and thereby get some teeth into the thing. It seems to me that it is not any more than right that citizens should have the preference, but unless you get some teeth into the ordinance it will not amount to anything. I think if the city inspectors on the job were compelled to furnish a list of those employed on the job and their voting residences, there would be a chance to check up and find out whether or not they were citizens.

Coun. MAHONEY—It is only about a month or six weeks ago that I introduced an order before this Council here, requesting his Honor the Mayor to order contractors doing work for the City of Boston to employ not only citizens of New England, but citizens of Boston and registered voters of Boston, and I am still waiting for a reply from him.

Coun. KELLY—I might say that my colleague from Dorchester has introduced one of the finest orders I have heard here so far in my short six months that I have served as a representative of the public from Ward 15. I want to say further that people, men and women, and especially the fathers of families, with four or five children apiece, have come to my home and asked me what I could do for them in the line of getting them employment by some contractor who is living from the city's pocketbook. I have given them letters to some of these contractors, and they go down to the contractors, and some of the contractors are not even kind enough to grant them an interview. They come back to me and say, "All right, we went down to see him, but he refused to see us," or, "He said, 'There is nothing doing'." And, as Mr. Wilson said, there are plenty of alien laborers on these different jobs. And, as I said, it is one of the best orders that has ever been introduced here.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, I might say I am fully in accord with everything the councilor from Dorchester has said on this situation, but I also agree with my colleague, the councilor on my left, because I think a lot of this is due to the underbidding of contracts. I have talked about the Medford street contract, for instance. That street is less than four years old, and still the contractor that laid out the street is over there repairing probably 150 holes because the body is not in the street. The city experts estimated the cost of that job at $125,000, but the contractor did the job at $80,000 or $84,000. The work is not properly done. I am not going to say anything about the employment of aliens. Almost every member of this Council knows that is going on. The citizen is not getting a break. Everything Councilor Wilson says is the truth, but everything that Councilor Fitzgerald says is also the truth. It is the underbidding of these jobs, and taking it out of the hearts and bodies of those men. That is the biggest item in a contract—labor. They are supposed to pay those men $5 a day and they are working them at $3. They are working the heart's blood out of those men, and I think that something radical should be done.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, there has been a suggestion by my colleague that we place teeth in this law. It comes to me that Kansas City has a law with reference to aliens working on city work. Any citizen of Kansas City who reports an alien working on city work and that report is proved to be correct, is paid $5 by the City Treasurer. It might be possible that we would clean up a lot of this alien situation as regards municipal work if we placed some practical provision in this so-called ordinance.

President LYNCH—Councilor Wilson moves the suspension of the rules and the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rules.

On motion of Coun. RUBY it was voted that when the Council adjourn, it adjourn to meet two weeks from today.

On motion of Coun. ARNOLD the Council voted to adjourn at 3.45 p. m., to meet on Monday, July 21, 1930, at 2 p. m.

CORRECTED REMARKS OF COUNCILOR CURTIS AS APPEARING ON PAGE 220 OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

Mr. President, this is simply an order requesting the Traffic Commissioner to give consideration to this matter. It seems to me that if there is one obstruction to traffic in our streets which is entirely unnecessary and inexcusable, it is that caused by the stopping of vehicles when obstructed by traffic ahead of them in such a manner as to block traffic through an intersecting street. When traffic is obstructed on a street, vehicles will pile up one behind the other in such a manner as to obstruct cross streets frequently a block or two away from the crossing where the traffic is held up. Certainly if a vehicle is going to have to stop anyway it might as well stop a few feet back and leave the crossing clear, and it is inexcusable for vehicles to push ahead and block the crossing. Frequently they will not even let the cross-traffic through when they could do so by moving forward or backward a few feet. I know that this occurs very frequently in Ward 5, as it does, of course, all over the city. For example, vehicles going down Mt. Vernon street, which is now an important traffic artery, are frequently unable to cross Charles street although Mt. Vernon street itself beyond Charles street is perfectly clear merely because traffic on Charles street has been held up at the crossing at Beacon street and a line of traffic has piled up and blocked the intersection at Mt. Vernon street.

This order merely requests the Traffic Commissioner to give this matter consideration, and if deemed advisable, to issue an order that it should be the duty of drivers in such cases where traffic is obstructed ahead of them, not to stop on a crossing, thereby blocking traffic along the intersecting street also. I was going to suggest that we pass an ordinance to that effect, but the clerk tells me that under the 1929 Act the matter is under the control of the Traffic Commission. So this is merely a request that they take up the matter. I move a suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

AIRPORTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The number of airports in the country continues to grow steadily, and the listing compiled by the Department of Commerce showed 1,520 airports in operation on October 2 of this year. Of these, 442 were municipal airports, and 468 were privately owned and operated. The rest included army fields, naval air stations, Department of Commerce intermediate fields, marked auxiliary fields and miscellaneous others. As will be noted, the municipal airports comprise 29 per cent of the total number now in use in the country. The fact that 442 cities of various sizes have indicated their interest by investing substantial funds in the purchase of property and construction of these airports illustrates the stability of aviation today. As indicative of the volume of traffic already in evidence at municipal airports, it might be noted that in a recent representative week the Des Moines airport showed 88 airplanes arriving and 86 leaving. Oakland, California, showed 55 arriving, 52 leaving; while the Tulsa, Oklahoma, airport showed 272 arriving and 265 leaving. These figures are constantly increasing, and they show that the city airport is already being used.

PORT OF BOSTON.

Boston Harbor comprises an area of about 47 square miles (exclusive of the islands), including all the expanse of tidewater within a straight line from Point Allerton to Point Shirley and extending therefrom to the mainland. It is the best of natural harbors, near open sea, sheltered and spacious for anchorage; main ship channel 35 feet in depth at mean low water, increasing to 40 feet from President Roads to open sea; new dredging operations in charge of United States engineers are under way for increasing depth of said main channel to 40 feet; waterfront (i. e., lineal pier space) 40 miles, 6 miles fronting on 30 feet depth at low water.

Commonwealth Pier No. 5, South Boston, 1,200 feet long, 400 feet wide, accommodating five 600-foot ships at one time, 40 feet depth at mean low water on both sides, with three 2-story fireproof buildings of steel and concrete construction, containing 900,000 square feet of floor space, total cost of this enterprise to State, $4,500,000. Commonwealth Pier No. 6, South Boston (Fish Pier), buildings on same erected by lessee, Boston Fish Market Corporation, cost to State, $1,487,361. Commonwealth Pier, No. 1, East Boston, 900 feet long, costing State $764,600 for site and $426,674 for construction. New dry dock at South Boston (probably the largest in world), completed in 1919, 1,200 feet long and 120 wide, costing $3,169,651 and taken by United States Government at total cost.

Islands in Boston Harbor over 3 acres in area, 17, with total area of 965 acres; Long Island the largest, or 215.5 acres. Owned by United States, 392 acres; by City of Boston, 334 acres. Number of wharves, 143, of which eight are owned by the city.

There are 38 foreign steamship lines with regular sailings to and from Boston, ten coastwise lines and three intercoastal. In 1915 a revision of the harbor lines was made and the project undertaken whereby 600 acres of flats between Governor's Island and Jeffries Pt. will be filled in and used for extensive commercial developments under State control. About 175 acres of flats have recently been filled in and added to the land area of East Boston and 160 acres to that of South Boston.

In April, 1918, the Government decided to establish its Army Supply Base on a portion of the Commonwealth lands in South Boston. About 57.6 acres were purchased of the State, the price being $1,317,510, soon followed by the construction of two pier sheds, each 920 feet long, a wharf shed and other buildings, including one of the largest storehouses in the world, built of reinforced concrete, eight stories high, 1,638 feet long, 126 feet wide and with floor space of over 1,650,000 square feet. The total outlay for the plant was $26,000,000.

Total expenditure by State for improvement of Boston Harbor $22,575,827 from 1859 to November 30, 1927, inclusive; in the same period, there was expended additionally $951,992 on small channels; total Federal expenditure from 1790 to June 30, 1927, $13,258,846.

FLAG DAYS.

By order of the City Council it is the duty of the City Messenger to have the national colors displayed upon the public flagstaffs on the following days:

Franklin's Birthday, January 17; Lincoln's Birthday, February 12; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Evacuation Day, March 17; Patriot's Day, April 19; Grant's Birthday, April 27; Memorial Day, May 30; Anniversary of Adoption of National Colors, June 14; Bunker Hill Day, June 17; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, September (first Monday); Anniversary of Founding of Boston, September 17; Columbus Day, October 12; Armistice Day, November 11.

THE COST OF DIPHTHERIA.

Diphtheria costs New York City over $5,000,000 annually, according to Dr. Shirley W. Wynne, Health Commissioner of New York, whose statement, given in a news release from the department, is based on the calculations of the value of the lives lost, the cost of hospital care, and the expense of caring for patients in their homes.

Last year the loss occasioned by diphtheria in New York City was as follows:

Value of 642 human lives lost.....	$4,575,000
Cost of hospital care for 2,976 cases in the Contagious Disease Hospitals.....	391,000
Cost of caring for 7,800 cases in private homes.....	273,000

As against an annual economic loss of over $5,000,000 a year it is stated that an expenditure of less than 10 per cent of this sum will suffice to wipe out diphtheria and thus save the community $4,500,000 annually.

Figures by the New York City Department of Health show that thus far this year over 25,000 children have been immunized against diphtheria, nearly 12,000 having been protected by private physicians. The growing interest on the part of parents is well shown in the steady increase in the number of children immunized, which increased from 555 in the first week of the present campaign to 4,702 during the first week in April, or almost ninefold.

MUNICIPALITY TAKES OVER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AIRPORT.

Oklahoma City has voted $425,000 in bonds for the enlargement and improvement of its municipal airport. The Aviation Committee of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce has operated the airport for the past four years and was largely instrumental in putting over the bond-issue campaign. The port will in the future be operated by the city as a strictly municipal project.

When completed, the new field will comprise 360 acres and will meet all of the qualifications for an A 1A airport as set forth by the United States Department of Commerce.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS REDUCE BALTIMORE TRAFFIC TOLL.

An analysis of traffic accidents at street intersections in Baltimore indicates that the automatic traffic signal is proving very effective in reducing the number of such accidents.

There were 419 traffic accidents at all intersections covered in the report issued by the Baltimore Safety Council for the first six months of 1927, before the signals were installed. In direct contrast, only 259 such accidents were recorded for the first six months of this year, with the signals in operation.

The casualties were: one person killed and 129 injured before the installation of the signals, as compared with two killed but only 92 injured after. A reduction in the number of accidents was reported at thirty-two intersections, following the installation of the signals, while seventeen other intersections have shown little or no change as yet, and ten actually have experienced an increase since the use of the signals.

THROUGH TRAFFIC STREETS.

Many a city government, confronted almost unawares by the ever-increasing traffic problem, has seized upon the "through street" idea as the least expensive sop to those who clamor for something to relieve the distress. This situation is reflected in many city traffic ordinances which give absolute right-of-way to vehicles on any of the "arterial highways" included in a long list, and which fail entirely to provide for stop requirements, signs, enforcement facilities, or public education. Unfortunately, traffic regulation is not so simple. It cannot be successfully accomplished by merely designating certain through streets.

Still, through streets are useful. Their successful application depends only on an understanding of what can and what cannot be expected of them, and on a realization of where they fit into the traffic control picture. Consider a street as it develops with the increasing traffic from a minor highway to a heavily traveled main thoroughfare. Traffic control will logically develop in successive steps something like these:

1. No control at all.
2. Slow or stop signs at isolated intersections.
3. Through streets with stop signs at every intersection.
4. Occasional automatic signals introduced where there is heavy cross traffic.
5. Complete flexible progressive signal control.
6. Grade separation at important intersecting streets.
7. Elevated or depressed roadway without intersecting streets.

MAYOR CURLEY WINS GREAT PRAISE FOR HIS ATTITUDE TOWARD NATIONAL CRISES THAT MAY FACE THE UNITED STATES—CALLED BLIND CRITICISM OF PRESIDENT USELESS AND CALLED UPON ALL TO AID THE NATION'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE—SAYS SEASONAL UNEMPLOYMENT, A PROBLEM PRESIDENT HOOVER SEEKS TO SOLVE, IS MOST VEXATIOUS HE HAS TO FACE.

Mayor Curley has received much praise and wide favorable comment since the publication of the article published in the Boston Post on Sunday, July 20, in which he called on all to aid the President whenever any crisis of national import confronts the nation. The article, as it appeared in the Post, was as follows:

[REPRINT FROM THE BOSTON "POST," SUNDAY, JULY 20, 1930.]

Mayor James M. Curley today comments on the article contributed by former President Coolidge, which appeared in the "Post" on July 18. In that article Mr. Coolidge wrote:

It is human nature to blame some one else for our misfortunes. When the people are prosperous we hear little criticism of the President. Support for him comes from all sides when the country has little need of it. But if prosperity diminishes thoughtless voices will be raised against him and his support will diminish when the country has most need of it.

This is not only usually an unfair but always a shortsighted and thoroughly suicidal policy. Under a parliamentary system the government could be changed. Ours is in for four years. Confidence in the President is almost identical with confidence in the country and in ourselves. With public support he can do a great deal to save any situation. Moreover, if he cannot save it, probably no one else can.

It may be proper for the opposition party in the press and the Congress generally to oppose, but in the country at large all responsible people should seek to cooperate with the President in the discharge of his duties. He is the chief executive of all the nation. In time of conflict people are urged to support the President to win the war, at other times the same principle may require that he be supported to win the peace.

BY JAMES M. CURLEY
MAYOR OF BOSTON

The Boston Post in its series of articles contributed by former President of the United States Calvin Coolidge is rendering a genuine service to the American republic. The psychological value of these articles is already manifest in a growing spirit of optimism with truth as basis, rather than vague, indefinite, false rumors. In the article appearing in the Boston Post on July 18, former President Coolidge directs attention to the injustice of holding the President of the United States directly responsible for conditions which exist in the country, while failing to contribute anything of constructive character through which may be possible a change from those conditions which are so predominant as to be unbearable. Among other things former President Coolidge directs attention to the fact that in time of conflict the people are urged to support the President to win a war in which the country may be engaged, while in time of peace there is a sheer absence of that harmonious cooperation without which a war cannot be waged successfully.

Opportunists in the political party represented by Mr. Hoover and blind partisans in the party of the opposition hold the President of the United States responsible for the economic depression which today deprives more than 1,000,000 able-bodied, competent men of the opportunity of earning a livelihood. The President of the United States is condemned because the Lord in His generosity has seen fit to bless the nation with bumper crops, yet the only tangible solution which at the present time the critics have presented is in the nature of a false security, which if applied in the case of the agriculturists will tomorrow be demanded by the industrialists.

The only panacea adopted for the relief of the unemployment is the dole system or unemployment insurance, so called, which has represented annually since 1920 expenditure by the government of Great Britain in excess of $200,000,000. The ultimate result of the dole system should mean in a period of three decades the disappearance of the type of Englishman that the world has known during the last five centuries, the domineering type, whose substitute will be found in the beneficiaries of the dole system, servile mendicants, lacking in the essentials either for the establishment of government or the preservation of government.

President's Opponents Illogical.

It is true the problem of unemployment and poverty has existed from the beginning of time, but there is no justification for permitting it to continue in a nation so rich in inventive genius, great material resources and wealth as the United States of America. There has never been a time in the history of the United States of America when money was more plentiful or could be borrowed at a lower rate of interest than at the present time. And surely a nation that has achieved, as in the case of America, in the short period of less than a century and a half, and solved the most gigantic problems should, provided there is the right kind of cooperation and effort, experience no difficulty in solving present-day problems. The President of the United States is criticized because of the tariff bill recently enacted, and, singular as it may appear, the most bitter denunciation arises from that element in America who advocate an absolute closed door policy for all immigrants seeking admission. There is no logic in the exclusion of the immigrant and the admission of the products of the country from which the immigrant might come.

URGES CITIZENS OF BOSTON TO TEACH THEIR CHILDREN DEVOTION TO COUNTRY, SERVICE, SACRIFICE AND COURAGE THAT AMERICA MAY NEVER BE LACKING FOR RESPONSE WHEN THE NATION CALLS — MAYOR CURLEY OFFICIATES AT THE DEDICATION OF THE KEARSARGE MEMORIAL AT MARINE PARK, SOUTH BOSTON.

Upon the occasion of the dedication of the Kearsarge Memorial at Marine Park, South Boston, on Saturday afternoon, July 19, Mayor Curley spoke as follows:

Worthy Commander, Reverend Father, honored members of the Grand Army, representatives of the Navy in the Civil War days, members of patriotic organizations, Kearsarge Naval Veterans Association, representatives of the Navy and Marine Corps, and fellow citizens:

I have a keen and poignant regret today at the absence of one of the most patriotic, loyal and devoted Americans it was ever my privilege to know—the absence of Col. George A. Hosley. We have often heard the expression, "He died in the harness." I know of no individual to whom this is more applicable than to this great, rugged character who served Uncle Sam as a volunteer in the trying period from 1861 to 1865, George Hosley. His last act was to determine on the site where this memorial should be located here at Marine Park on the shores of the Atlantic Ocean.

He was carried from here semi-conscious and died in a very few hours, ending a lifetime devoted to the service of his country—four years of service in the Navy during the Civil War, and then that greater and equally valued service after the war had terminated, speaking in our public schools and before gatherings everywhere upon the importance and value of good citizenship, and the necessity of patriotism, if a nation created and governed as our own has been is to endure. I don't know how many years longer Almighty God is going to permit to remain with us this once truly tremendous aggregation, the Grand Army of the Republic, numbering at one time nearly 2,800,000 men who answered the call of country prepared to do, and if need be die, that the Union might be preserved, that every star be retained in the flag, and the shackles stricken from the black man and the declaration of equality set forth in the Constitutions and the Bill of Rights, to become a reality.

VETERANS CHEERED.

Of the once mighty host of 2,800,000, we have in our Commonwealth today less than 4,000. A few of the survivors of the Civil War are with us. I am going to ask them to stand and I am going to ask everybody to give three cheers to the men who by their service and devotion made possible the preservation of the Union under Lincoln.

During the Civil War the North, for the defence and the preservation of the Union, was required to fight against not only the Southern States but Great Britain, who sought the division and destruction of the American nation. We found, as the war progressed, not only supplies of contraband of every character being sent to aid the South in its movement for the disintegration and destruction of the American Nation, but we found American shipping ravaged on every waterway of the world; ravaged not by ships built in southern shipyards and not always by ships manned by the sailors of the South. The most injurious agency for the destruction of American shipping was built in the shipyards of Great Britain.

One of these ships was known as the "Alabama." As time progressed it became known as the scourge of the seas. During the period that it operated it destroyed 364 ships of the North. It sunk sixty-eight of those ships. Here in Massachusetts, where the men have been accustomed to go down to the sea in every conceivable character of ship almost from the founding of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, there lived in the Roxbury section a citizen by the name of Winslow, afterwards captain and later commander of the great fighting ship, to commemorate the memory of which, this memorial will stand for all time.

ROXBURY BOY A HERO.

Captain Winslow was a Roxbury boy. He was commissioned as captain of the "Kearsarge" and with a crew of American sailors, made up largely of Boston and Gloucester, Cape Ann and Cape Cod men. He sailed in search of the terror of the seas, the most formidable fighting craft at that time in the whole world. He sailed with that undaunted courage that has ever characterized the annals of the American Navy. He sailed with the same standard of courage that was evidenced when our Navy had its beginning. You recall the story when war was declared against the mother country—so called—declared with the realization that if that war was to be carried on to a successful termination it was only possible through the capture of the ships of the enemy. The first capture made was that by a gentleman known as Michael O'Brien down in Machais, Maine. He, with his six sons, conducted a fishing business. They captured an English sloop and with this sloop they captured another one and thus made possible the beginning of the American Navy. The same character of daring and courage that was evidenced at the beginning of the navy was evidenced by the first commander, the father of the American Navy, referred to by the presiding officer, Commodore Jack Barry.

The same standard of courage has been evidenced on sea in every war in which America has been engaged. But most of the engagements were in our own waters near home. What shall we say of the character of the courage of Captain Winslow and his men of the "Kearsarge" who, to engage the enemy, sailed across the ocean and fought the enemy, first in English waters and then off the coast of France? They met the enemy on a Sunday morning in 1864, sixty-six years ago, off the coast of Cherbourg, France, and one of the most memorable battles in the annals of the American Navy was waged under the leadership of Captain Winslow and the men of the "Kearsarge." When the smoke of battle cleared away after two and one half hours of fighting the "Alabama" had gone to Davy Jones' locker and the "Kearsarge" returned triumphant to America.

THREE MEMBERS REMAIN.

Of that one foremost fighting crew there are left at the present time only three members, but the romantic spirit of heroism and valor and of comradeship generated by the men of the "Kearsarge" has so impressed the community that good men, to a number greater than ever known in the history of the Kearsarge Naval Veterans Association, men who served in the Civil War, men who served in the Spanish-American War, men who served in the Mexican Border and men who served in the World War, are now enrolled as members of the Kearsarge Naval Veterans Association, pledged to carry on the ideals and the aims and the aspiration of the men who, by their devotion and by their courage, made possible one of the most luminous pages in the history of America sixty-four years ago off the coast of Cherbourg, France.

We have a great heritage in the story of the American Navy. I trust that here on the border of the ocean, within sight of Castle Island and Fort Independence, where Mason and Slidell were incarcerated during the Civil War for conspiring between the South and Great Britain for the destruction of the American Union. To this place with its health-giving recreation possibilities will come, year after year, countless persons, present and future citizens of the United States. I pray God that they may tarry for a while, that they may ask someone to unfold to them the story which these inanimate objects, the chain and the anchor, may convey, that they may learn the story of devotion to country, the story of courage, the story of service, the story of sacrifice in the hour when the nation trembled in the balance; that they may not only learn the story but that they may impart it to their children, and their children to their children, so that out of the service and sacrifice of the men of the "Kearsarge," when the last surviving member has answered the supreme roll call, this memorial will still carry on, conveying its message of loyalty, love, service, sacrifice and devotion to our common country and to the Stars and Stripes.

NEW PROPOSAL TO AID UNEMPLOYMENT.

His Honor the Mayor, on July 20, received the following communication from Commissioner Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department:

DEAR SIR,—In order to further help the unemployment problem it is suggested that time off instead of overtime be granted to as many employees of the Public Works Department as practicable and utilize the money saving for the employment of temporary employees without additional expense. It is believed that employment for at least thirty men would be made possible in this way.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH A. ROURKE.

PLAN OF RELIEF FOR FARMER.

The inclusion in the tariff bill of a provision permitting the President of the United States, where rates prescribed in the tariff bill fail to provide the proper measure of protection for American industry, to revise those rates is an essential happily included which should serve as a protection. The high tariff schedules upon manufactured goods against which the enemies of the President and the tariff have inveighed are necessary to prevent the destruction of American industries which today provide opportunities for livelihood for hundreds of thousands of our citizens. The beneficial effect of these schedules should shortly be manifest.

For years the complaint of the farmer that he was not getting enough for his product has been ringing through the land, and desperate efforts have been made to relieve the situation. A farm relief board was organized early in the present administration, and yet the farmer is as badly off today as he has ever been in our history, and what to do for him seems to baffle the ingenuity of man. Time was when a bumper crop was hailed with enthusiasm all over the country, but now a bumper crop means over-production at a time when the yield of a year or two back has not been disposed of. A short time ago I suggested to President Hoover that a fifty-year loan, without interest, of $150,000,000 be made to the Republic of China, to purchase farm products in this country and thus relieve the awful condition of the starving millions in that far-off land, which has ever felt a close and intimate relationship to the United States. If such a plan could be carried through, and I see no reason why it should not be, the farmer here would be able to sell his product and at the same time relief be brought to the people of China. Thus, two great sections of the civilized world would be assisted, and a general confidence in some way be spread over the face of the earth.

SEASONAL UNEMPLOYMENT BIG EVIL.

There is no doubt the people of the United States at the present time are in a pessimistic mood. Everywhere there is talk of business depression, and it is hard, too, for them to reconcile themselves to the situation by being told that this depression is not local but world wide. Now, of course, the President, as a representative not of a party, but of the entire people, naturally stands in a position of influence superior to that of any other person in the country, and it is his duty, as it seems to me, so to regulate his conduct, so to initiate and carry through legislation that the mind of the people generally shall change from one of rank pessimism to one of cheerful optimism. To my mind the grave danger that threatens in the present situation is seasonal unemployment, and I believe that if this danger could be eradicated a better feeling would exist, and the people feel measurably prosperous, and would as a consequence become far happier. If some plan could be devised to remove this threat of seasonal unemployment, whether through the President, with the cooperation of the subdivisions that constitute the nation, namely, the states, cities, towns and counties, if he should be successful in developing a program for continued progression in the matter of improvements, if he could develop a strong and sufficient faith in our future so that the people might not be depressed, but might rather take on a hopeful and confident mood, much of the distrust would be overcome.

SHOULD SUPPORT, SUSTAIN HOOVER.

Someone has tritely said that the administration of President Hoover, being an engineering administration rather than a political one, is at present in the blueprint stage, and this being the case it is the duty of every individual in America to support and sustain the President in his program until we have passed this particular stage. With a courage and optimism unequalled in the last half century President Hoover, during his campaign for the office which he now holds, set forth that it was his purpose to encourage the opportunity for the individual citizen in America, and if possible end seasonal employment through consistent, cooperative action upon the part of all agencies in America. No proposition ever advocated by any man in the last eighteen centuries is of equal importance, and the consummation of the project as outlined by him, if successful, would not only prove a blessing to every individual in America, but would serve as a permanent guarantee of the most exalted patriotism and loyalty to the entire citizenship.

WORK AT GOVERNOR SQUARE FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE SUBWAY AND THE RELIEF OF TRAFFIC OFFICIALLY BEGUN. MAYOR CURLEY TURNS FIRST SHOVEL OF DIRT. PLANS TO DO WORK BY DAY LABOR AND THUS GIVE RELIEF TO ACUTE UNEMPLOYMENT SITUATION THAT PRESSES.

On Monday morning, July 21, in the presence of officials of Boston, Brookline, and Newton, and the Trustees of the Boston Elevated, members of the Transit Commission, with Chairman Thomas F. Sullivan as presiding officer, Park Commissioner Long, Corporation Counsel Samuel Silverman, Traffic Commissioner Joseph A. Conry, Chairman Thomas J. Hurley of the Street Commissioners, and City Councilor Edward M. Gallagher, Mayor Curley turned the first sod of earth marking the beginning of the work necessary to the construction of the Governor Square subway extension.

Mayor Curley was introduced by Col. Thomas F. Sullivan, chairman of the Boston Transit Department, under whose auspices the extension will be constructed.

Mayor Curley said, "In 1914, during my first administration, the problem of improving facilities in East Boston transportation was so acute that I advocated a change in the subway construction of Maverick square, and because Boston is the creature of the state it was necessary to secure from the Legislature the authority to make the changes necessary for the welfare of the people in that district, but it was not until I assumed office in 1921 that the improvements previously advocated were inaugurated.

INDUSTRIAL DEPRESSION PROBLEM.

The most important problem facing the country in 1921 was the solution of an industrial depression, with a wave of unemployment due to after-war conditions. Men who had served their country faithfully in the great war were unable to find employment and consequently were compelled to apply to the Soldiers' Relief Department to sustain themselves and their families. The amount necessary for soldiers' relief was over a million dollars a year, and demands were increasing so rapidly that activities of other important city departments were being curtailed to provide funds for this purpose.

It had been the custom to construct subways and tunnels by contract and, as usual, the contractors did not hesitate to import cheap and un-American labor for this work. After the close of the World War there was an opinion prevalent that veterans were chronic loafers, but I believed that men who had the courage to fight and die, if need be, would work if given the opportunity, and after considerable agitation I succeeded in making an arrangement with the Civil Service Commission whereby men on the Soldiers' Relief pay roll were given preferential treatment, and during the three years that this work was in progress over 2,000 veterans were given employment which equipped them for trades in after life.

This work involved the employment, in addition to a large number of laborers, of carpenters, ironworkers, bricklayers, plumbers, plasterers, electricians, and other mechanics. Appropriations for the Soldiers' Relief Department were accordingly cut down and the taxpayers of the city were saved over a million dollars. This policy conserved the manhood and self-respect of the service man by giving him a chance for honest work and American wages, and his example was one of the forces that brought courage to the discouraged veteran and his family, diminished depression and solved the problem of unemployment in 1922 and '23 and '24.

The completion of the work in record time, the benefits that accrued to the people of East Boston not only in the abolishment of the tunnel toll, in social values provided by a closer and speedier communication with other sections of the community, by increased property values also brought prosperity and happiness to the people served by the Rapid Transit System in the entire area north of Boston. Engineers and public officials, as well as social workers all over the country, heartily commended this policy and practically all the men employed on that work have since qualified for positions in other city departments and with contractors.

TRANSPORTATION VITAL INTEREST.

Transportation in an area so densely populated as Boston has always been of vital interest to me in the consideration of the problems affecting our city and our neighbors. Thus it was a matter of much satisfaction for me to be the instrument through which our citizens in Hyde Park were given the benefits of a one-fare system. For a period of twenty years various bills to solve this problem had been presented to the Legislature without success. Finally, I called to my office the trustees of the Elevated, the trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts, which operated the car lines in Hyde Park, and the Boston Transit Commission. Before the conference broke up everybody agreed to support my bill for the purchase of the Hyde Park lines by the City of Boston and their lease to the Elevated with the same rate of fare that existed in every other portion of the city. On September 1, 1923, the single fare became operative.

The terminus of the Dorchester Rapid Transit at Andrew Square was of little value to the hundred thousand residents of the great Dorchester section and repeated attempts to extend the rapid transit line to Dorchester were without success. One of my first acts as Mayor in my second administration was to secure the passage of chapter 480 of the Acts of 1923 providing for the extension along the lines of the New Haven Railroad and thence over the old Shawmut Branch to Mattapan at a cost of about $10,000,000. This line has been in operation since last December. This unique rapid transit line, combining as it does portions of tunnel, overhead, surface and bus facilities, means the saving of millions of hours in time to the residents and business interests of the Dorchester district. It has provided homes in the outlying district in pleasant surroundings and has greatly increased the city's revenue by adding new taxable property.

The section in the vicinity of Park square from the time of the removal of the Boston & Providence Railroad was in a decadent condition. I advocated the breaking through of new streets in this section and especially urged the need of transit facilities. I secured the passage of chapter 342 of the Acts of 1916 to permit the construction of a station of the Boylston Street Subway at Arlington street and despite great opposition my belief has been more than justified by the upbuilding of this entire community for business purposes, including the erection of the Park Square Building and the Statler and Ritz-Carlton hotels.

SCOLLAY SQUARE IMPROVEMENTS.

For years vehicular and pedestrian traffic in and around Scollay square was intolerable due in a great measure to a hideous subway entrance which obscured the vision of pedestrians and motorists. I secured the approval of the trustees of the Elevated Railway Company to join with me in removing this blot and propose to set the wheels in motion for the removal of a similar obstruction in Adams square.

Although there has been considerable discussion in recent years regarding the intolerable conditions at Governor square legislative permission to solve this problem was obtained by me just before leaving office in 1925 by the passage of chapter 341 of that year, which authorized the extension of the Boylston Street Subway under Governor square, out Commonwealth avenue and Beacon street. Nothing was done in this matter until I again took up the matter in January of this year, and it seemed as though it would again go by default, but a conference was arranged, and as a result the 1925 bill was amended, and under this new bill the City of Boston is authorized to construct the extension by day labor forces.

It is no innovation for this work to be done by day labor under the auspices of the city, for the conditions that obtained in 1921 are similar to those prevailing today, and because of the demonstrated ability and integrity of the chairman of the Boston Transit Department I am confident that by the employment of 400 laborers and mechanics, drawn mostly from the veterans of our Army, Navy and Marine Corps, that this work will progress as well as did the work of the East Boston Tunnel under the same auspices.

TO BE LINKED WITH NEIGHBORS.

The present proposition provides for three specific objects. The most important is that it links us closer to Brookline and Newton, our nearest neighbors, undoubtedly the strongest links in the Greater Boston chain. If the relief sought through this construction is successful, and I know it will be, it will bring about a closer union of the social and economic units that comprise the area known as Metropolitan Boston. The second result will be better transportation for thousands of people, and the third will be an opportunity for employment for men with serious obligations. I will not tolerate any interference in the conduct of this work. I am confident of the ability of the city to complete the job, and have no hesitancy in expressing the belief that a necessary honest day's work for a day's pay, based on a policy of equality that characterized the successful completion of the East Boston Tunnel station, will be forthcoming.

LAND-TAKING IN WEST ROXBURY.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly West Roxbury and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, supposed to belong to C. and R. Construction Company, bounded:

Northeasterly by Stony brook, forty-nine and 34-100 feet; easterly by location of the Boston and Providence Railroad Corporation, and by land hereinafter described as taken from said corporation, one hundred thirteen and 19-100 feet; southerly by other land of said company, forty feet; and westerly by the same, one hundred forty-two and 63-100 feet, containing fifty-one hundred and seventeen square feet, more or less.

MAYOR CURLEY AND TRAFFIC COMMISSIONER CONRY WINNING MUCH PRAISE FOR CONTROL SYSTEM JUST PUT INTO OPERATION.

Mayor Curley and Traffic Commissioner Conry have been receiving the commendation of the entire citizenship of Boston for the success that has attended the inauguration of the traffic light system by which auto and pedestrian movements along the downtown section are now being governed. The system was set in motion on Sunday morning when Chairman Conry, turned a switch in the basement of the City Hall Annex.

The result was so magical that even the drivers of Fire Department apparatus marveled to find Washington or Tremont streets so cleared.

The condition created made it possible for the operator of an automobile to start from Boylston and Washington streets and drive at a speed of seventeen miles an hour without stop to Haymarket square, or, if he wished to turn up Court street, to continue through Scollay square and along Cambridge street to Bowdoin street.

Tests with automobiles in which were riding more than a score of traffic experts and engineers proved that the traffic signal light system which Commissioner Conry put into operation by turning the switch will greatly reduce the troubles of automobile operators, if the proper cooperation is extended the service by the general public.

The system, in the opinion of those who tested it, is a success.

In order to get the results from the traffic control lights during heavy traffic conditions, the policy recently announced by Mayor James M. Curley of "Private interests must yield to public good," must be the policy for operating in the zone covered by these lights.

The physical light control system from the operating switchboard in the sub-basement of the City Hall Annex to the lights set up all through the zone guarded by No. 1 unit was declared by Commissioner Conry to be satisfactory, but much study must be made by Chief Engineer John F. Hurley and his assistants as to traffic movements and the timing of lights, before Mr. Conry will declare the system perfect and fool proof.

In order to have the new system function as arranged by the engineers, a specified speed limit must be maintained by all vehicles at all times, and today a study of speeds of various types of commercial trucks and horse-drawn vehicles will begin with the purpose in view of the putting into effect, if necessary, of rules suggested for keeping out of the zone slow-moving vehicles which tend to make inoperative the light system.

Commissioner Conry was host to nearly two score traffic engineers, students of traffic control and business men at the opening exercises at the big switchboard which automatically controls the lights in what was said to be the best "progressive signal system" in America.

Commissioner Conry, in speaking of the traffic problem in Boston, said:

"The light control system put into commission today is the most progressive system used in America. It is automatic and intended to give a free flow of traffic at an established rate of speed from one end of the system to the other. This system of traffic lights has been installed for the public benefit and to use Mayor Curley's phrase, 'private interests must yield to public good.'

"Every effort made to regulate the traffic is an action in behalf of the public. The individual who consults his own comfort ignores the convenience of somebody else; he is selfish and not a good American citizen. So with the person who parks in a forbidden spot, as our traffic and parking rules are generous and just and have been generally accepted in all large cities.

"The parking idea, objectionable to traffic authorities, is that very common one in the minds of many people that a person may drive his car into any section of the city at an early hour in the forenoon and leave that car in one spot all day long, regardless of the amount of moving traffic on the street.

"The principal advantages to be secured by establishing these signals are an increase in the safety of the streets for vehicles and walkers and a more regular flow of traffic with consequent reduction of congestion and delay.

"The suggestion has already been made that all horse-drawn vehicles be excluded from the area between Washington and Tremont streets, Stuart street and Scollay square.

"With these lights operating successfully and the wise parking rules recently recommended by Mayor Curley put into effect, Boston will emerge from the ox-cart age and soon take the lead among the cities of the world to direct traffic from the air."

The lighting service was arranged and contracted for through the American Gas Accumulator Company.

Westerly by land hereinbefore described as taken from Boston and Providence Railroad Corporation, thirty feet; northerly by other land supposed to belong to said Goodway et al., thirteen and 48-100 feet; easterly by Stony brook, fifty and 29-100 feet; and southerly by other land supposed to belong to said Goodway et al., fifty-three and 84-100 feet, containing ten hundred and ten square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 222 linear feet of 15-foot by 13-foot concrete conduit. No betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Voted, That this Board determines that the undermentioned estates sustain damages by the taking of an easement for sewerage purposes and the construction of sewerage works (Stony brook), West Roxbury district, under the order of the Board, in the amounts hereinafter respectively set against them, and awards said amounts therefor.

That being true, in the interest of economy, financially and administratively, we are recommending tonight that the two districts be merged; that Miss Towne be transferred to the vacancy now existing in the Thomas Gardner District and that Mr. Early be appointed to the combined Bowdoin-Wendell Phillips District.

CHANGE IN RANK OF WILLIAM H. J. KENNEDY

The Superintendent offered the following:

ORDERED, That the rank of William H. J. Kennedy, Principal of The Teachers College of the City of Boston, is hereby changed to that of President of The Teachers College of the City of Boston, to take effect Sept. 1, 1930.

The Superintendent stated that heretofore, under the regulations, the Superintendent of Schools ex officio is President of the Teachers College of the City of Boston. When the Normal School was reconstructed and made The Teachers College a few years ago, it was thought that during its early stages, in order that it might be kept closely in touch with the policies of the School Committee, the Superintendent, as the executive officer of the School Committee, should be the President of the College. The College is running along splendidly and it now seems to be an opportune time to make the Principal of the College the President.

Sundry amendments to the regulations will be made necessary by this change of rank and these will be submitted at a later date.

The order, as submitted by the Superintendent, passed unanimously, under a suspension of the rules and regulations.

AMENDMENT TO REGULATIONS

The following was offered:

ORDERED, That the Regulations are hereby amended as follows:

Sect. 320. 1. The Superintendent may grant leaves of absence to teachers, members of the supervising staff, librarians, secretaries, clerical assistants, bookkeepers, and matrons for the causes and not to exceed the periods herein set forth:

Sect. 338, paragraph 1. In the third line strike out the word—and—and insert to immediately follow the word—bookkeepers—the words “and matrons”—so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

Sect. 338. 1. No deduction shall be made from the salaries of teachers, members of the supervising staff, secretaries, clerical assistants, bookkeepers, and matrons who may be granted leave of absence for the reasons and not to exceed the periods herein set forth:

LAND AND BUILDING APPROPRIATIONS.

CITY OF BOSTON—DEPARTMENT OF
SCHOOL BUILDINGS

May 26, 1930.

School Committee of the City of Boston,

15 Beacon St.,

Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

The Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, having received from the School Committee a land and buildings budget for 1930, dated May 19th, 1930, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 351 of the Acts of 1929, make report thereon as follows:

This budget states that there is available for appropriation the sum of $4,409,374.87. The various items of the proposed budget total the sum of $3,775,175, and no appropriation orders as such accompanied this budget, but the budget was referred to us for comment.

The Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, on motion duly made, voted that the Chairman of the Board be directed to notify the School Committee that said proposed budget has been studied and examined, and as a budget the amounts allocated against the different items seemed to be reasonable allocations for said items; but this Board believes that no appropriation orders should be issued for the following items, until further study of plans of construction, of costs and of possible standardization has been made, namely:

Item E of the proposed budget—Chapman District, East Boston: Construction of thirteen-classroom elementary school building.....	$230,000.00
Item H of the proposed budget—Charles Sumner District, Roslindale: Construction of thirteen-classroom elementary school building on Poplar Street	230,000.00
Item P of the proposed budget—Gilbert Stuart District, Dorchester: Construction of thirteen-classroom unit of an elementary school building..	235,000.00
Item T of the proposed budget—Henry L. Higginson District, Roxbury: Construction of thirteen-classroom elementary school building with basement auditorium	250,000.00
Item D of the proposed budget—Warren-Bunker Hill District, Charlestown: Construction of thirty-classroom unit of a forty-classroom intermediate school building..	640,000.00
Total	$1,585,000.00

The amounts set forth against the respective items of this proposed budget are not to be considered as final adjudications of this Board that such amounts are proper amounts; but it is our understanding that when appropriation orders are forwarded from the School Committee to this Board, this Board will then report, after examination and investigation, as to whether said amounts are the minimum amounts to be allocated for said several items.

Respectfully submitted
Board of Commissioners of School
Building(Signed) Richard J. Lane,
Chairman.

CITY OF BOSTON—DEPARTMENT OF
SCHOOL BUILDINGS

June 20, 1930.

School Committee of the City of Boston,15 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.
Gentlemen:

Having received from the School Committee of the City of Boston, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 313 of the Acts of 1930, a proposed appropriation order, bearing date of June 16th, 1930, for report of the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, at a meeting held this day, considered said proposed order, and reports as follows:

We are giving our approval to several items of said proposed order on the assumption that the money is available for the amount of said appropriation order; and if said amounts are not available, we request the School Committee to re-submit said items to us for further report. We understand that the School Committee has requested an opinion from the Corporation Counsel on this matter, which opinion has not yet been received; but action is taken by the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings at this time, because—on account of the great delay from the first of the year to the present time in carrying forward needed construction—we desire to have this work undertaken at as early a date as possible. We therefore report—

Item proposed as Item 20—Agassiz-Bowditch District, Jamaica Plain—Construction of forty-classroom intermediate school building on Centre Street, corner of Pershing Road.....	$865,000.00
Item proposed as Item 23—Bowditch District, Jamaica Plain: Furnishing four-classroom addition to Margaret Fuller School.....	3,500.00
Item proposed as Item 26—Charles Sumner District, Roslindale: Construction of thirteen-classroom annex to Charles Sumner elementary school building.....	235,000.00
Item proposed as Item 32—Elihu Greenwood District, Hyde Park: Construction of thirteen-classroom unit of elementary school building on Radcliffe Road, corner of Ruskin Road.....	235,000.00
Item proposed as Item 55—Minot District, Dorchester: Furnishing nine-classroom addition to Thomas J. Kenney School.....	5,000.00
Item proposed as Item 57—Robert Gould Shaw District, West Roxbury: Construction and furnishing of four-classroom addition to Beethoven elementary school building..	48,000.00
Item proposed as Item 61—Ulysses S. Grant District, East Boston: Construction of eight-classroom special class building (annex to Ulysses S. Grant elementary school building)	140,000.00
Item proposed as Item 62—Ulysses S. Grant District, East Boston: Furnishing eight-classroom special class building (annex to Ulysses S. Grant elementary school building)	5,000.00

Having studied the above items and the amounts proposed as the appropriations for the same, the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings is of the opinion that the amounts allocated for said several items are reasonable estimates for the same.

The foregoing items have already been included in a budget submitted to us by the School Committee, bearing date of May 19th, 1930. That budget, we understand, has been set aside; and we are requesting that a new budget be submitted to this Board at an early date, as already suggested in our letter of June 11th, 1930.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Commissioners of School
Buildings.(Signed) Richard J. Lane,
Chairman.

Place on file.

In answer to the question which Mr. Lane raises in the foregoing communication as to the availability for appropriation at this time of funds provided by the 1930 Act, the Committee ordered the following communication from the Corporation Counsel spread upon the records:

LAW DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

11 Beacon Street

June 20, 1930.

Miss Ellen M. Cronin, Secretary,
School Committee of the City of Boston,

15 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Dear Miss Cronin:—

In your letter of June 13, 1930, you state that the School Committee asked to be advised whether it is my opinion that the entire amount of $3,820,000, as provided under c. 313 of the acts of 1930, may be appropriated this year. This sum of $3,820,000 is divided as follows:—

$2,500,000 to be raised in the tax levy.

$1,200,000 by borrowing outside the statutory limit of indebtedness, plus an additional sum of $120,000 from the tax levy or other sources of revenue.

In my opinion the School Committee has the legal right to appropriate the entire amount of $3,820,000 this year. Sec. 1 of c. 313 of the acts of 1930 provides in part that—

"The School Committee of the City of Boston may...make appropriations...for the financial year ending December thirty-one, nineteen hundred and thirty, of not more than three million eight hundred and twenty thousand dollars, and in addition to other sums required by law to be raised for appropriations of previous years and of the current year for such purposes...."

This language very clearly authorizes the appropriation by the School Committee of the entire amount of $3,820,000 this year. The Committee, however, must determine how much it desires to appropriate on or before August 1, 1931. In other words the time limit set by the Legislature is August 1, 1931. This, of course, authorizes the appropriation to be made any time before the date is reached in 1930 or 1931. In view of the fact that the Legislature has authorized the School Committee to make appropriations of $3,820,000, even though the money is not to be made available until 1931, the School Committee or the Department of School Buildings may make provisions to expend this money by contract or otherwise in anticipation of the money being made available. If the Legislature had not prescribed that appropriations might be made by the School Committee in advance of the money being made available, it would, of course, be illegal to make contracts for the expenditure of money which had not been appropriated.

See cases like May v. Gloucester, 174 Mass. 583 and Costello v. North-eastern Village District, 205 Mass. 54.

I accordingly advise you that the School Committee may make appropriations as described above and that contracts may be made under these appropriations although none of the money will be actually made available before 1931.

Very truly yours,
(Signed), Samuel Silverman,
Corporation Counsel.

Ellen M. Cronin, Secretary,
School Committee of the City of Boston,

Dear Miss Cronin:—

The School Committee of the City of Boston has asked to be advised as to its authority now to provide appropriations by transfer from certain unexpended balances of 1929 and by appropriation from the 1930 authorization for alteration and repairs, etc., for the purpose of paying certain bills under a new item of appropriation entitled "Unpaid Bills of 1929." This new appropriation order is to be made, I understand, under the provisions of sec. 3 of c. 283 of the acts of 1930.

I have examined the transfer and appropriation orders as submitted to me in your communication and in my opinion the School Committee has the legal right to make the transfer from the various appropriation orders passed in 1929 for the alteration and repair of school buildings to the new item entitled "Unpaid Bills of 1929," and you also have the legal right to add these sums so transferred to the amounts appropriated under an order to be adopted by the School Committee appropriating the sum of $66,477.52, which order is authorized by the provisions of c. 283 of the acts of 1930, to provide for the payment of certain unpaid bills incurred in 1929 by the Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners.

CHARLESTOWN INTERMEDIATE DISTRICT

The Secretary read the following communication:

June 23, 1930

Mr. Joseph J. Hurley
25 Pemberton Square
Boston, Massachusetts
Dear Mr. Hurley:

Due to the controversy in regard to the building of the intermediate school in Charlestown, I desire, on behalf of the people of my district, to have a public hearing before the School Committee as soon as possible.

I think it is a shame that after the appropriation has been made there should be a desire on the part of some to withhold the building of this new school. The people of Charlestown want this school and are indignant because its erection has not been started.

Please place this letter before the School Committee at tonight's meeting, and oblige

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

CHARLES S. SULLIVAN, Jr.

Placed on file and the request for a public hearing granted. It was agreed that the Secretary shall invite the Chairman and members of the Finance Commission, and the members of the Investigating Committee of the Finance Commission, to attend the public hearing to be held on Monday evening next and present their side of the case, if they so desire.

ADMISSIONS TO THE TEACHERS COLLEGE

The following report was received from the Board of Superintendents in response to the request of the School Committee at the previous meeting:

To the School Committee:

At the meeting of the School Committee held on Monday evening, June 16, 1930, the Board of Superintendents was instructed to determine the passing mark for admission to The Teachers College and report the same at the next meeting of the School Committee.

The Board of Superintendents understands that the School Committee has agreed to limit the September admissions to the College to not more than two hundred, subject to the meeting of the standards for admission to be established by the Board of Superintendents.

The Board of Superintendents in meeting June 19, 1930, voted to recommend to the School Committee the establishment of the following requirements for admission to The Teachers College in September, 1930:

That all candidates admitted to the four-year courses in The Teachers College in September, 1930, shall be required to attain an average of 60% or better in the required examinations in fourth-year subjects.

That in order to be eligible for admission to the final competitive examinations for entrance to The Teachers College, all candidates shall have attained a rank of A or B in all of the required subjects of the first three years, or shall obtain a mark of at least 50% in each of the examinations required to clear up deficiencies.

That in the progressive subjects of the first three years, the passing of the fourth-year examination with an average of 50% or better shall be required to clear up a deficiency of an earlier year.

That candidates shall be admitted to The Teachers College in the order of their standing on the total mark received for the fourth-year examinations.

The Board of Superintendents reaffirmed its action of November 14, 1929, when it was voted that for this year a "C" in a minor elective shall be accepted as certificate grade for the two elective units.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

The report was accepted and the several recommendations adopted.

In connection with the foregoing, the Chairman offered the following orders:

1. ORDERED, That the rules and regulations be amended to provide that beginning in September, 1931, no person shall be admitted to The Teachers College of the City of Boston who is not a legal resident of the City of Boston.

2. ORDERED, That beginning September 1, 1930, no person shall be appointed to substitute or temporary service as a teacher or a member of the supervising staff in the Boston public schools who is not a legal resident of the City of Boston.

3. ORDERED, That the rules and regulations be amended to provide that no person shall hereafter be appointed to a permanent position as a teacher or a member of the supervising staff in the Boston public schools who is not at the time of said appointment a legal resident of the City of Boston, and every person so appointed shall continue to have a domicile in said city during employment as teacher or member of the supervising staff.

Dr. Lyons offered the following as a substitute for Order No. 3, with the consent of the Committee:

ORDERED, that the rules and regulations be amended to provide that no person shall be appointed to any position in the employ of the School Committee of the City of Boston after Jan. 1, 1931, who is not a legal resident of the City of Boston; provided that this order shall not affect those already on the eligible lists or on civil service lists for Boston appointment, nor shall it affect those who have been admitted to The Teachers College up to that date.

Dr. Lyons: As long as I am a member of the School Committee or until such time as a similar order shall be passed, I shall present this order with every new Committee. For my arguments, I shall simply read my statement as made at the meeting of December 10, 1929, as follows:

"The purpose of the order is to bring it about that the large number of teachers employed by the City of Boston in the future shall have active, sympathetic interest in the career and the future of Boston, which is best procured by residence in the city; and to provide, further, that the vast amount of money raised by taxation from the citizens of Boston and paid in salaries to the teachers, shall be spent by them in Boston, at least to a major extent, and for the advancement of Boston.

"Approximately 1600 Boston teachers are now residents of other cities and towns. Investigation will show that some of them have used money paid them by the City of Boston for the purchase and maintenance of real estate holdings in other towns, for the construction of new houses, and otherwise to increase the taxable property in these communities.

"Boston is a residential city, second to none in the country, and it seems to me that it would be no hardship on teachers living in the surrounding towns, to require them to take up their residence within the corporate limits of the city.

There are fine residential sections within the confines of Boston which would not be overcrowded by the ingress of Boston's non-resident teachers.

"However, with a realization that we have an unwritten agreement or a moral contract with the teachers already in our system, I wish to call attention to the fact that there is nothing in the order to be presented that will interfere with the status of anyone holding an appointment in our schools at the present time.

"There are approximately 600"—800 at the present time—"qualified teachers, citizens of Boston, who are unable to procure positions in Boston, while non-residents are occupying such positions. I am informed that many such qualified teachers have applied for positions in other cities and towns in Massachusetts and have been refused on the ground that the residents of those communities must first be cared for.

"Now I do not advocate retaliation on account of this last mentioned state of affairs, because these towns are quite within their rights in adopting such an attitude. I contend it is manifestly unfair that teachers trained at the expense of the city of Boston, and teachers trained at other institutions at the expense of their parents, tax-payers of Boston, should be debarred from employment in this city because the positions have been filled by non-residents. The City of Boston, with its educational traditions, its schools and its Teachers College, is capable of producing at least as high an average of intelligence and efficiency in the teaching profession as any city or commonwealth in the country. A high average of intelligence and efficiency is all we can ever hope to attain by any system of selection which has yet been devised.

"Experience shows that certified lists made up after examination are not an infallible automatic index of the ability and temperament of persons listed in the order in which their respective percentages place them. A teacher whose record shows an average of 90 per cent will not necessarily be a better teacher than one whose average is only 80 or 75 per cent. While the examination method is the best available where large numbers of candidates are involved, the real efficiency and intelligence of a teacher and his adaptability to the needs of Boston cannot be determined until he has taught in Boston for some considerable time. If he then does not live up to his record, he cannot be discharged for that fact alone, and must be retained in the service and advanced to some degree at least.

"Therefore, the opening of positions in our general grades and schools to applicants from all parts of the country does not tend in any substantial degree to improve the character of the service. It cannot be doubted that one thousand average men and women trained in Boston schools and colleges and the educational institutions around Boston would be as good on the average as one thousand selected from certified lists from all parts of the country.

"It is not book knowledge nor examination excellence alone that makes a teacher for Boston. Temperament, environment, adaptability and sympathy with Boston's traditions and characteristics are factors, to my mind at least, as important as mere civil service tests.

"It is therefore specious to say that Boston will, generally speaking, get better teachers in the grades under the present system than would be obtained by requiring residence. The present operation of the school system does not bring to the grades in any great numbers teachers from far distant communities. Most of the non-resident teachers are residents of cities and towns not far from Boston where school and educational conditions and general cultural atmosphere are substantially the same. Therefore, the quality of teachers produced within the corporate limits of Boston will be the same as the quality produced in a circumference which extends very little beyond the limits of Boston. Teachers coming from a great distance will upon appointment take up residence surely in or near Boston, thereby making a change in his or her residential status. In the future, it cannot conceivably harm these teachers to require that they move within the limits of Boston, rather than to a town five or ten miles distant.

"The order provides for selection unrestricted by territorial limitations in cases where special capabilities are required, or where the number of qualified persons is so small as to make the selection from Boston residents alone undesirable. In the ordinary grades and schools a high standard of excellence is all that can be hoped for under established methods of selection, and the average efficiency, intelligence, and temperamental fitness of Boston residents are in my opinion higher than the average of the whole country, or at least as high as the average of any given community in the country."

Chairman: May I call attention to the fact that the first order touches admissions to The Teachers College; the second, substitute and temporary service; and the third, permanent appointment.

Mr. Gray: This, as Dr. Lyons says, is a "hardy perennial." It has been before us several times in my five years on the Board. As short a time ago as Dec. 10, 1929, the same question was up and at that time I made the following statement:

"The schools are for the children, and one of the greatest responsibilities of the School Committee is to maintain its teaching staff at the highest standard possible. This the Committee cannot do if the field from which it selects its teachers is limited, and in my judgment, to pass this order is unquestionably to limit that field. Through the School Committee, the children and their parents are entitled to the free choice of the best teachers wherever they may be found, and to restrict that choice will be a positive injury to our schools."

In addition: This raises a much more important question than residence. It raises the question of whether the School Committee is running the schools for the benefit of the children or of the teachers; and in my judgment when you limit the field from which you can get the best teachers you are not running the schools primarily for the children. I, therefore, vote against each and all of these orders with all the emphasis at my command.

Mr. Reilly: I feel that this is perhaps the most revolutionary measure I have faced since I have been a member of the School Committee. During the recent campaign I didn't take sides on this issue. I have always been inclined to subscribe to the sentiments actuating those who voted against measures similar to this evidenced by the minutes of previous meetings in which the matter came up. These specific orders cause me to reflect at length on the ultimate effect on the system. In administering school affairs, we must consider the children, the teachers, the parents, and the taxpayers as a whole. It is clear that the children are the primary consideration in all cases, but we must consider also the teachers, the parents, and the tax payers. We must also consider the effect of such orders in theory and fact. I have in mind that other city departments in securing employees require residence. I have in mind that we are at the present time faced with the fact that substantially six hundred teachers are candidates for potentially one hundred places. I have in mind that the intention of these orders is that more people may be attracted to live in Boston—that is within the city limits, rather than in Metropolitan Boston.

I feel that teachers who come to this city from a great distance will of necessity live either in Boston or near Boston, and this bill substantially invites them to live within the city limits rather than in Metropolitan Boston. I have deliberated on this at more or less length and I have always been of the mind that we should secure the best teachers wherever they may come from, and I have been supported in that by very many authorities. However, in view of the fact that in the city today we face an emergency situation, one that is affecting every resident of the city, it is my inclination to vote for a temporary restriction, provided that it is not retroactive. I think those who took examination this year in good faith should be eligible, if reached, to go into the schools for which they have taken the examination. The present order covers 1931. It is not retroactive and I am favoring it at this time only as a temporary measure in view of the economic situation in this city, and with full cognizance of its effect in theory and in fact on the children, the teachers, the parents, and the taxpayers, and not to any one group.

Mrs. Pigeon: As a citizen of Boston I have been interested in the discussion of similar orders relative to residence of teachers, and many, many times as this question has come before you for discussion, I have been very definite in my opinion and that opinion has been well expressed tonight by Mr. Gray. Therefore, it seems unnecessary for me to take the time of this Board to repeat in my own language what he has said. I am definitely opposed to all three orders.

Chairman: As proponent of the three orders, I think I should say a word in their justification. I appreciate the fairness of what Mr. Gray has said; yet in conducting the affairs of the School Committee, we cannot be influenced by educational theories alone. For two or more years now I have had object lessons to that effect through the limitations which finances have placed on our activities. In every question that comes before us we must ask—first, is it educationally advisable then, is it financially advisable. There is no doubt in my mind that Mr. Gray, from a theoretical standpoint, is absolutely right. Any limitation does theoretically prevent you from getting the best possible teachers, if you will judge by examination.

But I have in mind this situation: The cities and towns surrounding Boston are applying drastic limitation, both for substitute work and for permanent appointment, to those whom they number among their own citizens, so that the consequence is that although a girl in Boston who graduates from some college other than the Teachers College is theoretically on an equality with the Teachers College girl so far as high and intermediate appointment is concerned because we have merged lists, and very soon this will apply to elementary appointments. As a matter of fact she is not on an equality because unlike the Teachers College girl she must have two or three years of teaching experience in order to take the examinations. With some eight hundred on our lists, it is apparent that even the substitute and temporary work is limited and Teachers College girls get the preference because they are the only ones who have demonstrated their ability to teach in our schools. The Boston girl who is not a graduate of the Teachers College must go outside of Boston. In my own experience this is what has happened many times in the last few months: When she goes to Cambridge, Newton, Brookline, Everett, Somerville, Dedham—to towns which constitute Metropolitan Boston—she is told that the School Committee of that town, in view of the economic situation, has adopted the policy of taking care of its own first.

If reciprocity existed between Boston and all of our surrounding cities and towns, that would be the ideal situation, the best would be secured. But when the other cities and towns limit their substitute and temporary teachers and regular appointees to their own townspeople, it has not only the effect of preventing a Boston girl from getting a place there, but it is double-edged; it prevents a Boston girl or any other girl who is seeking to be eligible for Boston service, from getting the necessary teaching experience. Furthermore, it is a very touching thing to see some two hundred forty Teachers College girls receive their degrees and diplomas next Thursday, knowing the situation which will confront them next fall. Any day in the week, at nine or a little after, walk by 15 Beacon Street and see the air of dejection on the faces of the innumerable substitutes who report for work daily only to be told that there is no work. I have said very frankly that educationally, from a theoretical standpoint, the best should be secured no matter where they come from, but this thought occurs to me.

Mr. Superintendent, how many substitutes or temporary teachers do we have in a day in our school system?

Superintendent: Several hundred on an average.

Chairman: Approximately ten per cent of our teaching force. These people are getting intermittent work, are they not?

Superintendent: Many of them.

Chairman: It requires no stretch of the imagination to see that an intermittent substitute who is thinking whether she will work next day, or where she will work next day, is not the ideal teacher. It would be better for our children to limit the number assigned for temporary service so that these teachers would have the advantage of some security of position, the same school and the same pupils for some period—and avoid this shifting from school to school—one day in Hyde Park, the next in East Boston, Dorchester, etc., then no work for several days, then Brighton or elsewhere. Furthermore, I am wondering if the opponents of these orders realize that they are born of a desire to alleviate a temporary situation and do not necessarily commit succeeding School Committees to this policy.

Ten or twelve years ago it was necessary to go outside of Boston to get teachers, not to get the best, but to get teachers; but with the recession of industry and with the building up of this profession—with the advantage of better pay and all that—we now have an oversupply of teachers. The pendulum has swung to the other direction. Cannot this be regarded as an experiment to be watched carefully by the Superintendent. If he finds that among 800,000 Bostonians we cannot get one hundred a year of the same average high standing as the present force, and so reports to the School Committee, the School Committee can correct this experiment if it seems to be not for the best interests of all concerned. I regret the necessity of the orders. I wish that absolute reciprocity were possible, but we are facing a condition and not a theory. There are eight hundred to one thousand girls on the lists. Something must be done. These orders are born of a desire to do something about it.

Mr. Gray: I wish to pay my respects to you, Mr. Hurley, for the frank way in which you approached this problem. I merely want to add, lest there be any idea that my stand is theoretical, that I think the most fundamental and common-sense statement that I could make is, get the best teachers wherever you can get them. That is what the school children are entitled to. There is no theory connected with it. It is plain common sense.

Dr. Lyons: I agree heartily with Mr. Gray and in presenting my order a year and a half ago, and in my presentation now, I have that fully in view and I still feel that out of a population of 800,000 we should be able to get the best. With our fine Teachers College and our educational facilities—the Athens of America—we should be able to get the best teachers in the country. On the old question of inbreeding and similar fallacies; we cannot inbreed because we have already seventeen or eighteen hundred teachers who will be here for the next twenty years.

Mr. Gray: I should like to hear from the Superintendent.

Superintendent: This is not a new topic. It has been advocated several times within my recollection, in adversity and in prosperity, and about the same arguments are introduced each time. Some portions of the Chairman's arguments are new, and all are interesting. I myself am in disagreement with those who are favoring these orders. In the first place I believe they are unnecessary. The young women who are admitted to The Teachers College are admitted on a purely competitive basis. They come from Boston and from neighboring communities. The study that we made when this subject was under consideration before, showed that only about five per cent of the candidates were non-residents, about ten out of the two hundred that the Committee had voted to admit to The Teachers College. Now understand that admission to The Teachers College does not guarantee appointment. Admission to The Teachers College does not mean that any more girls will be appointed. It simply means that we will give an education to these two hundred girls and that the girls who come from Milton or from Newton will pay a tuition of approximately $285 a year. They pay tuition for the privilege of coming and getting the superior kind of instruction that we give. At the end of their college course, there is no assurance that the graduates of The Teachers College will be appointed, unless we take the other alternative that no one will be allowed to teach who is not a graduate of The Teachers College, which seems to me a rather pedantic position to take.

Under our present rules and regulations appointments to high and intermediate schools are from merged lists and after June, 1934, appointments to the elementary schools are to be from merged lists. So I say it is rather making a mountain out of a mole hill so far as admission to The Teachers College is concerned. We have thought it would be wise to admit to the Master's degree course in The Teachers College graduates of other colleges, and this week we are having an examination and we have questioned how many we might admit to this course. I understand that this order abrogates that legislation.

I think that there is another question that we should take into consideration, that is, that Boston is cosmopolitan. I have no doubt that Boston in its perspective and in its outlook is broader than the towns that surround it. Let us not forget that birthright. Let us take a position of reciprocity and of good will and of fellowship with these other towns. Boston must lead. If we are to have a federation of communities around Boston, and this is the consideration of everybody in Boston today, it will be not through a short-sighted policy that would alienate the good will of those people, but by reasonable action that will win their confidence and in that way bring about a better situation.

Chairman: This action will bring them into Boston.

Superintendent: You cannot bring sentiment in that way. I find that in one of my numerous speeches I said this: "If the proposed legislation were adopted"—at that time it was the restriction of outsiders to the privilege of teaching our children—"If this proposed legislation were adopted, Boston would win a distinction by no means enviable. Boston, the Cradle of Liberty, the Pioneer of public education in America, would take its stand with San Francisco and Minneapolis who alone of the leading cities of the United States impose some residential restrictions, and would forfeit its companionship with the following-named cities, none of which make discrimination against non-resident teachers: New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Los Angeles, Buffalo, Milwaukee, Newark, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Kansas City, Seattle, Indianapolis, Jersey City, Rochester, Portland, Ore., and Denver.

Chairman: Was that study made two years ago?

Superintendent: In 1927.

Chairman: Are you sure that it still applies.

Superintendent: No, but I'll warrant it does.

Chairman: The Superintendent knows that the overwhelming surplus has been mounting and has reached its culmination in the last three or four years.

Superintendent: I admit that the lists are growing all the time but I don't believe this drastic legislation is warranted. Moreover, Boston by the adoption of the proposed order would be the only city in Massachusetts with such restrictions regarding non-resident teachers.

Chairman: I don't like to interrupt, Mr. Superintendent, but truthfully there has come to my attention in the last few months innumerable cases where it was reported by people with no desire to prevaricate, that they have gone to surrounding cities and towns and have been told that it is the custom, it may not be the rule, but it is the custom. Has the Superintendent had occasion to test whether it is true or not?

Superintendent: We are accused of appointing Boston girls and I think it has always been the practice to appoint a very large proportion of Boston girls and so far as I have anything to do with appointments I shall insist upon that prerogative, but that doesn't mean that everybody under all circumstances and all conditions must be a resident of the City of Boston.

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent, you have no choice. Under the rules and regulations you appoint the first on the list.

Superintendent: There are several lists—one for non-residents and another for residents—and the large proportion always has been from the residential list first.

Chairman: Which is the residential list?

Superintendent: The graduates of The Teachers College.

Chairman: And the non-residential list?

Superintendent: The examined list.

Chairman: On what list would a girl go who lives in Boston but is not a Teachers College graduate?

Superintendent: The examined list.

Chairman: And a non-resident who attended The Teachers College?

Superintendent: The Teachers College list.

Chairman: Then you have residents on the non-residential list and non-residents on the residential list.

Superintendent: A small proportion. The fact is that the outside list, so called, is for the most part composed of non-residents.

Chairman: I appreciate the difficulties. If you have any other solution I shall withdraw my motion.

Superintendent: I would let the matter go as it is, taking care of itself. We are making few appointments and the great majority are from Boston. Why advertise to the world that we are making this sort of restriction?

Dr. Lyons moved a vote on the orders.

The Chairman suggested that in view of the fact that the orders had been styled revolutionary, action go over until the next meeting.

Mr. Gray: I should like to change that to reactionary.

Chairman: Reactionary is diametrically opposed to revolutionary.

Mr. Gray: It is the most reactionary thing we have ever done in my opinion. Does Dr. Lyons' order mean that those now in the service must change their domiciles?

Chairman: No. it is not retro-active.

Dr. Lyons: Those in The Teachers College, those on the eligible lists, those who have taken examinations are all provided for.

Mrs. Pigeon: A great deal has been said tonight about theory and practice. Now you know, all the members on this Board know, that in theory a certain definite thing will go through if we vote this order tonight; but in practice you will encourage the teachers of Boston to camouflage their residences; their residences will not change. They will simply be mattress voters in Boston. If you want to encourage that sort of thing, well and good. To my mind, it is a wrong attitude to take.

Dr. Lyons: That could be taken care of very well. I think that my order is the lesser of two evils. In the case of mattress voters referred to by Mrs. Pigeon, that would be followed out very nicely when the time comes.

Mr. Gray: Can you legally impose a residential restriction?

Chairman: Yes.

Mr. Reilly: Is this a permanent measure?

Mr. Hurley: All our rules are permanent.

Dr. Lyons: If it doesn't work out well, it can be overturned two, three, or five years later.

Mr. Reilly: It doesn't affect candidates examined at the last examination?

Chairman: No.

Mr. Reilly: And it doesn't affect girls now in The Teachers College?

Chairman: No.

Question came on the passage of the first order, as follows:

ORDERED, That the rules and regulations be amended to provide that beginning in September, 1931, no person shall be admitted to The Teachers College of the City of Boston who is not a legal resident of the City of Boston.

A roll call being ordered, the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Hurley, Dr. Lyons, Mr. Reilly—3.

NAYS—Mr. Gray and Mrs. Pigeon—2.

In connection with his vote, Mr. Reilly stated that he would like it clearly understood that he is voting for the order because he considers it an emergency measure to afford relief from the present situation, and with the reservation that some time later if it does not work out to this effect, he will reverse his action.

Question came on the passage of the second order, as follows:

ORDERED, That beginning September 1, 1930, no person shall be appointed to substitute or temporary service as a teacher or a member of the supervising staff in the Boston public schools who is not a legal resident of the City of Boston.

A roll call being ordered, the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Hurley, Dr. Lyons, Mr. Reilly—3.

NAYS—Mr. Gray and Mrs. Pigeon—2.

Question came on the passage of Dr. Lyons' substitute order—Order No. 3, as follows:

ORDERED, That the rules and regulations be amended to provide that no person shall be appointed to any position in the employ of the School Committee of the City of Boston after Jan. 1, 1931, who is not a legal resident of the City of Boston; provided that this order shall not affect those already on the eligible lists or on Civil Service lists for Boston appointment, nor shall it affect those who have been admitted to The Teachers College up to that date.

Mrs. Pigeon: May I ask how closely you are following the suggestion made by our Survey Committee in introducing these orders?

Dr. Lyons: I don't know that this is going to be an answer. I was one of those who helped bring the Survey Committee into being and I feel now as I felt then, that the Survey Committee made some very fine recommendations; but regardless of what recommendations they made, it is for us to accept or reject as we see fit.

Mr. Gray: The Survey Committee thought it vital that there should be absolutely free competition for appointment of teachers.

Chairman: Dr. Lyons, I understand that your order will exclude nonresidents from appointment after January 1, 1931, but will not apply to anyone who is then on our lists or who is then in The Teachers College

Mr. Gray: I understand that this order includes custodians, all civil service employees, all persons connected with the schools in any way.

Chairman: Yes.

A roll call being ordered, the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Hurley, Dr. Lyons, Mr. Reilly—3.

NAYS—Mr. Gray and Mrs. Pigeon—2.

Mrs. Pigeon moved reconsideration of the action approving the foregoing three orders.

Question came on whether the Chairman shall put Mrs. Pigeon's motion.

The Chairman read Section 21 of the Rules, as follows:

"Sect. 21. 1. The action of the School Committee on any question may be reconsidered at the same meeting by a majority vote; or, if any member who is not shown by a yea and nay vote to have voted against the prevailing side shall give notice in writing to the secretary before 12 o'clock M. of the day following that on which the meeting was held of his intention so to do, he may move a reconsideration at the next meeting of the School Committee. Only one motion for this purpose shall be in order."

Question came on Mrs. Pigeon's motion.

The motion was lost by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Gray and Mrs. Pigeon—2.

NAYS—Mr. Hurley, Dr. Lyons and Mr. Reilly—3.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 17.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

BOSTON, July 21, 1930.

To the Heads of City Departments:

GENTLEMEN,—You will please notify all of the male employees in your department that poll tax bills for 1930 have now been issued and should be promptly paid by every male city employee.

An examination of the records in the case of city employees indicates that very few persons in the employ of the city have up to this time paid their poll tax bills and that several owe for one or more prior years.

There is no reason why the poll tax should not be paid by every person legally liable therefor. It represents the minimum requirement in taxation and is too often overlooked because the amount is small.

Prompt payment of a poll tax will strengthen the feeling of responsibility which every citizen should have in his government, and a full collection of poll taxes will greatly relieve the burden resting upon homes and business.

Very truly yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTIONS TO POLICE TRAFFIC OFFICERS WITH RESPECT TO INSTALLATION OF TRAFFIC LIGHTS IN UNIT 1. BY JOHN F. HURLEY.

July 16, 1930.

It is not the purpose of automatic traffic signals in a concentrated downtown area of a metropolis to substitute themselves for the activities of police officers. The primary purpose of an interconnecting system of signal lights is to coordinate the flow of vehicular traffic. Theoretically, such a system will keep all traffic moving at all times. This would be the practical result accomplished if all parking were to be eliminated in the signalized area; if all operators of vehicles were to drive perfectly; if all vehicles were so perfect in construction that there would be no mechanical failures; if all traffic signals would operate without need for repairs and so forth. These are some of the many factors that require the services of police officers to make the signals effective. It can be readily seen and understood that the successful operation of any traffic signal system in a congested area depends largely upon the cooperation of the Police Department.
